

THE ISLAND OF NAURU.

No. 2 of 1952.

A N O R D I N A N C E

Relating to the Postal and Telegraphic Services of the Island of Nauru and the Rates therefor.

BE it ordained by the Administrator of the Island of Nauru, acting in pursuance of the powers conferred by Article 1 of the Agreement dated the second day of July, 1919, between His Majesty's Government in London, His Majesty's Government of the Commonwealth of Australia, and His Majesty's Government of the Dominion of New Zealand, as follows :-

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Post and Telegraph Ordinance 1952.

Definitions.

2. In this Ordinance, unless the contrary intention appears -

"the Island" means the Island of Nauru;

"the Post and Telegraph Act" means the Post and Telegraph Act 1901-1950 of the Commonwealth and, if that Act is amended, includes that Act as so amended, and also includes the Regulations for the time being in force under that Act;

"the Rates Act" means the Post and Telegraph Rates Act 1902-1951 of the Commonwealth and, if that Act is amended, includes that Act as so amended.

Adoption of certain Commonwealth Acts and Regulations.

3.-(1.) The Post and Telegraph Act and the Rates Act are adopted, subject to such modifications and adaptations as are prescribed by or under Ordinance of the Island, as laws of the Island of Nauru, so far as they are applicable to the circumstances of the Island, and this Ordinance shall be incorporated and read as one with those Acts as so adopted.

(2.) Where a provision in the Post and Telegraph Act or the Rates Act is repugnant to or inconsistent with any provision of any Act, Ordinance, law, Regulation, rule, order or proclamation having the force of law that has been or may hereafter be expressed to extend to or applied to or made or promulgated in the Island, the latter shall prevail.
