PART 2 — PREVENTION OF REPETITIVE LITIGATION

3 Stay of suit

- (1) No court shall proceed with the trial of any suit in which the matter in issue is also directly and substantially in issue in a previously instituted suit between the same parties, or between parties under whom they or any of them claim, litigating under the same title, where such suit is pending in the same or any other court having jurisdiction in the Republic to grant the relief claimed, or before a court of another country on appeal from the decision of a court in the Republic:

Provided that, where all the parties consent, a court may proceed with the trial of such a suit and the proceedings in the previously instituted suit shall be stayed.

- (2) The pendency of a suit in a foreign court, other than on appeal from the decision of a court in the Republic, shall not preclude a court from trying a suit in which the same matters or any of them are in issue in such suit in such foreign court.

4 Res judicata

- (1) No court shall try any suit or issue in which the matter directly and substantially in issue has been directly and substantially in issue in a former suit between the same parties, or between parties under whom they or any of them claim, litigating under the same title, in a court competent to try that subsequent suit or the suit in which that issue has been subsequently raised, and has been heard and finally decided by such court:

Provided that the matter in issue shall in the former suit have been alleged by one party and either denied or admitted, expressly or impliedly, by the other.

- (2) In this Section, the expression “former suit” shall denote a suit which has been decided prior to the suit in question whether or not it was instituted prior.
- (3) For the purposes of this Section, the competence of a court shall be determined irrespective of any provision as to right of appeal from the decision of that court.
- (4) Any matter which could properly have been made a ground of support for, or of defence against, any claim, counter-claim or set-off pleaded in any former suit shall for the purposes of this Section be deemed to have been a matter directly and substantially in issue in that suit.
- (5) Any relief which has been claimed in a suit and is not expressly granted by the decree, shall for the purposes of this Section, be deemed to have been refused.
- (6) Where persons litigate bona fide in respect of a public right or of a private right claimed in common for themselves and others, all persons, interested in that right shall, for the purposes of this Section, be deemed to claim under the persons so litigating.

5 Bar to further suit

Where a plaintiff is precluded by rules of court from instituting a further suit in respect of any particular cause of action, he or she shall be barred from instituting a suit in respect of that cause of action.

6 Prevention of vexatious suits

- (1) Where a person has frequently and without any reasonable ground commenced suits in any court, a Judge may, upon the application of the Secretary for Justice or the Registrar, order that no suit shall, during such period as may be specified in the order, be commenced by that person without the leave of a Judge.
- (2) No order shall be made under this Section unless the person to whom the order relates has been given an opportunity to be heard in the matter.

7 When foreign judgment not conclusive

A foreign judgment shall be conclusive as to any matter thereby directly adjudicated upon between the same parties or between parties under whom they or any of them claim, litigating under the same title, except:

- (a) where it has been pronounced by, or entered in, a court without competent jurisdiction;
- (b) where it has not been given on the merits of the case;
- (c) where it appears on the face of the proceedings to be founded on an incorrect view of international law or a refusal to recognise the law of the Republic in cases in which that law is applicable;
- (d) where the proceedings in which the judgment was obtained are opposed to natural justice;
- (e) where it has been obtained by fraud; or
- (f) where it sustains a claim founded on a breach of any law in force in the Republic.

8 Presumption as to foreign judgments

The production of any document purporting to be a certified copy of a foreign judgment shall be received by any court as evidence of the truth of all matters, unless there is reason to believe that it is not a true copy of such judgment.

PART 3 — COMMENCEMENT OF SUIT

9 Suits within the jurisdiction of the District Court to be commenced therein

Every suit which the District Court has jurisdiction to try shall be commenced in the District Court provided that:

- (a) a Judge may upon application by an originating summons, for any special reason, give leave for a suit to be commenced in the Supreme Court notwithstanding that the District Court has jurisdiction to try it; and
- (b) no appeal shall lie against the decision of a Judge upon an application made under this Section.

10 Institution of suits

Every suit shall be commenced in such manner as may be prescribed by rules of court.

PART 4 — PROCEDURE IN SUITS AND DISCOVERY

11 Service on defendant

Where a suit has been duly instituted the defendant shall, subject to the provisions of Section 14, be served in the manner prescribed with a writ of summons requiring him or her to enter an appearance and answer the claim.

12 Power to order discovery and the like

Subject to such conditions and limitations as may be prescribed, any court may, at any time, either of its own motion or on the application of any party to proceedings:

- (a) make such orders as may be necessary or reasonable in all matters relating to the delivery and answering of interrogatories, the admission of documents and facts, and the discovery, inspection, production, impounding and return of documents or other material objects producible as evidence; and
- (b) order any fact to be proved by affidavit.

13 Claim may be dismissed if no step taken in proceedings for 1 year

- (1) Where no step has been taken in any suit in any court for a period of 1 year or more, no party may take any further step without the leave of that court and, upon the application of any party, the claim, and the counterclaim if any, may be dismissed by that court:

Provided that the dismissal of a claim or a counterclaim under the provisions of this subsection shall not, of itself, be a bar to the institution of new proceedings in respect of that claim or counterclaim.

- (2) Where no step has been taken in any suit in any court for 6 years or more, the court may, on application by any party or of its own motion and without giving notice to any party, dismiss the claim and the counterclaim if any, and thereafter no further suit may be commenced in any court in respect of either that claim or that counterclaim.

14 Procedure in certain petty cases

- (1) Where the claim is for liquidated damages not exceeding $100 and the defendant is a natural person normally resident in the Republic, the plaintiff may commence his or her suit by obtaining the issue of a summons requiring the defendant to attend the District Court at the time and place specified and, where such summons is issued, the provisions of Sections 10 and 11 shall not apply.
- (2) Where in a suit which could have been commenced under subsection (1), the plaintiff causes the defendant to be served with a summons to enter an appearance, he or she shall, if he or she succeeds in the suit, not be entitled to recover costs greater than the costs which he or she would have recovered if he or she had commenced the suit by a summons to attend and, if he or she is unsuccessful, the defendant shall be entitled to recover from him or her the amount by which his or her costs exceed the costs which he or she would have had to incur if he or she had been served with a summons to attend:

Provided that the court may, if it is satisfied that the plaintiff had good reason for causing the defendant to be served with the summons to enter an appearance, order that the provisions of this subsection shall not apply.

PART 5 — TRIAL

15 Power to call in assessors

- (1) Civil suits in the Supreme Court shall be tried by a Judge alone.
- (2) Any court may, in any cause or matter pending before it in which questions may arise as to the customs of the Nauruans or of any other people, summon to its assistance one or more competent assessors and such assessors shall attend and assist accordingly.
- (3) In any admiralty cause of salvage, towage or collision, the Supreme Court may summon to its assistance, in such manner as it may direct or as may be prescribed, one or more competent assessors and such assessors shall attend and assist accordingly.
- (4) Every assessor shall be summoned, in such manner as the court issued the summons may direct and shall receive such fees for his or her attendance as may be prescribed.

16 Power to promote reconciliation

Where a civil suit is pending in any court:

- (a) a Justice of Appeal, Judge or the Registrar, if it is pending in the Nauru Court of Appeal or Supreme Court respectively; and
 - (b) a Resident Magistrate, if it is pending in the District Court,
- may promote reconciliation among the parties and encourage and facilitate the amicable settlement.

