An Act to repeal the Public Service Act 1998 and for its replacement with a new law providing for public service employment, management and certain other employment for public purposes and for related purposes.

Enacted by the Parliament of Nauru as follows:

PART 1 — PRELIMINARY

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Public Service Act 2016.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on the date on which it is certified by the Speaker and came into effect on 29 January 2016.

3 Application of Act

(1) Unless a contrary intention appears, this Act applies to all public service employees with the following exceptions:

- (a) if a public service employee belongs to a class of employees who are excluded from the application of all or part of this Act by regulations, this Act does not apply to the employee to the extent of the exclusion; or
- (b) if some or all of the terms and conditions of employment of a public service employee are specified in another written law, this Act does not apply to the extent of any inconsistency with the other written law.

[subs (1) am Act 6 of 2020 s 4, opn 4 June 2020]

(2) The Cabinet may make regulations that may apply this Act or specified provisions of this Act to employees of State owned enterprises, or other employees of the Republic who are not public service employees, subject to modifications, if any, specified in the Regulations and to the extent specified in the Regulations, the Regulations will have effect despite the provisions of any other Act.

(3) This Act applies to all foreign service employees employed or posted in Nauru High Commissions, Consulates overseas or any other place as follows:

- (a) provisions relating to Heads of Departments apply to the Heads of Missions; and
- (b) provisions relating to other public service employees apply to all other staff of the Missions or Consulates.

[The next page is 6201]

PART 4 — STRUCTURE OF PUBLIC SERVICE

DIVISION 1 — GENERAL PRINCIPLES

10 Composition of Public Service

The public service is constituted by the following:

- (a) permanent employees;
- (b) contract employees; and
- (c) temporary employees.

11 Departments

The Minister may, with the approval of the Cabinet, by Gazette notice:

- (a) establish a department and assign a title to it;
- (b) alter the title of a department; or
- (c) abolish a department.

11A Sections within departments

(1) The Minister may, with the approval of the Cabinet, by Gazette notice:

- (a) establish a section within a department and assign a title to it;
 - (b) alter the title of an existing section;
 - (c) transfer an existing section from one department to another department; or
 - (d) abolish an existing section.
- (2) Where a section is transferred to another department under Section 11A(1)(c), any position created within that section in accordance with Section 16, is also transferred from one department to that other department.

[s 11A insrt Act 29 of 2016 s 4, opn 9 June 2016]

12 Role of Chief Secretary

The Chief Secretary is responsible to the Minister for the overall supervision of the public service, including heads of departments.

DIVISION 2 — HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS

13 Secretary

- (1) The Head of a Department is the Secretary of the Department.
- (2) The office of the Secretary is established by this Section.
- (3) Where a department is abolished or its name is changed, the office of the relevant Secretary is taken to be abolished or its name correspondingly changed.
- (4) Appointments to the office of the Secretary of a department are to be made by the Minister of the relevant department, with the approval of the Cabinet.
- (5) Subject to Section 25, the Cabinet shall determine:
 - (a) the terms and conditions of employment; and

(b) the functions and powers,
of a person appointed as the Secretary of a department.

[subs (5) subst Act 6 of 2020 s 7, opn 4 June 2020]

(6) The Cabinet may:

- (a) in consultation with the relevant Minister, transfer to another department or re-assign duties other than as Head of the department; or
- (b) terminate for misconduct or without any cause,
a Secretary of a department appointed under subsection (4).

[subs (6) insrt Act 6 of 2020 s 7, opn 4 June 2020]

(7) Where the Secretary of a department is terminated without cause, he or she shall be paid 1 month's salary in lieu of notice together with any accrued benefit under this Act.

[subs (7) insrt Act 6 of 2020 s 7, opn 4 June 2020]

14 Appointment of Acting Secretary

- (1) The Minister, with the approval of the Cabinet, may appoint a public service employee to act as the Secretary of a department if the office of the Secretary is vacant or if the Secretary is absent from the Republic or is unable to perform his or her duties due to illness.
- (2) The Cabinet may, at any time, terminate an acting appointment.
- (3) The Cabinet will determine the conditions of employment and the functions of a person acting as the Secretary of a department.

15 General responsibility of a Secretary

- (1) The Secretary of a department is responsible to the relevant Minister and to the Chief Secretary for the general conduct and management of the functions and activities of the Department in accordance with the core values of the public service.
- (2) Any action taken in the exercise of a responsibility under this Section, is not to be inconsistent with the functions conferred by this Act on a Minister administering this Act or on the Chief Secretary.

[subs (2) am Act 6 of 2020 s 8, opn 4 June 2020]

DIVISION 3 — PUBLIC SERVICE POSITIONS

16 Creation, abolition, classification and eligibility requirements of position

- (1) The Minister may, by Gazette notice:
 - (a) create a public service position; or
 - (b) abolish a public service position.
- (2) The Minister shall specify, in the Gazette notice that creates a public service position, the classification of the position.
- (3) The Minister may, by subsequent Gazette notice, change the classification of a public service position.
- (4) The classification specified by the Minister shall be the classification for other positions that:
 - (a) are of a similar kind;
 - (b) have responsibilities of a similar level; and

- (c) require work of similar value.
- (5) The Minister may specify, in the Gazette notice that creates a public service position or in a subsequent Gazette notice, eligibility requirements for a person holding or occupying the position.
- (6) The Minister may, by subsequent Gazette notice, change the eligibility requirements of a public service position.
- (7) The Minister may, in a notice under subsection (3), (5) or (6), declare that the change of classification or the imposition or change of eligibility requirements does not take effect until the position next becomes vacant.

17 Public service position may be held, occupied or vacant

A public service position may be:

- (a) held on a permanent basis by a permanent employee;
- (b) occupied for a fixed term by a permanent or temporary employee;
- (c) held on a fixed term by a contract employee; or
- (d) vacant.

18 Reduction in salary following reclassification

- (1) This Section applies if:
 - (a) the Minister changes the classification of a public service position, other than a vacant position;
 - (b) the rate of salary, or the maximum rate of salary, of the position immediately after the change is lower than the rate of salary, or the maximum rate of salary, of the position immediately before the change; and
 - (c) the Minister does not make the declaration mentioned in Section 16(7).
- (2) A public service employee holding or occupying the position immediately before the change of classification may elect to continue to hold or occupy the position under the new classification.
- (3) Where the public service employee does not elect to continue to occupy or hold the position under the new classification, Part 7, Division 4 applies to the public service employee as if the position had been abolished.

