(Certified : 10. 11. 1976 )

Enacted by the Parliament of Nauru as follows :

PART I - PRELIMINARY

SHORT TITLE

1. This Act may be cited as the Partnership Act 1976.

INTERPRETATION

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires -
"business" includes every trade, occupation and profession;
"firm" is the collective expression meaning the persons who have entered into partnership with one another;
"firm-name" means the name under which the business of a firm is carried on;
"partnership" means the relation which subsists between persons carrying on a business in common with a view to profit, but does not include the relation between members of a corporation or a foreign corporation registered under the Corporation Act 1972 or incorporated by or in pursuance of any other Act;
"partnership property", in relation to any partnership, means property, and rights and interests in property, originally brought into the partnership business or acquired, whether by purchase or otherwise, on account of the firm or for the purposes and in the course of the partnership business;
"the Court" means the District Court.

RULES FOR DETERMINING EXISTENCE OF PARTNERSHIP

3. (1) In determining whether a partnership does or does not exist, regard shall be had to the rules set out in subsections (2), (3) and (4).

(2) Joint tenancy, tenancy in common, joint property, common property or part ownership does not of itself create a partnership as to anything so held or owned, whether the tenants or owners do or do not share any profits made by the use thereof.

(3) The sharing of gross returns does not of itself create a partnership, whether the persons sharing such returns have or have not a joint or common right or interest in any property from which or from the use of which the returns are derived.

(4) The receipt by a person of a share of the profits of a business is prima facie evidence that he is a partner in the business, but receipt of such a share, or of a payment contingent on or varying with the profits of a business, does not of itself make him a partner in the business; and in particular -

(a) the receipt by a person of a debt or other liquidated amount by instalments or otherwise out of the accruing profits of a business does not of itself make him a partner in the business or liable as such;

(b) a contract for the remuneration of a servant or agent of a person engaged in a business by a share of the profits of the business does not of itself make the servant or agent a partner in the business or liable as such;

(c) a person being the widow or child of a deceased partner and receiving by way of annuity a portion of the profits made in the business in which the deceased person was a partner is not by reason only of that receipt a partner in the business or liable as such;

(d) the advance of money by way of loan to a person engaged or about to engage in any business on a contract with that person that the lender shall receive a rate of interest varying with the profits, or shall receive a share of the profits arising from carrying on the business, does not of itself make the lender a partner with the person or persons carrying on the business or liable as such if the contract is in writing and signed by or on behalf of all the parties thereto;

(e) a person receiving by way of annuity or otherwise a portion of the profits of a business in consideration of the sale by him of the goodwill of the business is not by reason only of that receipt a partner in the business or liable as such.

IN CASE OF INSOLVENCY RIGHTS OF PERSON LENDING OR SELLING
IN CONSIDERATION OF SHARE OF PROFITS POSTPONED

4. In the event of any person to whom money has been advanced by way of loan upon such a contract as is mentioned in paragraph (d) of subsection (4) of section 3, or of any buyer of a goodwill in consideration of a share of the profits of the business, being adjudged a bankrupt, entering into an arrangement to pay his creditors less than one hundred cents in the dollar or dying in insolvent circumstances, the person by whom the money was advanced shall not be entitled to recover anything in respect of his loan, and the seller of the goodwill shall not be entitled to recover anything in respect of the share of profits contracted for, until the claims of the other creditors of the borrower or buyer for valuable consideration in money or money's worth have been satisfied.

PART II - RELATIONS OF PARTNERS TO PERSONS DEALING WITH THEM

POWER OF PARTNER TO BIND HIS FIRM

5. Every partner is an agent of the firm of which he is a member and of his other partners for the purpose of the business of the partnership; and the acts of every partner who does any act for carrying on in the usual way business of the kind carried on by the firm of which he is a member bind the firm and his partners, unless the partner so acting has in fact no authority to act for the firm in the particular matter and the person with whom he is dealing either knows that he has no authority or does not know or believe him to be a partner.

PARTNERS BOUND BY ACTS ON BEHALF OF FIRM

6. An act or instrument relating to the business of a firm done or executed in the firm-name or in any other manner showing an intention to bind the firm by any person thereto authorised, whether a partner or not, is binding on the firm and all the partners:
Provided that this section shall not affect any general rule of law relating to the execution of deeds or negotiable instruments.

PARTNER USING CREDIT OF FIRM FOR PRIVATE PURPOSES

7. Where one partner pledges the credit of the firm for a purpose apparently not connected with the firm's ordinary course of business, the firm is not bound unless he is in fact specially authorised by the other partners; but this section does not affect any personal liability incurred by an individual partner.

