PART 3 — TRAVEL-RELATED DOCUMENTS

DIVISION 1 — ISSUE OF TRAVEL-RELATED DOCUMENTS

11 Issue of travel-related document

Subject to Section 12 and Part 4, the Minister may, on application by or on behalf of a person, issue the person with a travel-related document.

12 Minimum requirements for issue of travel-related document

- (1) The Minister shall not issue a travel-related document to a person unless the Minister is satisfied:
  - (a) of the person's identity; and
  - (b) that the person is qualified for the issue of the document under Division 2.
- (2) An application for a travel-related document shall be:
  - (a) made in the prescribed form; and
  - (b) accompanied by the prescribed fee and the documents specified on the prescribed form.
- (3) An application for a travel-related document may be made by the Republic on behalf of a person.

DIVISION 2 — CLASSES OF TRAVEL-RELATED DOCUMENTS

13 Refugee travel document

- (1) In this Section: 'Refugee Convention' means the Convention relating to the Status of Refugees dated 28 July 1951, or 1951 Refugee Convention and the Protocol in force under that Convention.
- (2) The Minister may issue a refugee travel document to a person who is present in Nauru if the person is:
  - (a) not a Nauruan citizen;
  - (b) a refugee recognised under the Refugee Convention; and
  - (c) qualified for the issue of the document under subsection (3) or (4).
- (3) A person is qualified if the person is lawfully resident or otherwise lawfully present in Nauru.
- (4) A person is qualified if the person:
  - (a) is not lawfully resident or otherwise lawfully present in Nauru; and
  - (b) is unable to obtain a travel document from the person's country of lawful residence.

14 Certificate of identity

- (1) The Minister may issue a certificate of identity to a person who is qualified for the issue of the certificate under subsection (2), (3) or (4).
- (2) A person is qualified if:
  - (a) the person is not a Nauruan citizen;
  - (b) the person intends to leave Nauru in the immediate future;
  - (c) the person is stateless or unable to obtain a valid travel document from the person's country of nationality; and

- (d) unless the person is stateless, either:
- (i) the person's country of nationality has consented to the issue of the certificate; or
  - (ii) the Minister is satisfied that it is reasonable to issue the person with the certificate even though the person's country of nationality has not consented to the issue.
- (3) A person is qualified if:
- (a) the person is a Nauruan citizen;
  - (b) the person does not hold a Nauruan passport because the issue of a Nauruan passport to the person is unnecessary or undesirable; and
  - (c) the Minister is satisfied the person needs to travel urgently because of a medical emergency or family crisis.
- (4) A person is qualified if the person:
- (a) is a Nauruan citizen; and
  - (b) cannot obtain a Nauruan passport because the person is not in a country in which an application for a Nauruan passport can be processed.

[The next page is 751,201]

PART 4 — REFUSAL TO ISSUE NAURUAN TRAVEL DOCUMENT

DIVISION 1 — CHILDREN

15 Child without parental consent or court order for travel

- (1) The Minister shall not issue a Nauruan travel document to a child unless:
  - (a) each person who has parental responsibility for the child consents to the child travelling internationally;
  - (b) an order of a court permits the child to travel internationally; or
  - (c) the Minister exercises discretion under subsection (2).
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), the Minister may exercise discretion to issue a Nauruan travel document to a child if:
  - (a) the Minister believes on reasonable grounds that the child's physical or psychological welfare would be adversely affected if the child were not able to travel internationally;
  - (b) the Minister believes on reasonable grounds that:
    - (i) the child urgently needs to travel internationally because of a family crisis; and
    - (ii) it is not possible to contact a non-consenting person to seek the person's consent to the child travelling internationally within a reasonable period of time;
  - (c) the following circumstances apply:
    - (i) the child is outside Nauru;
    - (ii) the child departed Nauru less than 12 months before the application for the travel document was made; and
    - (iii) the Minister considers that a travel document should be issued to enable the child to return to Nauru;
  - (d) the applicant has been unable to locate or contact a non-consenting person for a reasonable period, having made reasonable attempts to do so;
  - (e) a non-consenting person is missing and presumed dead;
  - (f) a non-consenting person is medically incapable of giving consent;
  - (g) there has been no contact between the child and a non-consenting person for at least 2 years before the application is made;
  - (h) the child:
    - (i) is at least 16 years old; and
    - (ii) has had no contact with a non-consenting person for at least 12 months before the application is made; or
  - (i) other prescribed circumstances exist.
- (3) Where the Minister has been given court documents demonstrating that there are proceedings before a court that may affect the ability of the child to travel internationally, the Minister shall not exercise discretion under subsection (2) unless the Minister reasonably believes that the child should be permitted to travel internationally because of a medical emergency or family crisis.
- (4) The Minister shall not exercise discretion under subsection (2) if the Minister believes that issuing a travel document to the child will be harmful to the interests of the child.