19 Increase in salary following reclassification

- (1) This Section applies if:
 - (a) the Minister changes the classification of a public service position, other than a vacant position;
 - (b) the rate of salary, or the maximum rate of salary, of the position immediately after the change is higher than the rate of salary, or the maximum rate of salary, of the position immediately before the change; and
 - (c) the Minister does not make the declaration under Section 16(7).
- (2) The position is taken to be vacant 1 month after the change in classification unless a person is appointed to the position before that time.
- (3) Where a public service employee holding or occupying the position immediately before the change of classification is not re-appointed to the position, Part 7, Division 4 applies to the public service employee as if the position had been abolished.

20 Imposition or change of eligibility requirements

Where a declaration is not made under Section 16(7) in relation to the imposition or change of eligibility requirements for a public service position and the public service employee who holds or occupies the position does not meet the eligibility requirements and has not done so within a reasonable period allowed by the Chief Secretary, Part 7, Division 4 applies to the public service employee as if the position had been abolished.

PART 5 — SELECTION AND APPOINTMENT OF PUBLIC SERVICE EMPLOYEES

DIVISION 1 — PRINCIPLES APPLICABLE TO ALL APPOINTMENTS

21 Merit principle

- (1) The selection of a person for appointment to the public service shall be based on merit alone.
- (2) Where the Chief Secretary considers that more than one candidate for appointment to a particular position is suitable for the appointment, the Chief Secretary shall select the candidate the Chief Secretary reasonably believes has the greatest merit for the appointment.
- (3) The Chief Secretary shall take the following matters into account in deciding the merit of a person for appointment to a position:
 - (a) the extent to which the person has the abilities, aptitude, skills, qualifications, knowledge, experience and personal qualities relevant to performing the duties of the position; and
 - (b) if relevant:
 - (i) the way in which the person performed any previous employment duties; and
 - (ii) the extent to which the person has potential for development.

[subs (3) am Act 6 of 2020 s 9, opn 4 June 2020]

22 Advertising vacant position

The Chief Secretary may make policy about:

- (a) the circumstances in which a vacancy within the public service shall be advertised; and
- (b) the way in which it shall be advertised.

[s 22 am Act 29 of 2016 s 5, opn 9 June 2016]

23 Eligibility for appointment

- (1) A person is not eligible for appointment as a public service employee if the person is:
 - (a) under the age of 18 years;
 - (b) a Member of Parliament; or
 - (c) is not a Nauruan citizen.
- (2) A person who is not eligible under subsection (1)(c), may be appointed as a contract employee.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit the eligibility of Nauruan citizens from being employed in the public service as contract employees.
- (4) Upon being appointed as an employee of the public service, a person is required to swear or affirm before the Chief Secretary, an oath or affirmation on appointment as contained in Schedule 1.

[subs (4) insrt Act 29 of 2016 s 6, opn 9 June 2016; revised under powers authorised by Act 10 of 2019]

- (5) All appointments of non-Nauruan employees shall be conducted in a transparent manner and in accordance with best human resources standards, policies and practices.

[subs (5) insrt Act 29 of 2016 s 6, opn 9 June 2016]

DIVISION 2 — APPOINTMENT OF PUBLIC SERVICE EMPLOYEES

24 Basis of appointment – permanent or fixed term

- (1) Subject to Sections 23 and 25, the Chief Secretary may appoint a person to a public service position:
- (a) on a permanent basis; or
 - (b) for a fixed term.
- (1A) Subject to Section 13, all appointments to the Public Service may only be made by the Chief Secretary.

[subs (1A) insrt Act 29 of 2016 s 7, opn 9 June 2016]

- (2) The Chief Secretary shall not appoint a person to a public service position on a permanent basis if another public service employee holds the position on a permanent basis.
- (3) The Chief Secretary may only appoint a person to a public service position for a fixed term if the person enters into a written contract of employment for the appointment.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply to temporary or casual employees.

25 Basis of appointment – Head of Department

A person appointed as Secretary of a Department under Section 13 may only be appointed for a fixed term.

[s 25 am Act 6 of 2020 s 30, opn 4 June 2020]

26 Publication of notice of appointment

The Chief Secretary shall publish notice of each appointment to a public service position in the Gazette within 14 days of the appointment being made.

27 Probationary period

- (1) This Section applies:
- (a) if a person is appointed to a public service position; and
 - (b) immediately before the appointment, the person was not a public service employee; or
 - (c) to a temporary employee employed under Section 28.

[subs (1) subst Act 6 of 2020 s 10, opn 4 June 2020]

- (2) The appointment:
- (a) is subject to an initial appointment of 6 months for a person in subsection (1)(b); and
 - (b) of a temporary employee, who:
 - (i) has served a period of 6 months or any other period as a temporary employee in the public service;
 - (ii) has a satisfactory attendance record; and
 - (iii) the relevant Secretary or Head of Department provides a report of satisfactory performance, the period of employment as temporary employee shall be credited to or is deemed to have been served as probationary period of 6 months.

[subs (2) subst Act 6 of 2020 s 10, opn 4 June 2020]

- (3) The purpose of the probationary period is to determine whether the person is suitable for the position.
- (4) The Chief Secretary may, before the end of the initial period of probation, extend the period of probation for a further single period of up to 6 months if the Chief Secretary reasonably believes it is necessary to do so to determine whether the person is suitable for the position.
- (5) Before confirming a person's appointment following a probationary period, the Chief Secretary shall conduct or instruct the relevant Secretary to conduct a performance appraisal.
- (6) Subject to subsection (5), the person's appointment is taken to be confirmed at the end of the probationary period unless the Chief Secretary has earlier terminated the person's employment.
- (7) The Chief Secretary may terminate the person's employment at any time during the probationary period.