PART 6 — JUDGMENT

17 Judgment and decree

- (1) A court, after hearing a suit, shall pronounce judgment therein.
- (2) It shall not be necessary for a court to hear the suit before judgment is pronounced or entered:
 - (a) where the plaint is drawn claiming a liquidated demand, and there is filed in support thereof an affidavit by the plaintiff, or, where the plaintiff is a corporation or does not personally know the facts, by a person who states that he or she knows the facts, that the plaintiff is entitled to recover from the defendant the amount claimed in the suit and either:
 - (i) the defendant has not entered such appearance therein as may be prescribed and has not attended before an officer of the court in accordance with the rules of court and verbally stated his or her defence or, where the proceedings have been commenced by a summons issued under Section 14, has not attended the District Court, in person or by a legal representative, at the time and place stated in the summons;
 - (ii) the defendant, having entered an appearance, has failed to file his or her defence within the time prescribed; or
 - (iii) in respect of a counterclaim in a suit commenced by a summons to enter an appearance, the plaintiff has not filed a defence within the time prescribed or attended before an officer of the court in accordance with rules of court and verbally stated his or her defence; or
 - (b) where all the parties or their legal representatives give their consent, either orally in court or in writing, to judgment being entered therein.
- (3) A decree may issue upon any judgment of any court but it shall not be necessary for a formal decree to be drawn up and sealed.
- (4) In any suit where no formal decree has been drawn up and sealed, for the purposes of appeals and execution the judgment shall have the force and effect of a decree and in every such case every person in whose favour judgment has been pronounced or entered shall be deemed to be a decree-holder.

18 Reasoned judgment to be given on disputed issues

- (1) Where upon the hearing of any suit any issue is in dispute, the court shall give a reasoned judgment determining that issue.
- (2) Every judgment given under the provisions of this Section shall:

 - (b) be in writing in the language of the court;
 - (c) contain the point, or points, for determination, the decision and the reasons for the decision;
 - (d) be signed by the Judge, Resident Magistrate or magistrates, as the case may be; and
 - (e) be dated with the date on which it is pronounced:

Provided that, where any suit, or proceedings, has, in accordance with the provisions of any law or of rules of court, been heard in chambers, the judgment may be pronounced, or the substance of it explained, in chambers.

- (3) Every judgment shall be pronounced immediately after the termination of the hearing or at some subsequent time of which reasonable notice shall be given to the parties and their legal representatives, if any.
- (4) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Section, it shall be lawful for any judgment of any court or of any Judge or Resident Magistrate to be delivered by the effect thereof being pronounced, provided that the full terms of that judgment have been reduced to writing and that a copy is made available free of charge to the parties or their legal representatives.
- (5) A judgment of the Nauru Court of Appeal, Supreme Court or of a Judge may, if the court or Justice of Appeal, or Judge so directs in writing, be delivered by the Registrar in the absence of the Justice of Appeal or Judge.

19 Interest

- (1) Where, and in so far as, the judgment of any court is for the payment of money, the court may, in the judgment, order interest at such rate as the court thinks reasonable to be paid on the principal sum adjudged from the date of the suit to the date of the judgment, in addition, if the court thinks fit, to any interest adjudged on that principal sum for any period prior to the institution of the suit, with further interest at such rate as the court thinks reasonable on the aggregate sum so adjudged from the date of the judgment to the date of payment or to such earlier date as the court thinks fit.
- (2) Where a judgment is silent with respect to the payment of further interest on the aggregate sum referred to in subsection (1) from the date of the judgment to the date of payment or other earlier date, the court shall be deemed to have ordered interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum.

PART 7 — COSTS

20 Costs

- (1) Subject to such conditions and limitations as may be prescribed and to the provisions of any law for the time being in force, the costs of and incidental to any suit instituted in any court shall be in the discretion of that court and the court, or a Judge or Resident Magistrate, shall have full power to determine by whom and out of what property and what extent such costs are to be paid, and to give all necessary directions for the purposes aforesaid; and the fact that the court has no jurisdiction to try the suit shall be no bar to the exercise of its powers under this Section:
Provided that the costs of any action, cause or other matter or issue shall follow the event unless the court or Judge shall for good reason otherwise order.
- (2) The court, Justice of Appeal, Judge or Resident Magistrate ordering the payment of costs may order in addition the payment of interest on those costs at such rate as it, or he or she, thinks reasonable and that interest shall be added to the costs and shall be recoverable as such.

PART 8 — ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENTS

21 No enforcement within 48 hours of judgment

- (1) Except by leave of:
 - (a) in an action in the Nauru Court of Appeal, Supreme Court, the Full Supreme Court, a Justice of Appeal, a Judge or if no Justice of Appeal or Judge is present in the Republic, the Registrar; or
 - (b) in an action in the District Court, the District Court, no proceedings for the enforcement of a judgment or order shall be commenced in any court until after the expiry of 48 hours from the time of the entering or pronouncing of the judgment or the making of the order.

[The Nauru Court of Appeal Act 2018 and Supreme Court Act 2018 provide powers of the Registrar of Courts in the absence of Justices of Appeal and Judges.]
- (2) Two or more proceedings for the enforcement of a judgment or order may be taken concurrently but the judgment-creditor shall not be entitled to recover a greater sum in total than the amount owing under the judgment or order and the costs and fees of any proceedings for enforcement.

22 Stay of enforcement

Where a judgment or order is one which can be appealed against, a stay of any proceedings for the execution of that judgment or order until after the time allowed for filing a petition of appeal has expired may be ordered:

- (a) where the judgment or order is that of the Supreme Court, by the Full Supreme Court, a Judge or if no Judge is present in the Republic, the Registrar; or
- (b) where the judgment or order is that of the District Court, by the District Court or a Resident Magistrate.

23 Enforcement of judgments more than 6 years old

- (1) No judgment or order of any court more than 6 years old shall be enforced without the leave of that court, or of a Judge or Resident Magistrate unless some payment has been made into court by or on behalf of the party liable therefor within the 12 months immediately before the issue of the proceedings for enforcement.
- (2) The court may, if it thinks fit, grant such leave on an ex parte application.

24 Enforcement of order for payment by instalments

Where the court has made an order for the payment of any sum of money by instalments, proceedings for the enforcement of the order shall not be taken or issued until after default in the payment of some instalment according to the order; but, on any default, proceedings, or successive proceedings, may be taken or process issued for the whole of that sum of money and costs then remaining unpaid unless the court on the application of the party liable otherwise orders.

25 Proceedings on cross-judgments

- (1) Where there are cross-judgments between the parties only for the payment of money, proceedings for enforcement of such payment may be taken out only by the party who has obtained judgment for the larger sum, and then only for so much as remains after deducting the smaller sum. Satisfaction for the remainder shall be entered, as well as satisfaction on the judgment for the smaller sum. If both sums are equal, satisfaction shall be entered upon both.

- (2) Where there are cross-judgments between the parties otherwise than solely for the payment of money, proceedings for the enforcement of any judgment may be taken only:
 - (a) where the judgment is of the Supreme Court, with the leave of the Supreme Court or a Judge, or, if there is no Judge present in the Republic, of the Registrar; and
 - (b) where the judgment is of the District Court, with the leave of the District Court or a Resident Magistrate.

26 Power to stay proceedings for enforcement

Where at any time it appears to the satisfaction of a Justice of Appeal, Judge or a Resident Magistrate exercising jurisdiction in the court in which proceedings have been taken or process issued for the enforcement of any judgment or order that any party to the proceedings is unable from any cause to pay any sum recoverable against him or her, whether by way of satisfaction of the claim or counterclaim in the proceedings or by way of costs or otherwise, or any instalment, the Justice of Appeal, Judge or Resident Magistrate may, in his or her discretion, stay the proceedings for such time and on such terms as he or she may think fit, and so from time to time until it appears that the cause or inability has ceased.

PART 9 — ENFORCEMENT: GENERAL POWERS OF THE COURTS

27 Application to orders

The provisions of this Act relating to the enforcement of judgments shall, so far as they are applicable, be deemed to apply to the enforcement of orders.

28 Powers of courts to enforce judgments

Subject to such conditions and limitations as may be prescribed, any court may, on the application of the decree-holder, order enforcement of any of its judgments:

- (a) by delivery of any property specifically decreed;
- (b) by attachment or seizure and sale, or by sale without seizure or attachment, of any property;
- (c) by attachment of debts;
- (d) by arrest and detention in prison of a person;
- (e) by appointing a receiver; or
- (f) in such other manner as the nature of the relief granted may require.

29 Transferees

Every transferee of a decree shall hold it subject to the equities, if any, which the judgment-debtor might have enforced against the original decree-holder.