- (5) Where the Minister refuses to exercise discretion under subsection (2), the Minister may declare that he or she is refusing to exercise the discretion because the matter should be dealt with by a court.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (1), a reference to:
  - (a) a person consenting to a child travelling internationally includes a person consenting to the issue of a Nauruan travel document to the child; and
  - (b) an order of a court permitting a child to travel internationally includes an order permitting:
    - (i) the issue of a Nauruan travel document to the child; or
    - (ii) contact outside Nauru between the child and another person.

DIVISION 2 — LAW ENFORCEMENT AND SECURITY

16 Nauruan law enforcement matter

The Minister shall not issue a Nauruan travel document to a person if:

- (a) a warrant for the person's arrest is in force in Nauru in relation to a serious offence against a law of Nauru; or
- (b) the person, whether or not the person is in prison, is prevented from travelling internationally under a law of Nauru, or an order or other direction (however described) made under a law of Nauru.

17 International law enforcement matter

The Minister may refuse to issue a Nauruan travel document to a person if:

- (a) a warrant for the person's arrest is in force in Nauru or a foreign country in relation to a serious foreign offence;
- (b) the person (whether or not the person is in prison) is, in relation to a serious foreign offence, prevented from travelling internationally under a law of a foreign country or an order or other direction (however described) made under a law of a foreign country; or
- (c) the Minister believes on reasonable grounds that issuing a Nauruan travel document to the person would compromise proceedings under a law of a foreign country in relation to a serious foreign offence that the person is alleged to have committed.

18 Potential for harmful conduct

The Minister may refuse to issue a Nauruan travel document to a person if the Minister believes on reasonable grounds that:

- (a) if the document were issued to the person, the person would be likely to engage in conduct that might:
  - (i) prejudice the security of Nauru or a foreign country;
  - (ii) endanger the health or physical safety of another person, whether in Nauru or a foreign country;
  - (iii) constitute a serious offence against this Act; or
  - (iv) constitute a prescribed serious offence against another written law; and
- (b) it is necessary to refuse to issue the document to prevent the person from engaging in the conduct.

DIVISION 3 — OTHER REASONS

19 Repeated loss or theft

The Minister may refuse to issue a Nauruan travel document to a person if, in the 5 year period immediately before the application for the document is made, 3 or more Nauruan travel documents issued to the person have been lost or stolen.

20 Debt owed to Nauru

The Minister may refuse to issue a Nauruan travel document to a person if the Minister believes on reasonable grounds that the person owes money to Nauru for:

- (a) expenses incurred by Nauru on behalf of the person in a foreign country;
- (b) money lent to the person by Nauru when the person was outside Nauru; or
- (c) expenses incurred by Nauru to enable the person to depart from a foreign country.

21 Concurrently valid Nauruan travel document

The Minister shall not issue a Nauruan travel document to a person who holds a valid Nauruan travel document unless:

- (a) the person intends to travel to a country that will not accept a travel document showing evidence of travel to a particular country and the travel document already held by the person shows evidence of travel to the country; or
- (b) the travel document issued is a diplomatic, official or Presidential passport and the travel document already held by the person is a different class of travel document.