DIVISION 2A — VACANCIES, PROMOTION AND TRANSFER

[Div 2A insrt Act 29 of 2016 s 8, opn 9 June 2016]

27A Vacancies

- (1) Where a vacancy exists for a position in the public service and, in the opinion of the Chief Secretary, it is necessary to fill the vacancy, the Chief Secretary may:
 - (a) direct that a notification be published in the Gazette inviting applications for transfer, promotion or appointment; and
 - (b) set out the requirements for the position.
- (2) A vacancy for a position in the public service may be filled by:
 - (a) the Chief Secretary transferring or promoting an officer to the vacant position; or
 - (b) the appointment to the vacant position of a person from outside the public service.
- (3) No person from outside of the public service may be appointed to a vacant position unless the Chief Secretary has confirmed in writing that the vacant position cannot be suitably filled by the transfer or promotion of an employee.
- (4) Until regulations have prescribed the method of transfer or promotion, the method of selection of a person to be transferred or promoted to a vacant position may be as determined by the Chief Secretary.
- (5) The promotion or transfer of an employee or the appointment of a person as an employee of the public service shall be published in the Gazette.

27B Power of Chief Secretary to transfer after 3 years

The Chief Secretary may transfer an employee from one position to another:

- (a) if the employee has served in the same position for 3 years or more; and
- (b) the Chief Secretary considers it in the interest of the public service to transfer the employee to that other position.

27C Declining promotion or transfer

- (1) The Chief Secretary may permit an employee to decline a promotion or transfer without prejudice to his or her right of future promotion or transfer.
- (2) Where a decision has been made to transfer an employee due to misconduct, the Chief Secretary shall make an order directing the transfer of the employee and the employee shall comply with the order.
- (3) Non-compliance with a direction given under subsection (2), may result in further disciplinary action being taken against the employee or termination.

DIVISION 3 — TEMPORARY EMPLOYEES

28 Employment of temporary employees

- (1) The Chief Secretary may, to meet temporary circumstances, employ a person as a temporary employee to perform work of a type ordinarily performed by a public service employee other than a Secretary.
- (2) The employment may be on a temporary basis and full-time or part time but shall not exceed 6 months unless extended by the Chief Secretary.
- (3) A person employed under this Section does not, by reason of employment, become a public service employee.
- (4) Part 5, Division 1 applies to the selection and appointment of a temporary employee as if the position were a public service position.

29 Review of status and leave entitlements of temporary employee

- (1) The relevant Secretary shall, 2 weeks before the end of the employment of the temporary employee, decide and inform the Chief Secretary whether:
 - (a) subject to Section 27, the person be employed as a permanent employee;
 - (b) the person's temporary employment be continued for another period of 5 months only; or
 - (c) the person's employment is to end or lapse on the completion of any period or extended period of temporary employment.
- (2) In making a decision under subsection (1)(a), the relevant Secretary shall:
 - (a) prepare a performance appraisal of the employee;
 - (b) ensure there is a relevant vacancy within the public service; and
 - (c) submit to the Chief Secretary for his or her decision.
- (3) Where the relevant Secretary does not make a decision within the period stated in subsection (1), the Secretary is taken to have decided that the person's employment ends.
- (4) The temporary employee shall not be paid any salary or benefit beyond the period when his or her temporary employment ended.
- (5) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, temporary employees shall be eligible for official travel, special leave, medical leave and official leave on the same terms and conditions as public service employees.
- (6) Subject to subsection (1), a temporary employee is eligible for recreation leave if he or she completes 12 months continuous period of service.
- (7) Where a temporary employee is absent from work without the prior leave or approval of his or her reporting officer or the relevant Secretary, he or she may be summarily terminated by the Chief Secretary on the recommendation of the relevant Secretary.

[s 29 subst Act 6 of 2020 s 11, opn 4 June 2020]

30 Temporary employee – application of Code of Conduct

Section 8 applies to a temporary employee as if the employee were a public service employee.

31 Temporary employees – application of Public Service (Disciplinary) Regulations 2020

The Public Service (Disciplinary) Regulations 2020 do not apply to a temporary employee.

[s 31 am Act 1 of 2019 s 5, opn 22 Mar 2019]

DIVISION 4 — CONTRACT EMPLOYEES

32 Contract positions

- (1) The Minister may with the approval of the Cabinet, determine any established permanent position in the public service to be held by a public service employee on a contract for a fixed period of time.
- (2) The Chief Secretary may upon the request of a relevant Secretary, establish a new contract position in a Department.
- (3) Where a contract position is vacant, the Chief Secretary may fill the position according to the process set out in Section 34.
- (4) The determination of a position under subsection (1) shall be gazetted.

[s 32 subst Act 6 of 2020 s 12, opn 4 June 2020]

33 Contract position held by a public service employee

- (1) Where an existing position in a Department is determined to be a contract position and that position is held by a public service employee, the following provisions apply:
 - (a) the Chief Secretary shall give the employee notice in writing of the determination;
 - (b) the notice shall state that the change in status of the position will take effect 4 weeks after the date of the notice;
 - (c) the employee is deemed to have resigned from their employment 4 weeks after the date of the notice, and shall be paid the entitlements that would be due to the employee because of their resignation;
 - (d) the Chief Secretary may offer the employee a contract of employment as a contract employee in the position not less than 2 weeks after the date of the notice;
 - (e) where the employee signs the contract of employment before the end of the 4 week period from the date of the notice, the employee becomes a contract employee with effect from the date of signature; and
 - (f) where the employee does not sign the contract before the end of the 4 week period from the date of the notice the offer lapses at the end of the 4 week period.
- (2) Where the offer of contract employment lapses under subsection (1)(f), the Chief Secretary shall advertise the position according to Section 34.

34 Employment of contract employees

- (1) Subject to Section 33, where the Chief Secretary wishes to employ persons in a contract position, the Chief Secretary shall advertise the position.
- (2) The Chief Secretary may determine procedures to be used in determining the relevant person to be offered a contract position, including consulting with the relevant Secretary.
- (3) The contract of employment of every contract employee shall be in writing and shall be signed by the contract employee and the Chief Secretary on behalf of the Government.
- (4) The Code of Conduct applies to a contract employee.