30 Personal representative

- (1) Where a judgment-debtor dies before the judgment has been fully satisfied, the decree-holder may apply to the court which passed it to enforce it against the personal representative of the deceased or against a person who has intermeddled with his or her estate.
- (2) Where a court orders under the provisions of this Section that the judgment be enforced against the personal representative, or against a person who has intermeddled with the estate, of a deceased judgment-debtor he or she shall be liable only to the extent of the property of the deceased which has come into his or her hands and has not been duly disposed of; and, for the purpose of ascertaining such liability, the court ordering the enforcement of the judgment may, of its own motion or on the application of the decree-holder, compel the personal representative or the person who has intermeddled to produce such accounts as it thinks fit.

31 Enforcement of judgment against personal representative

- (1) Where a judgment is given against a party as the personal representative of a deceased person and the judgment is for the payment of money out of the property of the deceased, it may be enforced by the seizure and sale of any such property.
- (2) Where no such property remains in the possession of the judgment-debtor and he or she fails to satisfy the court that he or she has duly applied such property of the deceased as is proved to have come into his or her possession, the judgment may be enforced against the judgment-debtor to the extent of the property in respect of which he or she has failed so to satisfy the court in the same manner as if the decree had been against him or her personally.

PART 10 — ARREST AND DETENTION

32 Arrest and detention

- (1) Where any decree-holder applies for an order for his or her judgment to be enforced by the arrest and detention of the judgment-debtor, there shall be issued out of the court and served personally on the judgment-debtor a summons requiring him or her to attend and be examined upon oath as to his or her property and the means which he or she has, or has had, of satisfying and discharging the judgment and as to any intention which he or she may have of leaving the Republic before satisfying and discharging the judgment:
Provided that, where the decree holder by evidence on oath satisfies:
 - (a) in respect of a judgment of the Supreme Court, a Judge or, if no Judge is present in the Republic, the Registrar, and
 - (b) in respect of a judgment of the District Court the Resident Magistrate, that-the judgment-debtor is about to leave the Republic and that the enforcement of the judgment is likely to be frustrated thereby, the Judge, Registrar or Resident Magistrate, as the case may be, may, whether or not a summons has been issued, issue a warrant for the judgment-debtor to be arrested and brought before the court to be examined under this Section.
- (2) Where any judgment debtor:
 - (a) fails to attend as required by a summons issued and served under the provisions of the preceding subsection and does not allege a sufficient excuse for not attending; or
 - (b) having attended or been brought before the court:
 - (i) refuses to be sworn; or
 - (ii) refuses to answer any question properly asked of him or her,the court may, if it thinks fit, regard failure or refusal as evidence that he or she has, or has had since the judgment was obtained against him or her, sufficient means to satisfy and discharge the judgment or intends to leave the Republic before satisfying and discharging it.
- (3) The court shall not make an order for the judgment to be enforced by the arrest and detention of the judgment-debtor unless, after giving him or her an opportunity to be heard, it is satisfied by evidence that:
 - (a) he or she has then, or has had since the judgment was obtained against him or her, sufficient means to satisfy and discharge the judgment, or any instalment of the judgment-debt where an order for payment by instalments has been made, and refuses or neglects, or has refused or neglected, to satisfy and discharge it;
 - (b) he or she is about to leave the Republic without satisfying and discharging the judgment and the enforcement of the judgment is likely to be frustrated if he or she does so;
 - (c) he or she obtained credit or contracted under false pretences, by means of fraud or by breach of trust the liability in respect of which the judgment has been given against him or her; or
 - (d) he or she has, whether before or after the judgment was obtained against him or her, made, or caused to be made, any gift, delivery or transfer of any property, or has charged, removed or concealed any property, with intent to defraud his or her creditors or any of them.

- (4) Notwithstanding that the court is satisfied of any of the matters referred to in subsection (3), it shall not order the enforcement of the judgment by the arrest and detention of the judgment-debtor unless it considers that the judgment cannot reasonably be enforced in any other way.
- (5) A judgment-debtor may be arrested at any hour and on any day in execution of an order made under this Section, and his or her detention shall be in the correctional centre provided that:
 - (a) for the purpose of making an arrest under this Section no dwelling-house shall be entered after sunset and before sunrise;
 - (b) no outer door of a dwelling-house shall be broken open unless such dwelling-house is in the occupancy of the judgment-debtor and he or she refuses or in any way prevents access; but when the officer authorised to make the arrest has duly gained access to any dwelling-house he or she may break open the door of any room in which he or she has reason to believe the judgment-debtor is to be found; and
 - (c) where the judgment in the enforcement of which a judgment-debtor is arrested is for the payment of money and the judgment-debtor pays the amount of the decree and the costs of the arrest to the officer arresting him or her, the officer shall at once release him or her.
- (6) A judgment-debtor shall not be discharged from his or her obligation to satisfy the judgment by reason only of his or her having been arrested and detained in execution of an order made under this Section.

33 Subsistence allowances

- (1) The decree-holder shall pay to the Republic for the subsistence of a judgment-debtor such daily sum as the Minister may fix by notice in the Gazette.
- (2) Any sum paid by a decree-holder under this Section shall be added to the judgment debt and be deemed to be part thereof.

34 Detention and release

Provided that the District Court shall not award under this Section an amount exceeding the limits of its pecuniary jurisdiction.

(2) An order determining any application for compensation under this Section shall bar any suit for compensation in respect of the arrest, attachment, seizure or injunction in respect of which it is made.

59 By whom fees payable

All fees payable under the provisions of this Act shall in the first instance be paid by the party applying for the writ, summons or other process or filing the pleading or other document in respect whereof the fees are payable:

Provided that no fees shall be payable in any cause or matter instituted by a public officer when acting in his or her official capacity or in any case where:

- (a) in the Supreme Court, a Judge or the Registrar, or
- (b) in the District Court, a Resident Magistrate, endorses on the record of the cause or matter that the fees of a party should be remitted on the ground of his or her poverty or for other sufficient reason; and in every such cause or matter such fees shall, in the discretion of the court, be recoverable from the other party if the decision is given against him or her.

60 Proof of service by officer of court or police officer

- (1) Where any summons or any other document issued under this Act is served by any office of any court or by any police officer, the service may be proved either by an endorsement of a copy of the document showing the fact and the time and mode of service or in any other manner prescribed by the rules. Any such endorsement shall be signed by the person who served the summons or document or, if the service was affected by registered letter in accordance with the rules, by an officer of the court who knows of the service.
- (2) An officer or police officer who wilfully endorses any false statement on a copy of any summons or document is guilty of an offence and is liable to imprisonment for 2 years and to a fine of $500.

61 Actions on lost instruments

- (1) In any suit founded on a promissory note, bill of exchange or other negotiable instrument declared on the affidavit of the plaintiff to be lost.
- (2) Where an indemnity is given by the plaintiff to the satisfaction of the court against the claims of any other person upon the instrument, the court may give judgment for him or her as if the same were produced.

62 Arrest otherwise than in execution of decree

The provisions of Section 32(5), and of Section 33 and Section 35 shall apply so far as may be to all persons arrested under this Act, the District Court Act 2018, Supreme Court Act 2018 or the Nauru Court of Appeal Act 2018.

63 Exemption from arrest under civil process

- (1) No Judge, Resident Magistrate or other judicial officer shall be liable to arrest under civil process while going to, presiding in or returning from his or her court or tribunal.
- (2) Where any matter is pending before any court or tribunal jurisdiction therein, or believing in good faith that it has such jurisdiction, the parties, their legal representatives and their witnesses acting in obedience to a summons shall be exempt from arrest under civil process, other than process issued by that court or tribunal for contempt of court, while going to or attending that court or tribunal for the purpose of that matter and while returning from that court or tribunal.
- (3) Nothing in this Section shall enable a judgment-debtor to claim exemption from arrest under an order for immediate execution or where such judgment debtor attends to show cause why he or she should not be committed to the correctional centre in execution of a decree.

64 Miscellaneous proceedings

The procedure provided in this Act in regard to suits shall be followed, so far as it may be applicable and except where other provision is made in any other written law, in all proceedings in the Supreme Court or the District Court other than criminal proceedings.

65 Orders and notices to be in writing

All orders or notices served on or given to a person under the provisions of this Act shall be in writing.