EFFECT OF NOTICE THAT FIRM WILL NOT BE BOUND BY ACTS OF PARTNER

8. If it has been agreed between the partners that any restriction shall be placed on the power of any one or more of them to bind the firm, no act done in contravention of the agreement is binding on the firm with respect to persons having notice of the agreement.

LIABILITY OF PARTNERS

9. Every partner in a firm is liable jointly with the other partners for all debts and obligations of the firm incurred while he is a partner; and after his death his estate is also severally liable in a due course of administration for such debts and obligations, so far as they remain unsatisfied, but subject to the prior payment of his separate debts.

LIABILITY OF FIRM FOR WRONGS

10. Where, by any wrongful act or omission of any partner acting in the ordinary course of the business of the firm or with the authority of his co-partners, loss or injury is caused to any person not being a partner in the firm or any penalty is incurred, the firm is liable therefor to the same extent as the partner so acting or omitting to act.

MISAPPLICATION OF MONEY OR PROPERTY RECEIVED FOR OR IN CUSTODY OF FIRM

11. In the following cases, namely -

- (a) where one partner acting within the scope of his apparent authority receives the money or property of a third person and misapplies it; and
  - (b) where a firm in the course of its business receives money or property of a third person, and the money or property so received is misapplied by one or more of the partners while it is in the custody of the firm,
- the firm is liable to make good the loss.

LIABILITY FOR WRONGS JOINT AND SEVERAL

12. Every partner is liable jointly with his co-partners and also severally for everything for which the firm while he is a partner therein becomes liable under section 10 or section 11.

13. Where a partner, being a trustee, improperly employs trust property in the business or on the account of the partnership, no other partner is liable for the trust property to the persons beneficially interested therein:

Provided that -

(a) this section shall not affect any liability incurred by any partner by reason of his having notice of a breach of trust; and

(b) nothing in this section shall prevent trust money from being followed and recovered from the firm if still in its possession or under its control.

PERSONS LIABLE BY "HOLDING OUT"

14. Every person who by words, spoken or written, or by conduct represents himself or who knowingly suffers himself to be represented as a partner in a particular firm is liable as a partner to anyone who has on the faith of any such representation given credit to the firm, whether the representation has or has not been made or communicated to the person so giving credit by or with the knowledge of the apparent partner making the representation or suffering it to be made: Provided that, where after a partner's death the partnership business is continued in the old firm's name, the continued use of that name or of the deceased partner's name as part thereof shall not of itself make his executors or administrators, estate or effects liable for any partnership debts contracted after his death.

15. An admission or representation made by any partner concerning the partnership affairs and in the ordinary course of its business is evidence against the firm.

NOTICE TO CERTAIN PARTNERS TO BE NOTICE TO FIRM

(3) A retiring partner may be discharged from any existing liabilities by an agreement to that effect between himself and the members of the firm as newly constituted and the creditors, and that agreement may be either expressed or implied by the course of dealing between the creditors and the firm as newly constituted.

REVOCATION OF CONTINUING GUARANTY BY CHANGE IN FIRM

18. A continuing guaranty or cautionary obligation given either to a firm or to a third person in respect of the transactions of a firm is, in the absence of agreement to the contrary, revoked as to future transactions by any change in the constitution of the firm to which, or of the firm in respect of the transactions of which, the guaranty or obligation was given.

(2) Where co-owners of an estate or interest in any land not being itself partnership property are partners as to profits made by the use of that land or estate and purchase other land or estate out of the profits to be used in like manner, the land or estate so purchased belongs to them, in the absence of an agreement to the contrary, not as partners but as co-owners for the same respective estates and interests as are at the date of the purchase held by them in the land or estate first mentioned.

21. Unless the contrary intention appears, property bought with money belonging to a firm is deemed to have been bought on account of the firm.

CONVERSION INTO PERSONAL ESTATE OF LAND HELD AS PARTNERSHIP PROPERTY

PROCEDURE AGAINST PARTNERSHIP PROPERTY FOR A PARTNER'S SEPARATE JUDGMENT DEBT

23. (1) Process for enforcement of a judgment shall not issue against any partnership property except on a judgment against the firm.

(2) Any Court may, on application made in any suit in that Court by summons of any judgment creditor of a partner, make an order charging that partner's interest in the partnership property and profits of his firm with payment of the amount of the judgment debt and interest thereon, and may by the same or a subsequent order appoint a receiver of that partner's share of profits, whether already declared or accruing, and of any other money which may be coming to him in respect of the partnership and direct all accounts and inquiries and give all other orders and directions which might have been directed or given if the charge had been made in favour of the judgment creditor by the partner, or which the circumstances of the case may require.