35 Misconduct by contract employees

- (1) The relevant Secretary shall provide a report to the Chief Secretary, if they:
 - (a) become aware that a contract employee has been charged with having committed an offence punishable by more than 1 year of imprisonment; or
 - (b) suspect that a contract employee may have committed any misconduct.
- (2) The Chief Secretary shall use discretion when applying the provisions of the Regulations and of Division 5 of Part 7 to a contract employee suspected of committing a breach of discipline.
- (3) A contract employee has no right to lodge an appeal to the Public Service Appeals Board under Section 109.

36 Managing the work performance of a contract employee

- (1) Where the relevant Secretary considers that a contract employee is not performing their duties at the standard expected of a contract employee of that classification, the relevant Secretary shall provide a report on the matter to the Chief Secretary.
- (2) Sections 95 and 96 apply to the work performance of a contract employee.
- (3) A performance assessment conducted in accordance with this Section shall be conducted by the Chief Secretary in collaboration with the relevant Secretary.

[subs (3) insrt Act 29 of 2016 s 10, opn 9 June 2016; am Act 6 of 2020 s 13, opn 4 June 2020]

PART 6 — TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF PUBLIC SERVICE EMPLOYMENT

DIVISION 1 — REMUNERATION

38 Determination of salary – public service positions

- (1) The Minister may determine, by Gazette notice, a salary or range of salaries for each public service position.
- (2) If the Minister determines a range of salaries for a class of public service positions:
 - (a) the Minister may also make regulations about:
 - (i) how the Chief Secretary shall decide the salary of a person appointed to a position belonging to the class; and
 - (ii) the circumstances in which the Chief Secretary may increase the person's salary within the range determined;
 - (b) acting in accordance with the regulations, the Chief Secretary may appoint a person to a position belonging to that class on a salary within the range determined; and
 - (c) the person's salary cannot be changed to an amount within the range that is lower than the amount on which the person was appointed except:
 - (i) in the circumstances in Section 18; or
 - (ii) as a form of disciplinary action that may be prescribed by regulations.

39 Determination of allowances

- (1) The Minister may determine, with the approval of the Cabinet:
 - (a) the circumstances in which a public service employee shall be paid an allowance in addition to the employee's salary; and
 - (b) the amount of each allowance.
- (2) A decision made under subsection (1) shall be published by Gazette notice within 7 days of being made.

DIVISION 2 — HOURS OF ATTENDANCE

40 Determination of base hours of attendance

The Chief Secretary may determine that the base hours of attendance that apply to a public service employee are:

- (a) the standard hours of attendance; or
- (b) the non-standard hours of attendance.

40A Reporting requirements for employees working from outside the Republic due to unexpected circumstances or events

- (1) This Section applies where an employee:
 - (a) is outside of the Republic for leave approved under this Act;

- (b) is unable to return to the Republic at the expiry of the approved leave due to prescribed circumstances outside of the employer's or employee's control; and
 - (c) as a result of not being in the Republic, is unable to comply with the requirements of this Division.
- (2) Despite a determination made under Section 40, and where subsection (1) applies, the Minister may:
- (a) authorise in writing that the employee is to perform the employee's duties and responsibilities away from the place of duty;
 - (b) determine in writing, the terms and conditions of employment that the employee is to comply with whilst outside of the Republic and the following applies:
 - (i) the terms and conditions are regarded as a variation to the existing terms and conditions; and
 - (ii) the terms and conditions commence from the date determined by the Minister, and ceases upon the employee's return to the Republic;
 - (c) authorise in writing that the employee be paid the salary determined under Section 38 for that employee, which may be:
 - (i) the full salary; or
 - (ii) partial salary; and
 - (d) make policy for the purpose of this Section notwithstanding existing terms and conditions of employment.
- (3) Where it is authorised that an employee is to be paid a partial salary under subsection (2)(c)(ii), that employee shall be paid in accordance with the original terms and conditions:
- (a) the remaining balance of salary that the employee is entitled to be paid as determined under Section 38; and
 - (b) upon return to the place of duty.
- (4) For the purpose of this Section, 'away from the place of duty':
- (a) means any place from where an employee shall perform the duties and responsibilities of his or her employment outside the Republic; or
 - (b) includes a place where the employee is required by the written laws of the Republic or written laws of a foreign jurisdiction to isolate for the purposes of travel, health or safety of the employee or the public.

[s 40A insrt Act 15 of 2022 s 4, opn 10 June 2022]

41 Base hours of attendance – standard

- (1) Where the standard hours of attendance apply to a public service employee, the employee shall attend work from 9am to 5pm on each working day.
- (2) On each working day, the employee is entitled to a one hour meal break, which shall be taken at a time approved by the employee's supervisor.

42 Base hours of attendance – non-standard

- (1) Where the non-standard hours of attendance apply to a public service employee, the employee shall attend work at the times and on the days specified in advance by the relevant Secretary, excluding meal breaks.
- (2) The employee is entitled to a 1 hour meal break for each unbroken period of 4 hours of work completed.

43 Hours of attendance – Teachers

Despite Sections 41 and 42, the hours of duty for teachers may be determined by the Minister by notice in the Gazette.

44 Failure to comply with required hours of attendance

- (1) A public service employee is not entitled to receive salary or any other remuneration for any time the employee is absent without leave.
- (2) Where an employee fails to attend his or her employment for a continuous period of 14 days and fails to give notice as required under this Act, the employee is deemed to have resigned from his or her position and the position immediately becomes vacant.

[subs (2) subst Act 29 of 2016 s 11, opn 9 June 2016]

- (3) Where an employee is deemed to have resigned from his or her position under subsection (2), the employee shall not be re-employed in the public service within a period of 6 months from the date of deemed resignation.

[subs (3) insrt Act 24 of 2017 s 4, opn 24 Nov 2017]

45 Additional hours of attendance

- (1) A public service employee may be required to attend work for a reasonable number of hours in addition to the employee's base hours of attendance if the employee is compensated for the additional hours by way of:
 - (a) additional remuneration; or
 - (b) time off work at another time.
- (2) The Minister may make regulations about additional hours of attendance, including:
 - (a) the maximum amount of additional hours an employee may be required to attend work; and
 - (b) the compensation the employee shall be given for the additional hours.

46 Record of attendance

- (1) The Chief Secretary shall determine the means of recording the attendance of officers and employees.
- (2) The relevant Secretary is responsible, using the means of record determined by the Chief Secretary, for the recording of attendance in that Department.
- (3) Every person employed in the public service shall record daily by the means of record determined by the Chief Secretary, the actual times of his or her arrival at, and departure from, his or her place of duty.
- (4) The following are exempt from the application of subsection (3):
 - (a) Secretaries of Departments; and
 - (b) public service employees specially exempted by the Chief Secretary.
- (5) The exemption in subsection (4) does not authorise the employee to leave his or her place of duty except on official business within the hours of attendance.

DIVISION 3 — LEAVE

47 Definition of employee

For the purpose of Subdivisions 1 to 8 of this Division, 'employee' means permanent employees and contract employees.

Subdivision 1 — Recreation leave

48 Purpose of recreation leave

Recreation leave is available to an employee to enable the employee to take leave from duty.

49 Entitlement to recreation leave

- (1) For each year of service, an employee is entitled to 4 weeks of recreation leave on full salary (the employee's 'annual entitlement').
- (2) An employee's annual entitlement may be calculated on a pro rata basis.
- (3) [subs (3) rep Act 3 of 2018 s 4, opn 26 Jan 2018]

50 Accumulation of recreation leave – maximum

- (1) Recreation leave accrues cumulatively up to a maximum of 3 years.
- (2) Where an employee reaches the maximum recreation leave balance, the Chief Secretary shall direct the employee to immediately:
 - (a) take an amount of recreation leave that will reduce the employee's recreation leave balance so it does not exceed the maximum annual balance when the employee next accrues recreation leave; or
 - (b) cash out an amount of recreation leave that will reduce the employee's recreation leave so it does not exceed the maximum recreation leave balance when the employee next accrues recreation leave.
- (3) The Chief Secretary may only direct the employee to cash out leave if there are exceptional operational reasons preventing the employee from taking recreation leave.
- (4) An employee may only cash out recreation leave if the Chief Secretary directs the employee to do so under subsection (2)(b).
- (5) For the purposes of this Section, recreation leave is cashed out when:
 - (a) the employee is paid an amount equal to the amount of salary the employee would be entitled to be paid during a period (the 'cash out period') if the employee were on recreation leave; and
 - (b) the employee's recreation leave balance is reduced by the number of days equal to the cashed out period.

51 Taking recreation leave

- (1) The employee shall apply to the Chief Secretary to take recreation leave at least 14 days prior to taking recreation leave.
[subs (1) subst Act 24 of 2017 s 6, opn 24 Nov 2017]
- (1A) [subs (1A) rep Act 6 of 2020 s 15, opn 4 June 2020]
- (2) An employee shall as far as practicable take their recreation leave when it is due.
- (3) An employee seeking to defer their recreation leave shall first obtain the written approval of the Chief Secretary.
- (4) The Chief Secretary shall grant the recreation leave to the extent of the employee's recreation leave balance if:
 - (a) the employee has completed an initial continuous period of service of 3 months; and

(b) the relevant Secretary consents to the grant of leave.

[subs (4) am Act 6 of 2020 s 15, opn 4 June 2020]

- (5) The relevant Secretary may only refuse to consent to the grant of leave for operational reasons.
- (6) Where the relevant Secretary refuses to grant leave for operational reasons, the Secretary shall consult with the employee to determine an alternative time for the employee to take the leave.

52 Public holiday during recreation leave

Where a public holiday occurs during a period an employee is absent from duty on recreation leave, the day shall not be deducted from the employee's recreation leave balance.

53 Recreation leave – Teachers

- (1) Despite Section 47, 'employee' for the purpose of this Subdivision does not include a teacher in the Department of Education.
- (2) An employee who is a teacher in the Department of Education may be granted leave of absence for recreation for such period or periods as the Chief Secretary determines.

Subdivision 2 — Medical leave

54 Purpose of medical leave

Medical leave is available to an employee to enable the employee to be absent from duty because the employee is unfit for duty due to illness or injury.

55 Entitlement to medical leave

- (1) For each year of service, an employee is entitled to 10 days of medical leave on full salary (the employee's 'annual entitlement').
- (2) The employee accrues the annual entitlement:
 - (a) on appointment to the public service; and
 - (b) on completing each accrual year.
- (3) Medical leave does not accrue cumulatively.

56 Taking medical leave – evidence

- (1) An employee may apply through the Secretary to the Chief Secretary to take a period of medical leave.
- (2) Subject to subsection (2A), where an employee is absent from duty for 1 day only, on medical leave, he or she shall not be required to produce a medical certificate.

[subs (2) subst Act 24 of 2017 s 7, opn 24 Nov 2017]

- (2A) Subsection (2) applies to 3 non consecutive days out of the total of the 10 days medical leave permitted per year by Section 55.

[subs (2A) insrt Act 24 of 2017 s 7, opn 24 Nov 2017]

- (2B) The remaining 7 days of medical leave whether for 1 or more days shall require the provision of a medical certificate by the employee.

[subs (2B) insrt Act 24 of 2017 s 7, opn 24 Nov 2017]

(3) The Chief Secretary may grant the employee the medical leave provided the employee gives the Chief Secretary any required documentary evidence for the application.

(4) Despite Section 55(1), the Chief Secretary may approve an employee's medical leave up to a maximum of 3 months with full salary for inpatient hospitalisation or for other medical reasons certified by a registered health practitioner.

[subs (4) insrt Act 29 of 2016 s 12, opn 9 June 2016]

(5) Upon the expiration of the term approved in subsection (4) and on the application of the employee, the Minister may grant the employee leave with or without full salary or with or without partial salary for a period not exceeding 12 months to allow the employee to remain away from his or her employment due to prolonged hospitalisation, illness or injury.

[subs (5) insrt Act 29 of 2016 s 12, opn 9 June 2016; am Act 15 of 2022 s 5, opn 10 June 2022]

57 Taking medical leave – amount

The Chief Secretary may only grant an employee medical leave to the extent of the employee's medical leave balance.

58 Public holiday during medical leave

If a public holiday occurs during a period when an employee is absent from duty on medical leave, the day shall not be deducted from the employee's medical leave balance.