66 Application for restitution

- (1) Where, and in so far as, a judgment is varied or reversed, the court of first instance shall, on the application of the party entitled to any benefit by way of restitution or otherwise, cause such restitution to be made as well, so far as may be, place the parties in the position they would have occupied but for such decree or such part as has been varied or reversed; and for this purpose the court may make any orders, including for the refund of costs and for the payment of interest, damages, compensation and mesne profits, which are properly consequential on such variation or reversal.

- (2) No suit shall be instituted for the purpose of obtaining any restitution or other relief which could be obtained by application under this Section.

Where a person has become liable as surety:

- (a) for the performance of any judgment in a civil suit or any part thereof;
- (b) for the restitution of any property taken in execution of a judgment in a civil suit; or
- (c) for the payment of any money, or for the fulfillment of any condition imposed on a person, under an order of the court in any civil suit or in any proceeding consequent thereon, the judgment or order may be executed against him or her to the extent to which he or she has rendered himself or herself personally liable in the manner herein provided for the execution of judgments, provided that such notice in writing as the court in each case thinks sufficient has been given to the surety.

68 Consent or agreement by person under disability

In all suits to which a person under disability is a party, any consent or agreement as to any proceeding shall, if given or made with the express leave of the court by the next friend or guardian for the suit, have the same force and effect as if that person were under no disability and had himself or herself given that consent or made such agreement.

69 Execution of decree before costs are ascertained

Where any court considers it necessary that a judgment given in the exercise of its original civil jurisdiction should be executed before the amount of the costs incurred in the suit can be ascertained by taxation, the court may order that the judgment shall be executed forthwith except as to so much as relates to the costs, and that, as to so much as related to costs, the judgment may be executed as soon as the amount of the costs shall be ascertained by taxation.

70 Extension of time

Where any period is fixed or granted by any court or a Judge or Resident Magistrate or by rules of court of the doing of any act prescribed or allowed by this Act, that court or a Judge or Resident Magistrate, may, in its, or his or her, discretion from time to time, extend that period.

71 Power to make up deficiency of court fees

Where the whole or any part of any fee prescribed for any document by the law for the time being in force relating to court fees has not been paid, the court may, in its discretion, at any stage allow the person by whom such fee is payable to pay the whole or part, as the case may be, of that court fee; and upon that payment the document in respect of which that fee is payable shall have the same force and effect as if that fee had been paid in the first instance.

72 Saving of inherent powers of the courts

Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the inherent power of any court to make such orders as may be necessary for the ends of justice or to prevent abuse of the process of the court.

73 Execution of instruments by order of court

Where a person neglects or refuses to comply with a decree or order directing him or her to execute any contract or other document or to endorse any negotiable instrument, the court may, on such terms and conditions, if any, as it may determine, order that the contract or other document shall be executed, or that the negotiable instrument shall be endorsed, by such person as the court may nominate for that purpose and a contract, document or instrument so executed or endorsed, shall operate and be for all purposes available as if it had been executed or endorsed by the person originally directed to execute or endorse it.

74 Amendment of judgments, decrees and orders

A clerical or arithmetical mistake in any judgment, decree or order, and errors arising therein from any accidental slip or omission, may at any time be corrected by the court either of its own motion or on the application of any of the parties.

75 General power to amend

A court may at any time, and on such terms as to costs or otherwise as it may think fit, amend any defect or error in any proceeding in a civil suit in that court; and all necessary amendments shall be made for the purpose of determining the real question or issue raised by or depending on that proceeding.

PART 21 — RULES

15 Presentation of beneficiaries by trustees, etc (O 12, r 15)

- (1) Any suit including a suit to enforce a security by foreclosure or otherwise, may be brought by or against trustees, executors or administrators in their capacity as such without joining any of the persons having a beneficial interest in the trust or estate, as the case may be; and any judgment or order given or made in that suit shall be binding on those persons unless a court in the same or another suit otherwise orders on the ground that the trustees, executors or administrators, as the case may be, could not or did not in fact represent the interests of those persons in the first-mentioned suit.
- (2) The last preceding paragraph is without prejudice to the power of the court to order a person having such an interest as aforesaid to be made a party to the suit or to make an order under Rule 14.
- (3) Where the first-mentioned suit in paragraph (1) was heard and determined by the Supreme Court, the District Court shall, notwithstanding the provisions of that paragraph, not have power in any suit therein to make an order at variance with the judgment or order of the Supreme Court.

- (1) Where in any suit it appears to the court in which that suit is pending that deceased person was interested in the matter in question in the suit and that there is no personal representative of the deceased person, the court may, on the application of any party to the suit, proceed in the absence of a person representing the estate of the deceased person or may by order appoint a person to represent that estate for the purposes of the suit; and any such order, and any judgment or order subsequently given or made in the suit, shall bind the estate of the deceased person to the same extent as it would have been bound had a personal representative of that person been a party to the proceedings.

- (2) Before making an order under this rule, the court may require notice of the application for the order to be given to such, if any, of the persons having an interest in the estate as it thinks fit.

17 Declaratory judgement (O 12, r 17)

No suit shall be open to objection on the ground that a merely declaratory judgment or order is sought thereby, and the court may make binding declarations of right whether or not any consequential relief is or could be claimed.

A court may give the conduct of any suit therein to such party as it thinks fit.

 - (a) claims against a person not already a party to the suit any contribution or indemnity;
 - (b) claims against such a person any relief or remedy relating to or connected with the original subject-matter of the suit and substantially the same as some relief or remedy claimed by the plaintiff; or
 - (c) requires that any question or issue relating to or connected with the original subject-matter of the suit should be determined not only as between the plaintiff and the defendant but also as between either or both of them and a person not already a party to the suit;then the defendant may issue a notice in Form No. 12 or Form No. 13 of Appendix A, whichever is appropriate, in this Order referred to as a third party notice, containing a statement of the nature of the claim made against him or her and, as the case may be, either of the nature and ground of the claim made by him or her or of the question or issue required to be determined.
- (2) A third party notice may not be issued without the leave of the court unless it is issued by the defendant before he or she serves his or her defence on the plaintiff.
- (3) Where a third party notice is served on the person against whom it is issued, he or she shall as from the time of service be a party to the suit, in this Order referred to as a third party, with the same rights in respect of his or her defence against any claim made against him or her in the notice and otherwise as if he or she had been duly sued in the ordinary way by the defendant by whom the notice is issued.

2 Application for leave to issue third party notice (O 13, r 2)

Application for leave to issue a third party notice in a suit commenced by a writ of summons may be made ex parte but the court may direct a summons for leave to be issued. The application shall be supported by an affidavit stating:

- (a) the nature of the claim made by the plaintiff in the suit;
- (b) the stage which proceedings in the suit have reached;
- (c) the nature of the claim made by the applicant or particulars of the question issued required to be determined, as the case may be, and the facts on which the proposed third party notice is based; and
- (d) the name and address of the person against whom the third party notice is to be issued.

3 Issue and service of, and entry of appearance to, third party notice (O 13, r 3)

- (1) The order granting leave to issue a third party notice may contain directions as to the period within which the notice is to be issued.

- (2) There shall be served with every third party notice a copy of the writ of summons by which the suit was commenced and of the pleadings, if any, served in the suit.
- (3) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this rule, the following provisions of these Rules, namely, paragraphs (2) and (4) of Rule 7 of Order 5, Order 8 (except paragraph (4) of Rule 1), Order 9, Order 10 and Rule 4 of Order 48, shall apply in relation to a third party notice and to the proceedings begun thereby as if:
 - (a) the third party notice were a writ of summons and the proceedings begun thereby a suit; and
 - (b) the defendant issuing the third party notice were a plaintiff and the person against whom it is issued a defendant in that suit.