[The next page is 751,401]

PART 5 — VALIDITY OF NAURUAN TRAVEL DOCUMENTS

22 When Nauruan travel document ceases to be valid

A Nauruan travel document ceases to be valid on the earliest of the following:

- (a) the end of the day specified on the document as the date of expiry, which shall not be later than the end of the prescribed maximum period of validity for a document of that class;
- (b) when another Nauruan travel document is issued to the person, unless the other document has been issued to the person as a concurrently valid travel document because one of the circumstances mentioned in Section 21 applies;
- (c) when it is cancelled under Section 24;
- (d) for a certificate of identity issued to a person qualified under Section 14(2), when the person returns to the person's country of nationality and is able to obtain a valid travel document from that country;
- (e) for a certificate of identity issued to a person qualified under Section 14(3), when the person completes the journey for which the certificate was issued;
- (f) for a certificate of identity issued to a person qualified under Section 14(4), when the person arrives in a country in which an application for a Nauruan passport can be processed;
- (g) for a diplomatic, official or Presidential passport issued to a person because of the office the person or another person holds, the day the person or other person ceases to hold the office; or
- (h) for a diplomatic or official passport issued to a person because the person is the spouse or dependant of another person, the day the person stops being the spouse or dependant of the other person.

23 Nauruan travel document not renewable

- (1) A Nauruan travel document is not renewable.
- (2) This Section does not prevent the Minister issuing a new Nauruan travel document to a person whose travel document has ceased to be valid.

24 Cancellation of Nauruan travel document

- (1) The Minister may cancel a Nauruan travel document.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Minister may cancel a Nauruan travel document that has been issued to a person if:
  - (a) the Minister intends to issue another travel document to the person immediately after cancelling the document;
  - (b) the document has been lost or stolen;
  - (c) the Minister believes on reasonable grounds that the person to whom the travel document was issued has engaged in or, is likely to engage in conduct that might:
    - (i) prejudice or affect the national and economic security of Nauru or a foreign country;
    - (ii) endanger the health or physical safety of other persons;
    - (iii) endanger the safety and welfare of children in Nauru or a foreign country;

- (iv) constitute a serious offence against this Act;
  - (v) constitute a serious offence against any other written law;
  - (vi) constitute a terrorism related activity or other serious organised criminal activity;
  - (vii) constitute absconding from the payment of a debt owed to the Republic;
  - (viii) constitute absconding from the payment of any taxes owed to the Republic; or
  - (ix) constitute a law enforcement matter as prescribed under Sections 16 and 17; or
- (d) prescribed circumstances exist in which the document may be cancelled.

[subs (2) am Act 46 of 2016 s 4, opn 8 Sep 2016]

- (3) The Minister shall cancel a Nauruan travel document if the Minister becomes aware of a circumstance that would have prevented the issuance of the travel document under Section 7(1), 12(1), 15(1), 19 or 21.

[subs (3) subst Act 46 of 2016 s 4, opn 8 Sep 2016]

  - (b) the document was not issued to the person.

Penalty: $20,000 and 10 years imprisonment.

- (3) The holder of a Nauruan travel document commits an offence if the holder:
- (a) gives the document to another person; and
  - (b) is reckless about whether the document is or will be used by the other person for travel or identification.

Penalty: $20,000 and 10 years imprisonment.

- (4) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person has possession of a Nauruan travel document;
  - (b) the document was not issued to the person;
  - (c) the holder of the document has not consented to the person having possession of the document; and
  - (d) the person is reckless about whether or not the holder of the document has consented to the person having possession of the document.

Penalty: $20,000 and 10 years imprisonment.

27 Selling travel document

- (1) A person commits an offence if the person sells a Nauruan travel document.
Penalty: $20,000 and 10 years imprisonment.
- (2) It is not an offence for an authorised officer to collect a prescribed fee for the issue of a Nauruan travel document in the exercise of a power or function under this Act in good faith.

28 Damaging travel document

- (1) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person engages in conduct;
  - (b) as a result of the conduct, a current Nauruan travel document is damaged or destroyed; and
  - (c) the person knew the conduct would result in the damage or destruction.
- Penalty: $2,000 and 12 months imprisonment.
- (2) A person does not commit an offence under subsection (1) if the person:
- (a) has a reasonable excuse; or
  - (b) is an authorised officer who destroys or damages the document in the exercise of a power or the performance of a function under this Act in good faith.

29 Obstruction of official

A person commits an offence if:

- (a) the person intentionally obstructs another person;
- (b) the person obstructed is attempting to exercise a power or perform a function under this Act; and

  - (c) the person is reckless about whether the document is a false Nauruan travel document.

Penalty: $20,000 and 10 years imprisonment.

- (2) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person has possession of a document;
  - (b) the document is a blank Nauruan travel document; and
  - (c) the person is reckless about whether the document is a blank Nauruan travel document.

Penalty: $20,000 and 10 years imprisonment.

- (3) A person does not commit an offence under subsection (1) or (2) if the person:
- (a) has a reasonable excuse; or
  - (b) is an authorised officer who possesses the document in the exercise of a power or the performance of a function under this Act in good faith.

31 Taking or sending a document across international borders

- (1) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person takes or sends a document across the international border of a country;
  - (b) the document is a false Nauruan travel document; and
  - (c) the person is reckless about whether the document is a false Nauruan travel document.

Penalty: $20,000 and 10 years imprisonment.

- (2) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person takes or sends a Nauruan travel document across the international border of a country;
  - (b) the person is not the holder of the document;
  - (c) the holder of the document has not consented to the person taking or sending the document across the border; and
  - (d) the person is reckless about whether the holder of the document has consented to the person taking or sending the document across the border.

Penalty: $20,000 and 10 years imprisonment.

- (3) A person does not commit an offence under subsection (1) or (2) if the person:
- (a) has a reasonable excuse; or
  - (b) is an authorised officer who takes or sends the document across the border in the exercise of a power or the performance of a function under this Act in good faith.

32 Issue of passport contrary to this Act

An authorised officer to whom the Minister has delegated the function of issuing a Nauruan travel document commits an offence if:

- (a) the officer issues a Nauruan travel document;
- (b) the issue of the document is contrary to this Act; and
- (c) the officer knows that the issue of the document is contrary to this Act.

Penalty: $20,000 and 10 years imprisonment.

33 Failure to notify authorised officer of lost or stolen travel document

The holder of a Nauruan travel document commits an offence if:

- (a) the document is lost or stolen;
- (b) the holder is reckless about whether the document has been lost or stolen; and
- (c) the holder fails to report the loss or theft to an authorised officer as soon as practicable after the document has been lost or stolen.

Penalty: $2,000 and 12 months imprisonment.

34 Abuse of public office

- (1) In this Section: 'benefit' includes any advantage and is not limited to property; and
- 'detriment'* includes any disadvantage and is not limited to personal injury or to loss of, or damage to, property.

- (2) An authorised officer commits an offence if:
- (a) the officer:
    - (i) exercises any influence the officer has under this Act; or
    - (ii) engages in any conduct in the exercise of the officer's duties under this Act; and
  - (b) the officer does so with the intention of dishonestly:
    - (i) obtaining a benefit for the officer or another person; or
    - (ii) causing detriment to another person.

Penalty: $20,000 and 10 years imprisonment.

35 Confidentiality of information

- (1) A person who has obtained information under this Act commits an offence if:
- (a) the person engages in conduct;
  - (b) the conduct results in the disclosure of the information to another person; and
  - (c) the person is reckless about whether the person's conduct will result in the disclosure.

Penalty: $20,000 and 10 years imprisonment.

- (2) A person does not commit an offence under subsection (1) if the disclosure was made for the purpose of carrying out functions for the administration of this Act.

To extend, or not to extend, the time for making an application for review under Section 40(2)(b)	The applicant for the review
A decision made on review under Section 40(4)	An affected person for the decision reviewed

39 Notice of reviewable decision

The person who makes a reviewable decision shall give each affected person for the decision a notice specifying the following:

- (a) the decision;
- (b) the reasons for the decision;
- (c) if the decision was made by an authorised officer, whether as a delegate of the Minister or under Section 36:
  - (i) that the person may apply to the Minister for review of the decision; and
  - (ii) that the application shall be made within 28 days after receiving the notice or be accompanied by an application for an extension of time to make the application; and
- (d) if the decision was made by the Minister, the affected person may by written application to the President, request that the decision of the Minister be reviewed.

[s 39 am Act 46 of 2016 s 5, opn 8 Sep 2016]

40 Review of decision

- (1) An affected person for a reviewable decision made by an authorised officer may apply to the Minister for review of the decision.
- (2) The application for review shall be made:
  - (a) within 28 days after the affected person receives notice of the decision under Section 39; or
  - (b) within a later time decided by the Minister on application by the affected person.
- (3) The application shall be in writing and shall set out the reasons for the application.
- (4) To decide the review, the Minister shall:
  - (a) affirm the decision;
  - (b) vary the decision; or
  - (c) set aside the decision and substitute a new decision.