Subdivision 3 — Maternity leave

59 Purpose of maternity leave

Maternity leave is available to a female employee to enable the employee to be absent from duty during or immediately after the employee's pregnancy.

60 Entitlement to maternity leave

- (1) An employee is entitled to paid maternity leave provided she has completed 6 months of continuous service on the day she begins maternity leave.
- (2) An employee is entitled to 12 weeks of maternity leave:
 - (a) with full salary in relation to the first 4 pregnancies; and
 - (b) on half salary in relation to any subsequent pregnancies.
- (3) The employee is not entitled to maternity leave beyond the date on which she would have ceased employment in the public service had she not taken maternity leave.
- (4) Where the employee completes 6 months of continuous service during the period of maternity leave, she is entitled to be paid her full salary for the remaining period of maternity leave.
- (5) Maternity leave does not accrue cumulatively.

61 Taking maternity leave

- (1) An employee may apply to the Chief Secretary to take maternity leave.
- (2) The employee shall apply at least 3 months before she intends to start the leave.

- (3) The Chief Secretary may apply discretion if an application for maternity leave is submitted less than 3 months before the intended start of leave.
- (4) The Chief Secretary shall grant the maternity leave if the employee submits to the Chief Secretary a medical certificate certifying:
 - (a) that the employee is pregnant;
 - (b) the expected date of birth of the employee's child; and
 - (c) the date on which the employee shall cease duties.
- (5) An employee shall proceed on maternity leave no less than 6 weeks prior to the expected date of delivery unless a health practitioner certifies that she is fit to continue duties.

62 Returning to duty after maternity leave

- (1) An employee who has proceeded on maternity leave shall contact the Chief Secretary at least 4 weeks before the end of her leave to confirm that she is returning to work at the end of her maternity leave.
- (2) An employee who returns to her employment after maternity leave shall resume at the same or equivalent position held prior to proceeding on maternity leave, without any loss of salary, benefits and seniority.

[subs (2) am Act 1 of 2019 s 6, opn 22 Mar 2019]

63 Restriction on termination

- (1) No employee shall be terminated from her public service employment on the ground of pregnancy.
- (2) Where a termination occurs while the employee is pregnant, the burden of disproving that the termination was related to that condition rests with the Chief Secretary.
- (3) Where, after 3 months from the expiration of her maternity leave, an employee remains absent from work, as a result of illness, certified by a registered health practitioner, arising out of her pregnancy or the birth of her child rendering her unfit for work, the Chief Secretary may give her notice of termination in accordance with Part 7.

Subdivision 4 — Paternity Leave

64 Purpose of paternity leave

113 Hearing of appeal

- (1) The Board shall:
- (a) list the notice of appeal before it by no later than 30 days from the date of the filing of the notice of appeal under Section 111 with the secretary to the Board; and
 - (b) issue notice to parties to attend before the Board.
- (2) At the hearing of the appeal, the aggrieved public service employee may appear in person, be assisted by another person or represented by a legal practitioner.

- (3) The hearing of the appeal may be by written or oral submissions or as the Board may direct.
- (4) No additional or fresh evidence shall be permitted for an appeal hearing without the prior leave of the Board.
- (5) The Board shall not grant leave under subsection (4), to adduce evidence which was not adduced before the Chief Secretary, unless the party seeking to adduce the evidence demonstrates that:
 - (a) the evidence could not have been earlier obtained with reasonable diligence;
 - (b) the evidence is likely to materially influence the outcome of the appeal; and
 - (c) the evidence is credible.
- (6) The hearing shall not be open to the public.
- (7) No appeal or proceedings before the Board shall be dismissed for want of any form or procedure.
- (8) The Board may set its own procedure for the hearing of appeals.

114 Decision on appeal

- (1) The Board may:
 - (a) confirm part or whole of the decision;
 - (b) set aside part or whole of the decision and substitute its own decision; or
 - (c) refer the decision back to the Chief Secretary for re-determination with appropriate directions.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), the Board in substituting its own decision has the same power vested to the Chief Secretary to make the decision.

115 Orders for reinstatement or compensation

- (1) Where the Board sets aside a decision to terminate the aggrieved public service employee, the Board may:
 - (a) reinstate the employee to the same position which he or she occupied immediately before the decision appealed against; or
 - (b) reinstate the employee but demote to a position lower than what he or she occupied immediately before the decision was made.
- (2) Subject to subsection (4), where the Board makes a decision to reinstate the aggrieved public service employee, the Board may make the following orders:
 - (a) in case of subsection (1)(a), to reinstate the salary and benefit to which the employee was entitled for his or her position held immediately prior to termination; or
 - (b) in case of subsection (1)(b), where an employee is demoted, payment of salary and benefit based on the demoted position with retrospective effect from the date of the decision to terminate, or where suspended to the date of such suspension.
- (3) Where the Board sets aside a decision to terminate the aggrieved public service employee and the position which the public service employee had occupied immediately before the decision to terminate was made, is abolished or it is otherwise not practical to reinstate the public service employee, he or she shall be paid compensation equivalent to 3 months salary to which the public service employee was entitled on the date of termination.

- (4) The Board may order compensation to be paid to an aggrieved public service employee under subsection (1), a sum of money not exceeding 6 months salary.
- (5) Any period of time which is treated as leave without pay under subsection (4) shall not affect the calculation and determination of the continuous period of service in the public service.
- (6) The redundancy payment or any accrued benefit after demotion, shall be on the demoted position.

116 Compliance with order for reinstatement

- (1) Where a decision for reinstatement is made, the Board shall direct the Chief Secretary to comply with the decision within 30 days of the date of the delivery of the decision.
- (2) The employee shall be paid salary and benefit with effect from the date of the delivery of the decision whether or not the employee is reinstated with immediate effect.

117 Decision

- (1) The Board shall deliver its decision in writing within 14 days of the hearing of the appeal.
- (2) A copy of the decision shall be provided to the Chief Secretary and the aggrieved public service employee.
- (3) The Board shall have no power to order costs against either party.

117A Limitation on appealing decision of Board

- (1) There shall be no appeal against the decision of the Board.
- (2) The decision of the Board is subject to judicial review on the grounds of:
 - (a) jurisdictional error; and
 - (b) error of law.

PART 9 — SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

118 Repeal of Public Service Act 1998

The Public Service Act 1998 is repealed.

119 Definitions

'changeover day' means the day this Act comes into force and this Part commences; and

'repealed Act' means the Public Service Act 1998.

120 Existing officers and employees - general

- (1) Subject to this Act, a person who was an officer or employee under the repealed Public Service Act immediately before the changeover date is taken to be a public service employee under this Act.
- (2) The person's employment and conditions of employment are not affected by any discontinuance of public service positions because of the enactment of this Act.
- (3) Where there is doubt about whether a person is an existing officer or employee, a Secretary may, if the person asks, declare the person to be an existing public service employee.
- (4) On making the declaration, subsections (1) and (2) are taken to have always applied to the person.
- (5) The repealing of the Public Service Act 1998 does not affect the length of employment of any existing officer or employee but this Act (Public Service Act 2016) applies to that officer or employee from the date of commencement stated in Section 2.

121 Existing Secretary

- (1) Where immediately before the changeover day, a person held appointment under the repealed Public Service Act as the Secretary of a department, the person is taken to have been appointed under this Act as a Secretary for the remainder of the person's term of appointment.
- (2) An appointment in existence immediately before the changeover day is taken to have been made under this Act.
- (3) An appointment in existence immediately before the changeover day for a person to act as a Secretary of a department, continues as if it had been made under this Act.
- (4) Any contract of employment of a Secretary of a department made under the repealed Act is deemed to have been made under this Act and subject to any amendments made by this Act.

122 Existing contracts of employment

- (1) This Section applies if a person, other than a Secretary, was employed under the repealed Public Service Act 1998 under a contract of employment immediately before the changeover day.

- (2) The contract of employment is deemed to have been made under this Act between the person and the Government and subject to any amendments made by this Act.
- (3) Where the person was a public service employee immediately before the changeover day, the employment of that person under this Act is taken to be on contract for a fixed term.

123 Existing temporary employees

- (1) A person who was employed under the repealed Public Service Act 1998 as a temporary employee immediately before the changeover day is taken to be a temporary employee under this Act.
- (2) The person's employment and conditions of employment are not affected by the repeal of the Public Service Act 1998.
- (3) [subs (3) rep Act 29 of 2016 s 19, opn 9 June 2016]
- (4) [subs (4) rep Act 29 of 2016 s 19, opn 9 June 2016]

124 Existing rulings and decisions

- (1) A ruling or decision made under the repealed Public Service Act 1998 immediately before the changeover day remains in force as a ruling or decision of the same type under this Act.
- (2) The continued ruling or decision:
 - (a) is to be read with the changes necessary to make it consistent with, and adapt its operation to, this Act; and
 - (b) may be amended or repealed by a ruling or decision under this Act made by the person or body who can make that type of ruling under this Act about the matters provided for under the continued ruling.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies mutatis mutandis to any amendment to this Act.

[subs (3) insrt Act 6 of 2020 s 28, opn 4 June 2020]

125 Existing disciplinary action

Where disciplinary action had been started, but not completed, under the repealed Act before the changeover day, the action may be completed under this Act.

126 Existing suspensions

Where, immediately before the changeover day, a person was suspended from duty under the repealed Act, the suspension continues to have effect as a suspension under this Act.

127 Reference to repealed Act

- (1) A reference in another written law or a document to the repealed Act may, if the context permits, be taken as a reference to this Act.
- (2) A reference in another Act or a document to a particular provision of the repealed Act may, if the context permits, be taken as a reference to any provision of this Act all or part of which corresponds, or substantially corresponds, to the repealed provision.
- (3) This Section is subject to the other provisions of this Part.

128 Corresponding approvals, decisions and notices

- (1) This Section applies if:
 - (a) a provision of the repealed Act provides for an approval, decision, declaration or a Gazette notice or other notice to be made or given for a matter;
 - (b) an approval, decision, declaration or notice of that type is in force under the repealed Act immediately before the changeover day; and
 - (c) a provision of this Act corresponds or substantially corresponds to the old provision.
- (2) On the changeover day, the approval, decision, declaration or notice is taken to be an approval, decision, declaration or notice made or given for the matter under this Act.

129 Transitional regulations

[s 129 omitted by the Law Revision Commission under powers authorised by Act 10 of 2019]

129A Saving and transition

- (1) Any directions given to the parties to an appeal by the Board with the Chief Justice sitting as the Chairperson, shall be complied with by the parties and an appeal related to such direction shall proceed to be heard by the Board constituted under this Act.
- (2) A pending decision of the Board on an application or appeal in which the Chief Justice presided as the Chairperson, shall be delivered within 30 days of the coming into effect of this Act, otherwise any such application or appeal shall be heard de novo.

[The next page is 7401]

PART 10 — MISCELLANEOUS

130 Regulations

- (1) The Cabinet may make regulations under this Act.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations may:
 - (a) provide for part-time employment and modify the application of this Act to a part-time employee;
 - (b) specify maximum periods for fixed terms under this Act;
 - (c) provide for additional leave entitlements;
 - (d) provide exemptions, conditional or absolute, from the application of a provision of this Act;
 - (e) provide the procedure for investigating and determining charges under this Act; and
 - (f) provide for any other matters.
- (3) The regulations may:
 - (a) be of general application or vary in their application according to prescribed factors; and
 - (b) give a person discretion to decide a matter.
- (4) For the purposes of interpretation, Public Service Circulars issued by the Chief Secretary have the same effect as regulations made under this Act.

[The next page is 11,601]

PART 2 — VEHICLES

5 Vehicle Colour Codes

- (1) All vehicles shall be coded with coloured labels as follows:
 - (a) Green – full use by Heads of Departments and employees who have a contractual entitlement to the personal use of vehicle;
 - (b) Yellow – emergency service workers, shift workers;
 - (c) Red – limited use for official purposes between 9am to 5pm only on Monday to Friday; and
 - (d) Blue – use for personal or official purposes between 8am to 10pm from Monday to Sunday.

[subreg (1) subst SL 27 of 2018 reg 4, opn 20 Nov 2018]

- (2) All vehicles with Red labels shall be parked at the car parks allocated by the Heads of Departments after 5pm every day including the weekends.