(3) Where under the last preceding subsection the interest of any partner in the partnership property and profits of his firm is charged, the other partner or partners shall be at liberty at any time to redeem the interest charged or, in the case of a sale being directed, to purchase it.

RULES AS TO INTERESTS AND DUTIES OF PARTNERS SUBJECT TO SPECIAL AGREEMENT express or implied between the partners, by the rules set out in subsections (2) to (10).

(3) A firm must indemnify every partner therein in respect of payments made and personal liabilities incurred by him -

(a) in the ordinary and proper conduct of the business of the firm; or

(b) in or about anything necessarily done for the preservation of the business or property of the firm.

(4) A partner making, for the purpose of the partnership, any actual payment or advance beyond the amount of capital which he has agreed to subscribe is entitled to interest at the rate of five per cent per annum from the date of payment or advance.

(5) A partner is not entitled, before the ascertainment of profits, to interest on the capital of the firm subscribed by him.

(6) Every partner may take part in the management of the partnership business.

(7) No partner shall be entitled to remuneration for acting in the partnership business.

(8) No person may be introduced into a firm as a partner without the consent of all the existing partners.

(9) Any difference arising as to ordinary matters connected with the partnership business may be decided by a majority of the partners, but no change may be made in the nature of the partnership business without the consent of all existing partners.

(10) The partnership books of a firm are to be kept at the place of business of the partnership, or the principal place, if there is more than one, and every partner may, when he thinks fit, have access to and inspect and copy any of them.

EXPULSION OF PARTNER

25. No majority of the partners can expel any partner unless a power to do so has been conferred by express agreement between the partners.

RETIREMENT FROM PARTNERSHIP AT WILL

26. (1) Where no fixed term has been agreed upon for the duration of a partnership, any partner may determine the partnership at any time on giving notice of his intention so to do to all the other partners.

(2) Where the partnership has originally been constituted by deed, a notice in writing, signed by the partner giving it, shall be sufficient for this purpose.

WHERE PARTNERSHIP FOR TERM IS CONTINUED OVER, CONTINUANCE ON OLD TERMS PRESUMED

27. (1) Where a partnership entered into for a fixed term is continued after the term has expired and without any express new agreement, the rights and duties of the partners remain the same as they were at the expiration of the term, so far as is consistent with the incidents of a partnership at will.

(2) A continuance of the business of a partnership by the partners or such of them as habitually acted therein during the fixed term for which the partnership was entered into, without any settlement or liquidation of the partnership affairs, is presumed to be a continuance of the partnership.

DUTY OF PARTNERS TO RENDER ACCOUNTS, ETC.

28. Partners are bound to render true accounts and full information of all things affecting the partnership to any partner or his legal representatives.

ACCOUNTABILITY OF PARTNERS FOR PRIVATE PROFITS

29. (1) Every partner must account to the firm for any benefit derived by him without the consent of the other partners from any transaction concerning the partnership, or from any use by him of the partnership property or name or any business connection of the firm.

(2) This section applies also to transactions undertaken after a partnership has been dissolved by the death of a partner and before the affairs thereof have been completely wound up, either by any surviving partner or by the representatives of the deceased partner.

DUTY OF PARTNER NOT TO COMPETE WITH FIRM

30. Where a partner, without the consent of the other partners, carries on any business of the same nature as and competing with that of the firm, he must account for and pay over to the firm all profits made by him in that business.

RIGHTS OF ASSIGNEE OF SHARE IN PARTNERSHIP

31. (1) An assignment by any partner of his share in the partnership, either absolute or by way of mortgage or redeemable charge, does not, as against the other partners, entitle the assignee, during the continuance of the partnership, to interfere in the management or administration of the partnership business or affairs, or to require any accounts of the partnership transactions, or to inspect the partnership books, but entitles the assignee only to receive the share of profits to which the assigning partner would otherwise be entitled, and the assignee must accept the account of profits agreed to by the partners.

(2) In case of a dissolution of the partnership, whether as respects all the partners or as respects the assigning partner, the assignee is entitled to receive the share of the partnership assets to which the assigning partner is entitled as between himself and the other partners, and, for the purpose of ascertaining that share, to an account as from the date of the dissolution.

