- (4) A ballot-paper is not informal for any reason other than the reasons specified in this section, but is to be given effect according to the elector's intention so far as that intention is clear.

26 Scrutiny of ballot-papers

As soon as practicable after the close of the poll, the presiding officer at each polling place shall bring the locked ballot-box from that place to the Returning Officer, who shall, in the presence of the presiding officer:

- (a) open the ballot-box;
- (b) identify and reject all informal ballot-papers;
- (c) record the number of informal ballot-papers and unrejected ballot-papers respectively; and
- (d) place in a separate parcel all ballot-papers that have been rejected as informal.

27A [Repealed]

26A Counting of votes in election

- (1) This section and section 26B apply to the counting of votes marked on unrejected ballot-papers in any election except a by-election.
- (2) For each constituency the Returning Officer must:
 - (a) ascertain the total number of first preference votes, second preference votes and third preference votes, and so on, cast for each candidate and make a list of the total number of such preference votes;
 - (b) give the value of unity to each first preference vote, one half to each second preference vote, one third to each third preference vote, and so on, the value of each preference vote being the reciprocal of the number of the preference indicated by the elector; and
 - (c) add the values of the votes for each candidate and make out and sign a statement specifying the total value of the preference votes for the candidate.

26B Determination of result of election

- (1) In a constituency returning 2 members, the 2 candidates receiving the highest total value of votes calculated under section 26A are elected.

- (2) In a constituency returning 3 members, the 3 candidates receiving the highest total value of votes calculated in accordance with section 26A are elected.
- (3) In a constituency returning 4 members, the 4 candidates receiving the highest total value of votes calculated in accordance with section 26A are elected.
- (4) If 2 or more candidates receive an equal value of votes and one or more of the candidates must be excluded, the Returning Officer must determine under section 27A the candidate or candidates to be excluded.

27 Counting of votes and determination of result of by-election

- (1) In respect of votes marked on unrejected ballot-papers in a by-election, the Returning Officer:
 - (a) shall ascertain the total number of first preference votes given for each candidate; and
 - (b) shall make out and sign a statement setting out the number of first preference votes given for each candidate, and certify, by endorsement on the copy of the writ received by him, the like particulars.
- (2) The candidate who has received the largest number of first preference votes is, if that number constitutes an absolute majority of votes, elected as a member for the constituency for which he was a candidate for election.
- (3) If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes, the Returning Officer shall proceed with the scrutiny and the counting of votes as follows:
 - (a) a second count of the ballot-papers shall be made;
 - (b) on the second count the candidate who has received the fewest first preference votes shall be excluded, and each ballot-paper counted to him shall be counted to the candidate next in order of the elector's preference;
 - (c) if a candidate then has an absolute majority of votes he shall be elected, but if no candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and counting each of his ballot-papers to the unexcluded candidate next in order of the elector's preference shall be repeated until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes; and

(d) the candidate who has then received an absolute majority of votes shall be elected for that constituency.

(4) [Repealed]

(5) If on any count two or more candidates have an equal number of votes and one of them has to be excluded, the Returning Officer must determine under section 27A the candidate to be excluded.

27A Determination of exclusion of candidate

(1) In this section:

'relevant candidate' means a candidate who may be excluded as a result of the Returning Officer's determination.

(2) If the Returning Officer is required, under section 26B(4) or 27(5), to determine a candidate or candidates to be excluded, the Returning Officer must:

(a) in relation to each relevant candidate, deduct from the total value of the votes received by the candidate the value that was derived from last preference votes; and

(b) identify which of the relevant candidates has the highest remaining value of votes after making the deduction; and

(c) exclude each other relevant candidate.

(3) If, after making the deduction, the remaining value of votes for each of the relevant candidates remains equal, the Returning Officer must repeat the procedure of deduction in respect of second-last preference votes, third-last preference votes, and so on, until it is possible to identify one candidate with the highest remaining value of votes and to exclude the other relevant candidate or candidates.

(4) If it is not possible to exclude any candidate under subsection (2) or (3) because the preference votes received by each of the relevant candidates are equal in every respect, the Returning Officer must determine by lot a candidate or candidates to be excluded, using a random method of selection such as:

(a) tossing a coin; or

(b) drawing the names out of a container in such manner that the Returning Officer cannot see which names he or she is drawing.

- (5) A determination by lot under subsection (4) must be made in the presence of each of the relevant candidates.

28 Declaration of election

As soon as possible after the result of an election is ascertained, the Returning Officer shall, by notice exhibited in a conspicuous place at or near the building known as the Government Offices, Nauru, and by notice in the Gazette, declare:
