PART 4 — ADMINISTRATION AND MANAGEMENT OF COMMERCIAL CONTRACTS

24 Prohibition on the provision of commercial services

- (1) No person shall provide or render any commercial services at the regional processing centre and settlements unless:
 - (a) there is in place a contract authorised by the Cabinet;
 - (b) the authorised contract has either been executed by the Republic under Section 16(1) of the Asylum Seekers (Regional Processing Centre) Act 2012, or where the Republic is not a party, it has been endorsed by the Secretary under this Act;
 - (c) the authorised contract has been endorsed by the Secretary under paragraph (b) and executed by a representative or nominee or agent authorised by the Commonwealth of Australia;
 - (d) a current business licence is produced; and
 - (e) a tax identification number issued under the Revenue Administration Act 2014 is produced.
- (2) A person commits an offence under subsection (1), if he or she attempts, induces, colludes, conspires or enters into an arrangement or understanding with another person or persons to provide or render commercial services at the regional processing centre and settlements.
- (3) Any person who contravenes this Section, commits an offence and shall be liable upon conviction to a fine not exceeding $500,000 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 5 years or to both.
- (4) The Secretary may issue a certificate declaring that the services are pursuant to an authorised contract under this Act and which shall be:
 - (a) conclusive evidence of the contract being in compliance with this Act; and
 - (b) admissible as evidence in any court.
- (5) Where the Cabinet proposes to withdraw or revoke its authorisation of a contract under subsection (1)(a) or, the Secretary proposes to withdraw or revoke the endorsement of a contract under subsection (1)(c), 3 months' written notice shall be given to each affected party of the proposal to withdraw or revoke authorisation or endorsement.
- (6) Where a service provider appointed under subsection (1)(c), breaches or fails to comply with the terms and conditions of an authorised contract endorsed by the Secretary under subsection (1)(b), the Corporation may issue a notice under Section 25(2) or initiate proceedings under Section 26(1), if it receives a written request from the Commonwealth of Australia.
- (7) Save for subsection (1)(c), the Cabinet may make such regulations for the purposes of this Section as necessary including specifically authorising other persons to execute or endorse such contracts.

[s 24 subst Act 21 of 2017 s 4, opn 14 Sep 2017]

25 Breach of contract

- (1) A contract is breached if the service provider fails to perform its obligations provided for in the authorised contract.

- (2) In case of breach of an authorised contract, the Corporation may issue a notice to:
 - (a) prohibit any conduct; and
 - (b) require the service provider to rectify any breaches of the contract within the terms of the contract or sooner in case of exigencies of the service.

26 Power to institute proceedings

- (1) The Corporation may institute such proceedings as may be necessary to:
 - (a) compel the service provider to specifically perform the obligations under the authorised contract for provision of such services;
 - (b) restrain a service provider whose authorised contract has expired, terminated or lapsed from providing any services; and
 - (c) restrain any person without an authorised contract from the provision of services to the regional processing centre, settlements or in relation to protected persons.
- (2) The Court in considering the application made under subsection (1), may consider making such orders ex-parte as appropriate including an order for:
 - (a) Mareva Injunction; or
 - (b) Writ ne Exeat Republica.
- (3) Any legal costs incurred by the Corporation shall be included in the management and service fees.

27 Offences by corporation

- (1) Where an offence has been committed under this Act by a service provider which is a corporation, firm, society or other body of persons, any person who at the time of the commission of the offence was a director, manager, secretary or officer or a partner of the company, firm, society or other body of persons or was purporting to act in such capacity shall be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly, unless he or she proves that:
 - (a) the offence was committed without his or her consent or collusion; and
 - (b) he or she exercised all such diligence to prevent the commission of the offence as he or she ought to have exercised, having regard to the nature of his or her functions in that capacity and to all circumstances.
- (2) Upon conviction, the Court may impose:
 - (a) in the case of a corporation, firm, society or other body of persons a fine not exceeding $500,000; and
 - (b) in the case of a director, manager, secretary or officer or a partner of the company, firm, society or other body of persons, a fine not exceeding $50,000 or a term of imprisonment not exceeding 3 years or to both.

28 Specific offences by directors, etc

- (1) A person who at the time of the commission of the offence was a director, manager, secretary, officer, a partner or employee of the service provider commits an offence if:
 - (a) he or she exercises any influence that he or she has in his or her capacity; and

- (b) engages in any conduct in the exercise of his or her functions as or uses any information he or she has obtained:
 - (i) with the intention of dishonestly obtaining a benefit for himself or herself or another person; or
 - (ii) dishonestly causing a detriment to another person.
- (2) A person commits an offence, if he or she:
 - (a) has ceased to be a director;
 - (b) uses any information obtained in that capacity as a director; and
 - (c) does so with the intention of:
 - (i) dishonestly obtaining a benefit for himself or herself or for another person; or
 - (ii) dishonestly causing a detriment to another person.
- (3) A service provider whose authorised contract has expired or has been terminated, commits an offence if it continues to access the regional processing centre or settlements.
- (4) A person who commits an offence under this Section, upon conviction is liable to a fine not exceeding $500,000 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 5 years or to both.

The Cabinet makes the following Regulations under Sections 19(1) and 34 of the Nauru (RPC) Corporation Act 2017:

1 Citation

These Regulations may be cited as the Nauru (RPC) Corporation (Management and Service Fees) Regulations 2023.

2 Commencement

These Regulations come into effect on the day they are notified in the Gazette.

3 Interpretation

In these Regulations:

‘authorised contract’ for the purposes of these Regulations, refers to the contract between the Commonwealth of Australia represented by the Department of Home Affairs and Management and Training Corporation authorised by the Cabinet under Section 24 of the Act on 13 January 2023 and endorsed by the Secretary for Multicultural Affairs on 11 January 2023;

‘authorised service provider’ means Management and Training Corporation or any successor commercial service provider appointed by the Commonwealth of Australia; and

‘management and service fees’ has the same meaning given to it under the Act and shall be paid into the Treasury Fund in accordance with Section 19(2) of the Act.

4 Management and service fees

For the period commencing from 1 January 2023 to 30 June 2023, the total management and service fees payable under these Regulations shall be $10,000,000, which sum shall be paid in accordance with Regulation 5.

5 Payment of management and service fees

- (1) For the purposes of Section 19(1) of the Act, the Commonwealth of Australia on behalf of the authorised service provider, shall pay management and service fees for the facilitation and administration of services at the Regional Processing Centres and Settlements or in relation to protected persons for the period commencing from 1 January until 30 June 2023 in the sum of $10,000,000.
- (2) The fee referred to in subregulation (1) shall be charged only for the period commencing from 1 January 2023 and continues until 30 June 2023.
- (3) The Corporation shall charge and recover its management and service fees from the authorised service provider which shall be:
 - (a) $1,666,667 on or before 1 January 2023;
 - (b) $1,666,667 per month with effect from 1 January 2023 until the total sum of $10,000,000 is paid by 1 June 2023; and
 - (c) payable on the 1st day of each successive month.

6 Regulations not to apply

These Regulations shall not apply to Eigigu Solutions Corporation.

7 Regulations repealed

The Nauru (RPC) Corporation (Management and Service Fees) Regulations 2022 SL No 9 notified on 30 June 2022 is hereby repealed.