4 Third party directions (O 13, r 4)

- (1) If the third party enters an appearance, the defendant who issued the third party notice shall, by summons to be served on all the other parties to the suit, apply to the court for directions.
- (2) If no summons is served on the third party under the last preceding paragraph, the third party may, not earlier than 7 days after entering an appearance, by summons to be served on all the other parties to the suit, apply to the court for directions or for an order to set aside the third party notice.
- (3) On an application for directions under this rule the court may:
 - (a) if the liability of the third party to the defendant who issued the third party notice is established on the hearing, order such judgment as the nature of the case may require to be entered against the third party in favour of the defendant;
 - (b) order any claim, question or issue stated in the third party notice to be tried in such manner as the court may direct; or
 - (c) dismiss the application and terminate the proceedings on the third party notice; and may do so either before or after any judgment in the suit has been signed by the plaintiff against the defendant.
- (4) On an application for directions under this rule the court may give the third party leave to defend the suit, either alone or jointly with any defendant, upon such terms as may be just, or to appear at the trial and to take such part therein as may be just, and generally may make such orders and give such directions as appear to the court proper for having the rights and liabilities of the parties most conveniently determined and enforced and as to the extent to which the third party is to be bound by any judgment or decision in the suit.
- (5) Any order made or direction given under this rule may be varied or rescinded by the court at any time.

5 Default of third party, etc (O 13, r 5)

- (1) If a third party does not enter an appearance or, having been ordered to serve a defence, fails to do so:
 - (a) he or she shall be deemed to admit any claim stated in the third party notice and shall be bound by any judgment, including, judgment by

- consent, or decision in the suit in so far as it is relevant to any claim, question or issue stated in that notice; and
- (b) the defendant by whom the third party notice was issued may, if judgment in default is given against him or her in the suit, at any time after satisfaction of that judgment and, with the leave of the court, before satisfaction thereof, enter judgment against the third party in respect of any contribution or indemnity claimed in the notice, and, with the leave of the court, in respect of any other relief or remedy claimed therein.
- (2) If a third, party or the defendant by whom a third party notice was issued makes default in serving any, pleading which he or she is ordered to serve, the court may, on the application by summons of that defendant or the third party, as the case may be, order such judgment to be entered for the applicant as he or she is entitled to on the pleadings or may make such other order as may appear to the court necessary to do justice between the parties.
- (3) The court may at any time set aside or vary a judgement entered under sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (1) or under the last preceding paragraph on such terms, if any, as it thinks just.

6 Setting aside third party proceedings (O 13, r 6)

Proceedings on a third party notice may, at any stage of the suit, be set aside by the Court.

7 Joinder of third party in suit commenced under Section 14 of the Act (O 13, r 7)

- (1) Where a suit has been commenced under Section 14 of the Act and the defendant claims against a person not already a party to the suit any contribution or indemnity, he or she may at the time set for hearing the suit apply to the District Court for leave to joint such person as a third party to the suit.
- (2) No summons, notice or affidavit in support of the application need be filed, but the court may require the defendant to state on oath the nature of his or her claim before it grants leave to join the person as a third party.
- (3) Where under this rule leave is given to a defendant to joint a person as a third party, the court shall set a new date and time for hearing the suit and the defendant shall cause a notice in Form No. 14 of Appendix A to be served on such person requiring him or her to attend before the court on the date and at the time specified therein.
- (4) At the hearing of the suit the District Court may hear and determine the plaintiff's claim against the defendant and the defendant's claim against the third party either separately or together as it thinks most expedient in the interests of justice.
- (5) Leave shall not be granted under this rule where the person whom the defendant seeks to joint as a third party is not a natural person normally resident in Nauru but, where the court is satisfied that, if the person sought to be joined had been a natural person normally resident in Nauru, it would have been proper to grant leave, it shall stay the proceedings and direct that the suit be recommenced by a writ of summons.

8 Judgement between defendant and third party (O 13, r 8)

- (1) Where in any suit a defendant has issued a third party notice under Rule 7 and such notice has been served, the court may at or after the trial of the suit or, if the suit is decided otherwise than by trial, on an application by summons or motion, order such judgement as the nature of the case may require to be entered for the defendant against the third party or for the third party against the defendant.
- (2) Where in a suit judgement is given against a defendant and judgement is given for the defendant against a third party, execution shall not issue against the third party without the leave of the court until the judgment against the defendant has been satisfied.

9 Claims and issues between defendant and another party (O 13, r 9)

- (1) Where in any suit a defendant who has entered an appearance:
 - (a) claims against a person who is already a party to the suit any contribution or indemnity;
 - (b) claims against such a person any relief or remedy relating to or connected with the original subject-matter of the suit and substantially the same as some relief or remedy claimed by the plaintiff; or
 - (c) requires that any question or issue relating to or connected with the original subject-matter of the suit should be determined not only as between the plaintiff and himself or herself but also as between either or both of them and some other person who is already a party to the suit;

then, subject to the next following paragraph, the defendant may, without leave, issue and serve on that person a notice containing a statement of the nature and grounds of his or her claim or, as the case may be, of the question or issue required to be determined.

- (2) Where a defendant makes such a claim as is mentioned in the last preceding paragraph and that claim could be made by him or her by counterclaim in the suit, that paragraph shall not apply in relation to the claim.
- (3) No appearance to such a notice shall be necessary if the person on whom it is served has entered an appearance in the suit or is a plaintiff therein, and the same procedure shall be adopted for the determination between the defendant by whom, and the person on whom, such a notice is served of the claim, question or issue stated in the notice as would be appropriate under this Order if the person served with the notice were a third party and, where he or she has entered an appearance in the suit or is a plaintiff, had entered an appearance to the notice.
- (4) Paragraph (2) of Rule 4 shall have effect in relation to proceedings on a notice issued under this rule as if for the words “7 days after entering an appearance” there were substituted the words “14 day after service of the notice on him or her.”
- (5) Where in a suit commenced under Section 14 of the Act a defendant claims any contribution or indemnity against a person who is already a party, not being a claim which could be made by counterclaim in the suit, he or she may state that claim at the commencement of the hearing of the suit, or,

with the leave of the court, at any later stage therein, and, if he or she does so, such claim shall be determined by the court at the same time as it determines the issues to be determined in the suit.

10 Claims by third and subsequent parties (O 13, r 10)

- (1) Where a defendant has served a third party notice or a notice under Rule 7 and the third party makes such a claim or requirement as is mentioned in Rule 1, Rule 7 or Rules 9, this Order shall, with the modification mentioned in the next following paragraph and any other necessary modifications, apply as if the third party were a defendant; and similarly where any further person to whom by virtue of this rule this Order applies as if he or she were a third party makes such a claim requirement.
- (2) The modification referred to in the last preceding paragraph is that the next following paragraph shall have effect in relation to the issue of a notice under Rule 1 by a third party in substitution for paragraph (2) of Rule 1.
- (3) A third party may not issue a notice under Rule 1 without the leave of the court unless he or she issues the notice before the expiration of 14 days after the time limited appearing to the notice issued against him or her.

11 Offer of contribution (O 13, r 11)

If, before the trial of a suit, a party to the suit who, either as a third party or as one of two or more tortfeasors liable in respect of the same damage, stands to be held liable in the suit to another party to contribute towards any debt or damages which may be recovered against that other party in the suit, makes, without prejudice to his or her defence, a written offer to that other party to contribute to a specified extent to the debt or damages, then, notwithstanding that he or she reserves the right to bring the offer to the attention of the court at the trial, the offer shall not be brought to the attention of the court until questions of liability and amount of debt or damages have been decided.

12 Counterclaim by defendant (O 13, r 12)

Where in any suit a counterclaim is made by a defendant, the preceding provisions of this Order shall apply in relation to the counterclaim as if the subject-matter of the counterclaim were the original subject-matter of the suit, and as if the person making the counterclaim were the plaintiff and the person against whom it is made a defendant.

- (4) Where a defendant to a suit applies for relief under this Order in the suit, the court may by order stay all further proceedings in the suit.