PART IV - DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP AND ITS CONSEQUENCES

32. Subject to any agreement between the partners, a partnership is dissolved -

- (a) if entered into for a fixed term, by the expiration of that term;
- (b) if entered into for a single adventure or undertaking, by the termination of that adventure or undertaking; or
- (c) if entered into for an undefined time, by any partner giving notice to the other partner or partners of his intention to dissolve the partnership.

In the last-mentioned case the partnership is dissolved as from the date mentioned in the notice as the date of dissolution or, if no date is so mentioned, as from the date of the communication of the notice.

DISSOLUTION BY BANKRUPTCY, DEATH OR CHARGE

33. (1) Subject to any agreement between the partners, every partnership is dissolved as regards all the partners by the death or bankruptcy of any partner.

(2) A partnership may, at the option of the other partners, be dissolved if any partner suffers his share of the partnership property to be charged under this Act for his separate debt.

DISSOLUTION BY ILLEGALITY OF PARTNERSHIP

34. A partnership is in every case dissolved by the happening of any event which makes it unlawful for the business of the firm to be carried on or for the members of the firm to carry it on in partnership.

DISSOLUTION BY THE COURT

35. (1) On application by a partner the Court may decree a dissolution of the partnership in any of the following cases -

- (a) where a partner is shown to the satisfaction of the Court to be permanently of unsound mind;
- (b) where a partner, other than the partner suing, has become in any other way permanently incapable of performing his part of the partnership contract;
- (c) where a partner, other than the partner suing, has been guilty of such conduct as, in the opinion of the Court, regard being had to the nature of the business, is calculated to prejudicially affect the carrying-on of the business;
- (d) where a partner, other than the partner suing, wilfully or persistently commits a breach of the partnership agreement or otherwise so conducts himself in matters relating to the partnership business that it is not reasonably practicable for the other partner or partners to carry on the business in partnership with him;
- (e) where the business of the partnership can only be carried on at a loss; or
- (f) wherever in any case circumstances have arisen which, in the opinion of the Court, render it just and equitable that the partnership be dissolved.

(2) In any such case as is referred to in paragraph (a) of the preceding subsection, application for dissolution of the partnership may be made to the Court by the committee or next friend of the partner who is of unsound mind or by any person having title to intervene, and the Court may decree a dissolution.

RIGHTS OF PERSONS DEALING WITH FIRM AGAINST APPARENT MEMBERS OF FIRM

36. (1) Where a person deals with a firm after a change in its constitution, he is entitled to treat all apparent members of the old firm as still being members of the firm until he has notice of the change.

(2) Where an advertisement is published in the Gazette stating in respect of any firm whose principal place of business is in Nauru that -

- (a) the firm has been dissolved, or
  - (b) the constitution of the firm has been changed,
- all persons who had no dealings with the firm before the date of the dissolution or change so advertised shall be deemed to have received notice thereof.

(3) The estate of a partner who dies, or who becomes bankrupt, or of a partner who, not having been known to the person dealing with the firm to be a partner, retires from the firm, is not liable for partnership debts contracted after the date of the death, bankruptcy or retirement, as the case may be.

RIGHT OF PARTNERS TO NOTIFY DISSOLUTION

37. On the dissolution of a partnership or retirement of a partner, any partner may publicly notify the dissolution or retirement and may require the other partner or partners to concur for that purpose in all necessary or proper acts, if any, which cannot be done without his or their concurrence.

CONTINUING AUTHORITY OF PARTNERS FOR PURPOSES OF WINDING-UP

38. After the dissolution of a partnership the authority of each partner to bind the firm, and the other rights and obligations of the partners, continue notwithstanding the dissolution so far as may be necessary to wind up the affairs of the partnership and to complete transactions begun but unfinished at the time of the dissolution, but not otherwise: Provided that the firm is in no case bound by the acts of a partner who has become bankrupt; but this proviso does not affect the liability of any person who has after the bankruptcy represented himself or knowingly suffered himself to be represented as a partner of the bankrupt.

RIGHTS OF PARTNERS AS TO APPLICATION OF PARTNERSHIP PROPERTY

39. On the dissolution of a partnership every partner is entitled, as against the other partners in the firm and all persons claiming through them in respect of their interests as partners, to have the property of the partnership applied in payment of the debts and liabilities of the firm and to have the surplus assets after such payment applied in payment of what may be due to the partners respectively after deducting what may be due from them as partners to the firm; and for that purpose any partner or his representatives may on the termination of the partnership apply to the Court to wind up the business and affairs of the firm.