41 Appeal against decision

- (1) An affected person for a reviewable decision made by the Minister may appeal the decision to the President.
- (2) An appeal to the President shall:
  - (a) be in writing;
  - (b) set out the reasons for the appeal; and
  - (c) be lodged within 28 days of receipt of the notice under Section 39.
- (3) The appeal does not affect the operation or implementation of the reviewable decision.
- (4) In considering the appeal the President may affirm, vary or set aside the decision.
- (5) A decision made by the President under subsection (4) is final and conclusive.
- (6) Any decision made for the reasons prescribed under Section 24(2)(c)(i) is non justiciable.

PART 9 — CRIMINAL LIABILITY

42 Elements of an offence

- (1) An offence against this Act consists of physical elements and fault elements.
- (2) A physical element of an offence against this Act may be:
  - (a) conduct;
  - (b) a result of conduct; or
  - (c) a circumstance in which conduct, or a result of conduct, happens.
- (3) A fault element for a particular physical element of an offence against this Act may be intention, knowledge or recklessness.

43 Conduct and engaging in conduct

- (1) Conduct is an act, an omission to perform an act or a state of affairs.
- (2) To engage in conduct is to:
  - (a) perform an act; or
  - (b) omit to perform an act.

44 Intention

- (1) A person has intention in relation to conduct if the person means to engage in that conduct.
- (2) A person has intention in relation to a result if the person means to bring it about or is aware that it will happen in the ordinary course of events.
- (3) A person has intention in relation to a circumstance if the person believes that it exists or will exist.

45 Knowledge

A person has knowledge of a result or circumstance if the person is aware that it exists or will exist in the ordinary course of events.

46 Recklessness

- (1) A person is reckless in relation to a result if:
  - (a) the person is aware of a substantial risk that the result will happen; and
  - (b) having regard to the circumstances known to the person, it is unjustifiable to take the risk.
- (2) A person is reckless in relation to a circumstance if:
  - (a) the person is aware of a substantial risk that the circumstance exists or will exist; and
  - (b) having regard to the circumstances known to the person, it is unjustifiable to take the risk.
- (3) The question of whether taking a risk is unjustifiable is one of fact.
- (4) Where recklessness is a fault element for a physical element of an offence, proof of intention, knowledge or recklessness satisfies the fault element.

[The next page is 752,401]

PART 10 — ADMINISTRATIVE MATTERS

47 Appointment of authorised officers

- (1) The Minister may appoint a person to be an authorised officer for this Act.
- (2) The Minister may appoint a person under subsection (1):
  - (a) by name;
  - (b) by reference to a class of persons; or
  - (c) by reference to the office, position or designation held or occupied by the person.

48 Request for personal information

- (1) The Minister may request information from a person for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The information requested from the person may include personal information about another person.
- (3) The person from whom the information is requested:
  - (a) is authorised to give the information to the Minister; and
  - (b) is not civilly or criminally liable for giving the information.

49 Disclosure of information

The Minister may only disclose information about a person (the ‘relevant person’) obtained under this Act:

- (a) to the following persons:
  - (i) a person who has issued a document given to the Minister in relation to the relevant person’s application for a Nauruan travel document;
  - (ii) the Commissioner of Police;
  - (iii) a court;
  - (iv) the Head of the Department; or
  - (v) a person exercising powers or performing functions under this Act; and
- (b) for the following purposes:
  - (i) to inform the person about the status of a Nauruan travel document;
  - (ii) to confirm or verify information about the person for the purposes of this Act;
  - (iii) to facilitate or otherwise assist the international travel of the relevant person under a Nauruan travel document;
  - (iv) law enforcement;
  - (v) the operation of family law and related matters; or
  - (vi) another purpose prescribed for this Section.

50 Delegation of Minister’s powers

- (1) The Minister may, in writing, delegate to an authorised officer any of the Minister’s powers and functions under the following provisions:
  - (a) the power to issue an ordinary Nauruan passport or a travel-related document under Section 6 or 11, unless the exercise of the power requires the exercise of discretion under Section 15(2);

- (b) the power to request information under Section 48;
  - (c) the power to disclose information under Section 49; and
  - (d) the power to endorse or make observations on a Nauruan travel document under Section 55.
- (2) In exercising a delegated power or function, the authorised officer shall comply with any directions of the Minister.