 - (c) which raises issues of fact not arising out of the preceding pleading.
- (2) Without prejudice to the last preceding paragraph, a defendant to a suit for the recovery of land shall plead specifically every ground of defence on

- (3) The court may order a party to serve on any other party particulars of any claim, defence or other matter stated in his or her pleading, or in any affidavit of his or her ordered to stand as a pleading, or a statement of the nature of the case on which he or she relies, and the order may be made on such terms as the court thinks just.
- (4) Where a party alleges as a fact that a person had knowledge or notice of fact, matter or thing then, without prejudice to the generality of the last preceding paragraph, the court may, on such terms as it thinks just, order that party to serve on any other party:
 - (a) where he or she alleges knowledge, particulars of the facts on which he or she relies; and

- (3) Subject to the next following paragraph, every allegation of fact made in a statement of claim or counterclaim which the party on whom it is served does not intend to admit shall be specifically traversed by him or her in his or her defence or defence to counterclaim, as the case may be; and a general denial of such allegations, or a general statement of non-admission of them, is not a sufficient traverse of them.
- (4) Any allegation that a party has suffered damage and any allegation as to the amount of damages is deemed to be traversed unless specifically admitted.

14 Denial by joinder of issue (O 15, r 14)

- (1) If there is no reply to a defence, there is an implied joinder of issue on that defence.

15 Statement of claim (O 15, r 15)

- (1) A statement of claim shall state specifically the relief or remedy which the plaintiff claims; but costs need not be specifically claimed.
- (2) A statement of claim shall not contain any allegation or claim in respect of cause of action unless that cause of action is mentioned in the writ of summons or arises from facts which are the same as, or include or form part of, facts giving rise to a cause of action so mentioned; but, subject to that, a plaintiff may in his or her statement of claim alter, modify or extend any claim made by him or her in the indorsement of the writ without amending the indorsement.

- (2) Leave to amend may be granted at any stage of the suit before judgment and maybe given subject to such conditions as the court thinks just as to costs or otherwise.
- (3) Leave to amend may be given, if the court thinks it just to give it, notwithstanding that the application for leave was made after any relevant period of limitation expired.
- (4) An amendment to correct the name of a party may be allowed notwithstanding that it is alleged that the effect of the amendment will be to substitute a new party if the court is satisfied that the mistake sought to be corrected was a genuine mistake and was not misleading or such as to cause any reasonable doubt as to the identity of the person intending to sue or, as the case may be, intended to be sued.
- (5) An amendment to alter the capacity in which a party sues, whether as plaintiff or as defendant by counterclaim, may be allowed if the capacity in which, if the amendment is made, the party will sue is one in which at the date of issue of the writ or the making of the counterclaim, as the case may be, he or she might have sued.
- (6) An amendment may be allowed notwithstanding that the effect of the amendment will be to add or substitute a new cause of action if the new cause of action arises out of the same facts or substantially the same facts as a cause of action in respect of which relief has already been claimed in the suit by the party applying for leave to make the amendment.

2 Application for leave to amend (O 17, r 2)

4 Mode of amendment of writ, etc (O 17, r 4)

- (1) Where the amendments authorised under any Rule of this Order to be made in a writ, pleading or other document are so numerous or of such nature or length that to make written alterations of the document so as to give effect to them would make it difficult or inconvenient to read, a fresh document, amended as so authorised, shall be prepared and, in the case of a writ of summons, re-issued, but, except as aforesaid and subject to any direction given under Rule 1, the amendments so authorised may be affected by making in writing the necessary alterations of the document and, in the case of a writ of summons, causing it to be re-sealed and filing a copy thereof.

- (3) Where there are two or more defendants to a suit not all of whom serve a defence on the plaintiff, and the period fixed by or under these Rules for service by any of those defendants of his or her defence expires after the latest date on which any other defendant serves his or her defence, paragraph (1) shall have effect as if the reference therein to the service of the defence last served were a reference to the expiration of that period. This paragraph shall apply in relation to a counterclaim as it applies in relation to a suit with the substitution for references to a defence, to the plaintiff and to paragraph (1), of references to a defence to the counterclaim, to the defendant and to the last preceding paragraph respectively.

4 Effect of discontinuance (O 18, r 4)

5 Stay of subsequent suit until costs paid (O 18, r 5)

- (1) Where a party has discontinued a suit or counterclaim or withdrawn any particular claim made by him or her therein and he or she is liable to pay any other party's costs of the suit or counterclaim or the costs occasioned to any other party by the claim withdrawn, then if, before payment of those costs, he or she subsequently brings a suit for the same, or substantially the same, cause of action, the court may order the proceedings in that suit to be stayed until those costs are paid.

 - (a) that the statement is one in relation to which paragraph (1) of Rule 20 applies and that the party desiring to give the statement in evidence has failed to comply with that Rule, or
 - (b) that that party has failed to comply with any requirement of a counter-notice relating to that statement which was served on him or her in accordance with Rule 25.

- (c) none of the reasons mentioned in Rule 24 applies so as to prevent the party who gave the notice from calling that person as a witness, no other party to the cause or matter shall be entitled, except with the leave of the court, to adduce in relation to that person any evidence which could otherwise be adduced by him or her by virtue of Section 9 of the Act unless he or she gave a counter-notice under Rule 25 in respect of that person or applied under Rule 27 for a direction that that person be called as a witness at the trial or hearing of the cause or matter.

then, without prejudice to Order 40 and, in particular, to paragraph (1) of Rule 7 thereof, the court may direct that any costs to that party in respect of the preparation and service of the counter-notice shall not be allowed to him or her and that any costs occasioned by the counter-notice to any other party shall be paid by him or her to that other party.

Costs may be dealt with by a court at any stage of a suit or of proceeding therein or after the conclusion thereof. Any order for the payment of any costs may, if the court thinks fit, require the costs to be paid forthwith, notwithstanding that the proceedings have not been concluded.

6 Special matters to be taken into account in exercising discretion (O 40, r 6)

A court in exercising its discretion as to costs shall, to such extent, if any, as may be appropriate in the circumstances, take into account:

- (a) any such offer of contribution as is mentioned in Rule 11 of Order 13 which is brought to its attention in pursuance of a reserved right to do so;
- (b) any payment of money into court and the amount of such payment.

7 Costs arising from misconduct or neglect (O 40, r 7)

- (1) Where in any cause or matter any thing is done or omission is made improperly or unnecessarily by or on behalf of a party, the court may direct that any costs to that party in respect of it shall not be allowed to him or her and that any costs occasioned by it to other parties shall be paid by him or her to them.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of the last preceding paragraph the court shall for the purpose of that paragraph have regard in particular to the following matters, that is to say:
 - (a) the omission to do any thing of which would have been calculated to save costs;
 - (b) the doing of any thing calculated to occasion, or in a manner or at a time calculated to occasion, unnecessary costs;
 - (c) any unnecessary delay in the proceedings.
- (3) The Supreme Court may, instead of giving a direction under paragraph (1) in relation to any thing done or omission made, direct the Registrar to inquire into it and, if it appears to him or her that such a direction as aforesaid should have been given in relation to it, to act as if the appropriate direction had been given.
- (4) The taxing officer shall, in relation to anything done or omission made in the course of taxation and in relation to any failure to procure taxation, have the same power to disallow or to award costs as the court has under paragraph (1) to direct that costs shall be disallowed to or paid by any party.

- (5) Where a party entitled to costs fails to procure or fails to proceed with taxation, the taxing officer, in order to prevent any other parties being prejudiced by that failure, may allow the party so entitled a nominal or other sum for costs or may certify the failure and the costs of the other parties.