APPORTIONMENT OF PREMIUM WHERE PARTNERSHIP PREMATURELY DISSOLVED

40. Where one partner has paid a premium to another on entering into a partnership for a fixed term and the partnership is dissolved before the expiration of that term otherwise than by the death of a partner, the Court may, upon application, order the repayment of the premium or of such part thereof as it thinks just, having regard to the terms of the partnership contract and to the length of time during which the partnership has continued, unless -

- (a) the dissolution is, in the judgment of the Court, wholly or chiefly due to the misconduct of the partner who paid the premium; or
- (b) the partnership has been dissolved by an agreement containing no provision for a return of any part of the premium.

RIGHTS WHERE PARTNERSHIP DISSOLVED FOR FRAUD OR MIS-REPRESENTATION

41. Where a partnership contract is rescinded on the ground of the fraud or misrepresentation of one of the parties thereto, the party entitled to rescind is, without prejudice to any other right, entitled -

- (a) to a lien on, or right of retention of, the surplus of the partnership assets, after satisfying the partnership liabilities, for any sum of money paid by him for the purchase of a share in the partnership and for any capital contributed by him;
- (b) to stand in the place of the creditors of the firm for any payments made by him in respect of the partnership liabilities; and
- (c) to be indemnified by the person guilty of the fraud or making the representation against all the debts and liabilities of the firm.

RIGHT OF OUTGOING PARTNER IN CERTAIN CASES TO SHARE PROFITS MADE AFTER DISSOLUTION

42. Where any member of a firm has died or otherwise ceased to be a partner and the surviving or continuing partners carry on the business of the firm with its capital or assets without any final settlement of accounts as between the firm and the outgoing partner or his estate, then, in the absence of any agreement to the contrary, the outgoing partner or his estate is entitled at the option of himself or his representatives to such share of the profits made since the dissolution as the Court may find to be attributable to the use of his share of the partnership assets, or to interest at the rate of five per cent per annum on the amount of his share of the partnership assets:

Provided that, where by the partnership contract an option is given to surviving or continuing partners to purchase the interest of a deceased or outgoing partner and that option is duly exercised, the estate of the deceased partner or the outgoing partner or his estate, as the case may be, is not entitled to any further or other share of profits; but, if any partner assuming to act in exercise of the option does not in all material respects comply with the terms thereof, he is liable to account under the foregoing provisions of this section.

RETIRING OR DECEASED PARTNER'S SHARE TO BE A DEBT

43. Subject to any agreement between the partners, the amount due from surviving or continuing partners to an outgoing partner or the representatives of a deceased partner in respect of the outgoing or deceased partner's share is a debt accruing at the date of the dissolution or death.

RULE FOR DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS ON FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ACCOUNTS

44. (1) In settling accounts between the partners after the dissolution of a partnership, the rules set out in subsections (2) and (3) shall, subject to any agreement, be observed.

(2) Losses, including losses and deficiencies of capital, shall be paid first out of profits, next out of capital, and lastly, if necessary, by the partners individually in the proportion in which they were entitled to share profits.

(3) The assets of the firm including the sums, if any, contributed by the partners to make up losses or deficiencies of capital, shall be applied in the following manner and order -

- (i) in paying the debts and liabilities of the firm to persons who are not partners therein;
- (ii) in paying to each partner rateably what is due from the firm to him for advances as distinguished from capital;
- (iii) in paying to each partner rateably what is due from the firm to him in respect of capital;
- (iv) the ultimate residue, if any, shall be divided among the partners in the proportion in which profits are divisible.

PART V - REPEAL AND SAVING

SAVING FOR CUSTOM AND THE RULES OF EQUITY AND COMMON LAW

45. (1) Where conflict arises in any case between any provision of this Act and any custom or usage of the Nauruans having the force of law to regulate any question of title to or an interest in any land or of the right and power of any Nauruan to dispose of his property, that custom or usage shall prevail.

(2) The rules of equity and of common law applicable to partnership shall continue in force except so far as they are inconsistent with the express provisions of this Act.

PARTNERSHIP ORDINANCE 1912 OF PAPUA TO CEASE TO APPLY

46. Upon the commencement of this Act the Partnership Ordinance 1912 of the Territory of Papua shall cease to be part of the laws of Nauru; and the Laws Repeal and Adopting Ordinance 1922-1967 is amended by deleting from the Third Schedule thereof -

"Partnership Ordinance 1912":

Provided that, where any proceedings have been commenced in the Supreme Court under the provisions of that Ordinance, the Supreme Court shall continue to have jurisdiction in respect of those proceedings and that Ordinance shall be deemed for the purposes of those proceedings to remain in force.