51 Application on behalf of child

An application for a Nauruan travel document to be issued to a child may be made on behalf of the child by a person with parental responsibility for the child.

52 Form of travel documents

- (1) A Nauruan travel document shall be issued in the form approved by the Minister for that class of document.
- (2) In approving the form of a Nauruan travel document, the Minister shall be guided by the requirements of the International Civil Aviation Organisation Document 9303 (as existing from time to time).

53 Name on travel document

- (1) The name of the person to whom a Nauruan travel document is issued shall appear on the document.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), the name shall be the person's name as it appears on the most recently created of the following documents:
- (a) an entry of the person's birth in the Register of Births or another register or record of births kept under Section 6 of the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 2017;
  - (b) a notice of the grant of citizenship to the person published in the Gazette under Section 5(4) of the Naoero Citizenship Act 2017;
  - (c) a record of a name change of the person in a register kept under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 2017;
  - (d) a certificate of the person's birth or change of name issued under a law of another place;
  - (e) the previous Nauruan passport issued to the person; or
  - (f) another prescribed document.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), the name may be the person's chosen married name, even if it is not the name that appears on a document mentioned in subsection (2), if the person issuing the travel document is satisfied that the person now uses the name having seen:
- (a) a document mentioned in subsection (2) showing the person's name before the marriage; and
  - (b) one of the following documents:
    - (i) a certificate of the person's marriage issued under Section 24 of the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 2017;
    - (ii) an entry of the person's marriage in the Register of Marriages kept under Section 22 of the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 2017; or
    - (iii) a certificate of the person's marriage issued under a law of another place.

- (4) Where a document mentioned in subsection (2) or the person's married name contains more than 2 given names, the person's name as it appears on the Nauruan travel document may include only the first 2 given names.

54 Nauruan travel document remains property of the Republic

A Nauruan travel document remains the property of the Republic at all times.

55 Endorsements and observations

- (1) The Minister may endorse, or make observations on, a Nauruan travel document.
- (2) The Minister shall not endorse a Nauruan travel document issued to a person with the name of another person.

56 Register of travel documents

- (1) The Secretary shall keep and maintain a separate register each of:
- (a) Presidential passport;
  - (b) diplomatic passports;
  - (c) official passports;
  - (d) Nauruan ordinary passports;
  - (e) travel-related documents;
  - (f) refugee travel documents; and
  - (g) certificates of identity.
- (2) The registers shall include the date of issue and expiry of each travel document issued and such other matters as may be prescribed.
- (3) The records kept and maintained under this Section shall:
- (a) be contained in digital or electronic form; and
  - (b) not be destroyed without the prior approval of the Cabinet.

[s 56 subst Act of 2020 s 5]

57 Regulations

- (1) The Cabinet may make regulations under this Act prescribing matters:
- (a) required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed; or
  - (b) necessary or convenient to give effect to this Act.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations may:
- (a) for an offence against the regulations, prescribe a fine not exceeding $5,000;
  - (b) give a person discretion to decide a matter;
  - (c) provide for the issue, use and possession of diplomatic, official and Presidential passports; and
  - (d) make different provision in relation to different matters or classes of matters.

PART 11 — REPEAL AND TRANSITIONAL MATTERS

DIVISION 1 — REPEAL OF ACT

58 Repeal

The Passports Act 1997 (No 9 of 1997) is repealed.

DIVISION 2 — TRANSITIONAL MATTERS

59 Definitions

In this Division:

‘repealed Act’ means the Passports Act 1997 as in force immediately before the commencement date; and

‘new Act’ means this Act.

60 Passports issued under repealed Act

- (1) A Nauruan passport issued under the repealed Act is taken, from the commencement date, to be a Nauruan passport issued under the new Act.
- (2) The passport:
  - (a) continues to be valid for the unexpired part of the term it would have been valid if the repealed Act remained in force after the commencement date; and
  - (b) cannot be renewed under the repealed Act.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not prevent the Minister from cancelling the passport under the new Act.

61 Application under repealed Act