8 Personal liability of legal practitioner for costs (O 40, r 8)

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this rule, where in any proceedings costs are incurred improperly or without reasonable cause or are wasted by undue delay or by any other misconduct or default, the court may make against any legal practitioner whom it considers to be responsible, whether personally or through a servant or agent, an order:
 - (a) disallowing the costs as between the legal practitioner and his or her client; and
 - (b) directing the legal practitioner to repay to his or her client costs which the client has been ordered to pay to other parties to the proceedings; or
 - (c) directing the legal practitioner personally to indemnify such other parties against costs payable by them.
- (2) No order under this rule shall be made against a legal practitioner unless he or she has been given a reasonable opportunity to appear before the court and show cause why the order should not be made, except where any proceeding in court or in chambers cannot conveniently proceed, and fails or is adjourned without useful progress being made,:
 - (a) because of the failure of the legal practitioner to attend in person or by a proper representative; or
 - (b) because of the failure of the legal practitioner to deliver any document for the use of the court which ought to have been delivered or to be prepared with any proper evidence or account or otherwise to proceed.
- (3) Before making an order under this rule the Supreme Court may, if it thinks fit, refer the matter, except in the cases excepted from the last preceding paragraph or in the case of undue delay in any proceedings under an order or judgment as to which the Registrar has reported to the court, to the Registrar for inquiry and report and direct the legal practitioner in the first place to show cause before the Registrar.
- (4) The court may direct that notice of any proceedings or order against a legal practitioner under this rule shall be given to his or her client in such manner as may be specified in the direction.
- (5) Where in any proceedings before a taxing officer the legal practitioner representing any party is guilty of neglect or delay or puts any other party to any unnecessary expense in relation to those proceedings, the taxing officer may direct the legal practitioner to pay costs personally to any of the parties to those proceedings and where any legal practitioner fails to present his or her bill of costs, with the documents required by this Order, for taxation within the time fixed by or under this Order or otherwise delays or impedes the taxation, then, unless the taxing officer otherwise directs, the legal practitioner shall not be allowed the fees to which he or she would otherwise be entitled for drawing his or her bill of costs and for attending the taxation.

- (6) If, on the taxation of costs to be paid out of a fund, one sixth or more of the amount of the bill for those costs is taxed off, the legal practitioner whose bill it is shall not be allowed the fees to which he or she would otherwise be entitled for drawing the bill and for attending the taxation.
- (7) In any proceeding before a referee in which the party by whom the fees are payable is represented by a legal practitioner, if the fees or any part of the fees payable are not paid as prescribed, the court may, on the application of the Secretary for Justice by summons, order the legal practitioner personally to pay that amount in the manner so prescribed and to pay the costs of the Secretary for Justice of the application.

- (2) Where an order of the court specifies a period within which anything is to be done by or before a taxing officer then, unless the court otherwise directs, the taxing officer may from time to time extend the period so specified on such terms, if any, as he or she think just.
- (3) A taxing officer may extend any such period as is referred to in the preceding provisions of this rule although the application for extension is not made until the expiration of that period.

12 Interim certificates (O 40, r 12)

- (1) A taxing officer may from time to time in the course of the taxation of any costs by him or her issue an interim certificate for any part of those costs which has been taxed.
- (2) If, in the course of the taxation of the bill of a legal practitioner to his or her own client, it appears to the taxing officer that in any event the legal practitioner will be liable in connection with that bill to pay money to the client, he or she may from time to time issue an interim certificate specifying an amount which in his or her opinion is payable by the legal practitioner to his or her client.
- (3) On the filing of a certificate issued under the last preceding paragraph the court may order the amount specified therein to be paid forthwith to the client or into court.

- (2) Every preliminary act shall be sealed by the Registrar and shall be filed in a closed envelope, stamped with an official stamp showing the date of filing, and unless the court otherwise orders, no envelope shall be opened until the pleadings closed and a consent signed by each of the parties or his or her legal practitioner to the opening of the preliminary acts filed with the Registrar.
- (3) Where the court orders the preliminary acts to be opened, the court further order the suit to be tried without pleadings but, where the court orders the suit to be so tried, any party who intends to rely on the defence of compulsory pilotage shall give notice of his or her intention to do so to the other parties within 7 days after the opening of the preliminary acts.
- (4) Where the court orders the suit to be tried without pleadings, it may also order each party, within such period as may be specified in the order, to file a statement of the grounds on which he or she charges any other party with negligence in connection with the collision and to serve a copy thereof on that other party.
- (5) Rule 1 of Order 15 shall not apply to a suit in which preliminary acts are required but, unless the court orders the action to be tried without pleadings, the plaintiff shall serve a statement of claim on each defendant within 14 days after the latest date on which the preliminary act of any party to the suit is filed.

19 Failure to lodge preliminary act: proceedings against party in default (O 48, r 19)

- (1) Where in such a suit as is referred to in paragraph (1) of Rule 18 the plaintiff fails to lodge a preliminary act within the prescribed period, any defendant who has lodged such an act may apply to the court by summons for an order to dismiss the suit, and the court may by order dismiss the suit or make such other order on such terms as it thinks just.

- (2) Where in such a suit, being an action in personam, a defendant fails to lodge a preliminary act within the prescribed period, Rules 2 and 3 of Order 16 shall apply as if the defendant's failure to lodge the preliminary act within that period were a failure by him or her to serve a defence on the plaintiff within the period fixed by or under these rules for service thereof, and the plaintiff, if he or she has lodged a preliminary act may, subject to any rule relating to the entry of judgment against the Republic, accordingly enter judgment against that defendant in accordance with the said Rule 2 or the said Rule 3, as the circumstances of the case require.
- (3) Where in such a suit, being an action in rem, a defendant fails to lodge a preliminary act within the prescribed period, the plaintiff, if he or she has lodged such an act may apply to the court by motion for judgment against that defendant, and it shall not be necessary for the plaintiff to file or serve a statement of claim or an affidavit before the hearing of the motion.
- (4) On the hearing of a motion under the last preceding paragraph the court may make such order as it thinks just, and where the defendant does not appear on the hearing and the court is of opinion that judgment should be given for the plaintiff provided he or she proves his or her case, it shall order the plaintiff's preliminary act to be opened and require the plaintiff to satisfy the court that his or her claim is well founded.
The plaintiff's evidence may, unless the court otherwise orders, be given by affidavit without any order or direction in that behalf.
- (5) Where the plaintiff in accordance with a requirement under the last preceding paragraph satisfies the court that his or her claim is well founded, the court may give judgment for the claim with or without a reference to the Registrar and may at the same time order the property against which the suit is brought to be appraised and sold and the proceeds to be paid into court or make such order as it thinks just.
- (6) The court may, on such terms as it thinks just, set aside any judgment entered in pursuance of this rule.
- (7) In this rule references to the prescribed period shall be construed as references to the period within which by virtue of paragraph (1) of Rule 18 or of any order of the court the plaintiff or defendant, as the context of the reference requires, is required to lodge a preliminary act.

20 Special provisions as to pleadings in collision, etc, actions (O 48, r 20)

- (2) If in such a suit there is a counterclaim and no defence to counterclaim by the plaintiff, then, notwithstanding paragraph (3) of Rule 14 of Order 15, but without prejudice to the other provisions of that rule, there is an implied joinder of issue on the counterclaim, and the joinder of issue operates as a denial of every material allegation of fact made in the counterclaim.

- Where the writ is deemed to have been duly served on the defendant by virtue of paragraph (2) of Rule 1 of Order 8, or was served on the Registrar under Rule 8 of this Order, an affidavit proving due service of the writ need not be filed under this paragraph, but the writ indorsed as mentioned in the said paragraph (2) of Rule 1 or indorsed by the Registrar with a statement that he or she accepts service of the writ shall be lodged with the affidavit verifying the facts on which the suit is based.
- (4) Where a defendant to an action in rem fails to serve a defence on the plaintiff, then, after the expiration of the period fixed by or under these rules for service of the defence and upon filing an affidavit stating that no defence was served on him or her by that defendant during that period, an affidavit verifying the facts on which the suit is based and, if a statement of claim was not indorsed on the writ, a copy of the statement of claim, the plaintiff may apply to the court for judgment by default.

- (6) No application may be made under the last preceding paragraph against the plaintiff in any such suit as is referred to in sub-paragraph (a) of Rule 2(1).
- (7) An application to the court under this rule shall be made by motion and if, on the hearing of the motion, the court is satisfied that the applicant's claim is well founded it may give judgment for the claim with or without a reference to the Registrar and may at the same time order the property against which the suit or, as the case may be, counterclaim is brought to be appraised and sold and the proceeds to be paid into court or may make such other order as it thinks just.

- (8) In default actions in rem evidence may, unless the court otherwise orders, be given by affidavit without any order or direction in that behalf.

- (a) need not be advertised; but
 - (b) shall only operate to protect the plaintiff in respect of claims by the persons so named or persons claiming through or under them.
- (2) In any case not falling within the last preceding paragraph, any decree in the suit limiting the plaintiff's liability, whether made by the Registrar or on the trial of the suit:
- (a) shall be advertised by the plaintiff in such manner and within such time as may be provided by the decree; and
 - (b) shall fix a time within which persons with claims against the plaintiff in respect of the casualty to which the suit relates may enter an appearance in the suit, if they have not already done so, and file their claims, and, in cases to which Rule 38 applies, take out a summons if they think fit, to set the order aside.
- (3) The advertisement to be required under sub-paragraph (a) of the last preceding paragraph shall, unless for special reasons the Registrar or judge thinks fit otherwise to provide, be a single advertisement in each of three newspapers in Nauru or elsewhere specified in the decree, identifying the suit, the casualty and the relation of the plaintiff thereto, whether as owner of a ship involved in the casualty or otherwise as then case may be, stating that the decree has been made and specifying the amounts fixed thereby as the limits of the plaintiff's liability and the time allowed thereby for the entering of appearances, the filing of claims and the taking out of summonses to set the decree aside.
- The plaintiff shall within the time fixed under sub-paragraph (b) of the last preceding paragraph file in the registry a copy of each newspaper in which the advertisement required under sub-paragraph (a) of that paragraph appears.

- (1) Where a decree limiting the plaintiff's liability, whether made by the Registrar or on the trial of the suit fixes a time in accordance with paragraph (2) of Rule 37, a person with a claim against the plaintiff in respect of the casualty to which the suit relates, who:
 - (a) was not named by his or her name in the writ as a defendant to the suit; or
 - (b) if so named, neither was served with the writ nor entered an appearance, may, within that time, after an appearance, take out a summons returnable in chambers before the Registrar asking that the decree be set aside.
- (2) The summons shall be supported by an affidavit or affidavits showing that the defendant in question has a bona fide claim against the plaintiff in respect of the casualty in question and that he or she has sufficient prima facie grounds for the contention that the plaintiff is not entitled to the relief given him or her by the decree.
- (3) The summons and every affidavit in support thereof shall, at least 7 clear days before the hearing of the summons, be served on the plaintiff and any defendant who has entered an appearance.
- (4) On the hearing of the summons the Registrar, if he or she is satisfied that the defendant in question has a bona fide claim against the plaintiff and sufficient prima facie grounds for the contention that the plaintiff is not entitled to the relief given him or her by the decree, shall set the decree aside and give such directions as to the further proceedings in the suit as appear to him or her to be appropriate.

Attachment of Earnings (Consolidated Attachment Orders) Rules 1974

TABLE OF AMENDMENTS

The Attachment of Earnings (Consolidated Attachment Orders) Rules 1974 were made and commenced on 13 November 1974.

Amending Legislation	Notified	Date of Commencement
Revised Written Laws Act 2021 No 7	1 June 2021	1 June 2021

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred on me by Section 76 of the Civil Procedure Act 1972 and Section 17 of the Attachment of Earnings and Phosphate Royalties Act 1973, I hereby make the following rules of court:

1 Short Title

These Rules may be cited as the Attachment of Earnings (Consolidated Attachment Orders) Rules 1974.

2 Interpretation

In these Rules:

‘consolidated attachment order’ means an order made to attach earnings to secure any number of payments of the types referred to in subsection (1) of Section of the Attachment of Earnings and Phosphate Royalties Act 1973;

‘creditor’ includes a person entitled to receive payment of money under a maintenance order and a person to whom any fine, costs, compensation or penalty ordered by a Court in any criminal proceedings is payable;

‘debtor’ includes a person liable to pay money under a maintenance order or to pay a fine, costs, compensation or penalty ordered by a Court in any criminal proceedings; and ‘judgment debt’ includes money due under a maintenance order or as a fine, costs, compensation or penalty ordered by a Court in any criminal proceedings.

3 Power to make a consolidated attachment order

- (1) Subject to the provisions of these Rules, any Court may make a consolidated attachment order where:
 - (a) two or more attachment of earnings orders are in force to secure the payments of two or more judgment debts by the same debtor; or
 - (b) on an application for an attachment of earnings order to secure the payment of a judgment debt, or for a consolidated attachment order to secure the payment of two or more judgment debts it appears to the Court that an attachment of earnings order is already in force to secure the payment of a judgment debt by the same debtor.

4 Application for a consolidated attachment order

- (1) An application for a consolidated attachment order may be made:
 - (a) by the debtor in respect of whom the order is sought; or
 - (b) by a person who had obtained or is entitled to apply for an attachment of earnings order to secure the payment of a judgment debt by the debtor.
- (2) An application by the debtor for a consolidated attachment of earnings order may be made:
 - (a) by summons in the proceedings in which any attachment of earnings order is in force to secure the payment of a judgment debt by the debtor; or
 - (b) orally at the hearing of any application for such an order.

Written notice of the application and of the date, time and place for it to be heard shall be given by the Registrar or Deputy Registrar of the Court to any creditor in any other proceedings who has obtained an attachment of earnings order to secure the payment of a judgment debt by the same debtor.

- (3) An application by a creditor for a consolidated attachment order shall be made by summons in the proceedings in which the judgment or order sought to be enforced was obtained. Written notice of the application and of the date, time and place for it to be heard shall be given by the Registrar or Deputy Registrar of the Court to any creditor in any other proceedings who has obtained an attachment of earnings order to secure the payment of a judgment debt by the same debtor.
- (4) A person to whom two or more attachment of earnings orders are directed to secure the payment of judgment debts by the same debtor may request the Court or, if they were made by different Courts, either of the Courts, in writing to make a consolidated attachment order to secure the payment of those debts, and on receipt of such a request the Registrar or Deputy Registrar of the Court shall fix a date, time and place at which the request will be considered and shall give written notice thereof to the debtor and the creditors who obtained the attachment of earnings orders.
- (5) Where an application is made for an attachment of earnings order to secure the payment of a judgment debt by a debtor in respect of whom an attachment of earnings order is already, in force to secure the payment of another judgment debt and no application is made for a consolidated attachment order the Court to which the application is made may make such an order of its own motion after giving an opportunity of being heard to the debtor and the creditor in the proceedings in which the application is made and any creditor in any other proceedings who has obtained an attachment of earnings order to secure the payment of a judgment debt by the same debtor.
- (6) Where a consolidated attachment order is in force to secure the payment of two or more judgment debts any creditor to whom another judgment debt is owed by the same debtor may apply to the Court by which the order was made by summons addressed to the debtor and to every creditor to whom moneys are payable under the consolidated attachment order, for the order to be extended so as to secure the payment of that debt as well as the first-mentioned debts and, if the application is granted, the Court may either vary the order accordingly or may discharge it and make a new consolidated attachment order to secure payment of all the aforesaid judgment debts.

An application under this paragraph shall be treated for the purposes of the preceding paragraphs of this rule as an application for a consolidated attachment order.

- (7) Instead of complying with Section 13 of the Act, the Registrar or Deputy Registrar who receives payments made to him or her in compliance with a consolidated attachment order shall, after deducting such court fees, if any, in respect of proceedings for or arising out of the order as are deductible from those payments, deal with the sums paid as he or she would if they had been paid by the debtor to satisfy the relevant adjudications in proportion to the amounts payable thereunder or in such other proportion as the Court which made the consolidated attachment order may direct, and for that purpose dividends may from time to time be declared and distributed among the creditors entitled thereto.

5 Transfer of an attachment order

- (1) Where the Court by which the question of making a consolidated attachment order falls to be considered is not the Court by which any attachment of earnings order has been made to secure the payment of a judgment debt by the debtor, the Registrar or Deputy Registrar of the last-mentioned Court shall, at the request of the Registrar or Deputy Registrar of the first-mentioned Court, transfer to that Court the matter in which the attachment of earnings order was made.
- (2) The Court to which proceedings arising out of an attachment of earnings order are transferred under this Rule shall have the same jurisdiction in relation to the order as if it had been made by that Court.