6 Responsibilities

- (1) The Heads of Departments shall:
 - (a) monitor the usage of vehicles, where necessary; and
 - (b) display the Regulations conspicuously on a notice Board or in a place the employees can easily access.
- (2) An employee who is assigned or has access to a vehicle shall:
 - (a) only use the vehicle for public service related purposes, unless expressly excluded in the Regulations or under his or her contract of employment;
 - (b) not use the vehicle for any activities which are in violation of the laws of the Republic;
 - (c) keep the vehicle clean and in good repair;
 - (d) have a valid Nauruan driver's licence with a photocopy of the licence provided to his or her Head of Department;
 - (e) not transfer or tamper with the colour code of any vehicle;
 - (f) not remove the vehicle registration number plate; and
 - (g) not drive a vehicle without a vehicle registration number plate affixed at both the front and rear of the vehicle.

7 Authorised use of Government issued vehicles

- (1) All employees assigned or having access to a vehicle shall ensure the vehicles are used in accordance with the authorisation given by the Chief Secretary, applicable laws and the terms and conditions of their contracts.
- (2) The personal use of a vehicle extends only to:
 - (a) a Head of Department; and
 - (b) an employee who has a contractual entitlement to the personal use of a vehicle.
- (3) The Chief Secretary may vary the authorisation for the use of a vehicle on an application by an employee on any terms as the Chief Secretary thinks fit.

- (4) An approval under subregulation (3) shall be in writing and issued to the employee prior to the use of a vehicle.
- (5) An authorisation to drive a vehicle may be cancelled by a Head of Department in consultation with the Chief Secretary if an:
 - (a) employee's driver's licence expires;
 - (b) employee's driver's licence has been revoked;
 - (c) employee has been disqualified from driving by the Court; or
 - (d) employee breaches any:
 - (i) condition of the authorisation for the use of the vehicle;
 - (ii) motor traffic law; or
 - (iii) terms and conditions of his or her contractual use of the vehicle.

8 Rental vehicles

A Head of Department shall not hire a rental vehicle for public service use without the prior approval of the Chief Secretary.

9 Vehicles for consultants

A consultant engaged by the Republic shall not have the use of a vehicle or a rental vehicle paid for by a department unless provided for under his or her contract.

10 Use and possession of vehicle during leave

- (1) An employee shall return the keys to the vehicle in his or her possession to his or her Head of Department before going on leave unless the Chief Secretary has provided written consent for the use of the vehicle during the period of leave.
- (2) The employee shall ensure that the vehicle is parked in a safe place during the period of his or her leave or absence from office.

11 Prohibited use

- (1) The following are prohibited conduct for the use of Government vehicles:
 - (a) smoking in vehicles;
 - (b) drinking alcohol in vehicles;

 - (g) using the vehicles for commercial activities or secondary employment;
 - (h) using the vehicles to tow boat trailers or to transport other fishing gear; and
 - (i) permitting unauthorised persons to drive the vehicles.

[subreg (1) subst SL 27 of 2018 reg 5, opn 20 Nov 2018]

- (2) For the purposes of this Regulation, 'permitting' means express or implied authority or allowing access to a vehicle to unauthorised persons which includes the failure to store the vehicle keys safely.
- (3) A contravention of subregulation (1) may result in the employee being summarily dismissed from public service employment.

12 Motor traffic laws

- (1) All employees shall act in accordance with all motor traffic laws.
- (2) An employee who contravenes any motor traffic law shall:
 - (a) defend himself or herself if any prosecution is undertaken; and
 - (b) pay any fine, penalty or compensation ordered by the court.

13 Registration and insurance

- (1) The Republic shall ensure that all vehicles have:
 - (a) valid motor vehicle registration certificates; and
 - (b) third party insurance pursuant to the Motor Traffic Act 2014.
- (2) The Heads of Departments are responsible for any fines relating to the condition of the vehicles including the renewal of annual registration and third party insurance.

14 Accidents or incidents reports

- (1) The employee shall report in writing including by electronic means, to his or her Head of Department, within 24 hours if the vehicle is involved in an accident or is stolen.
- (2) The Head of Department shall submit the report to the Chief Secretary for his or her consideration.
- (3) Where a vehicle is damaged as a result of an act or an omission of the employee, the employee shall pay for:
 - (a) the damage to the vehicle; and
 - (b) any expenses incurred by the Government for any rental vehicles acquired as replacements for the damaged vehicles.
- (4) Where a vehicle is involved in an accident without any act or omission of the employee, the employee shall pay for the damage to the vehicle, which sum shall be reimbursed by the Government upon identification of the person who caused the damage.
- (5) An employee, who is the driver of a vehicle involved in an accident shall provide an accident or incident report in the prescribed form in the Schedule to his or her Head of Department within 5 days from when the accident or incident took place.

15 Penalties

- (1) In addition to the penalty prescribed in Regulation 11(3), if an employee breaches these Regulations, the employee's vehicle privileges shall be withdrawn either permanently or for a term determined by the Chief Secretary.
- (2) A breach of these Regulations shall be a ground:

- (a) for disciplinary action under the Act; or
 - (b) a surcharge for loss or destruction of or damage to a vehicle.
- (3) For the purposes of these Regulations, ignorance of the law is not a defence to any action which may be taken by the Republic against an employee for any breach of the Regulations.

16 Existing policies

These Regulations supersede all vehicle policies in effect prior to the notification of these Regulations.

17 Restriction on the use of tint on window

- (1) An employee, who is assigned a vehicle shall not without the prior written approval of the Chief Secretary, permit or cause any window of the vehicle to be tinted.
- (2) Where approval is given by the Chief Secretary under subregulation (1), the visible light transmittance shall be:
 - (a) for each front window, at least 35%; and
 - (b) for each rear window, at least 20%.
- (3) An employee who contravenes this Regulation commits a disciplinary offence.
- (4) An employee who permits or causes any window of a vehicle to be tinted:
 - (a) with the prior written approval of the Chief Secretary, shall bear the full cost of the tinting without any claims or reimbursements from the Republic; or
 - (b) without the prior written approval of the Chief Secretary, shall pay for the cost of the removal of such tint and any cost is recoverable by deduction from the employee's salary.

[reg 17 insrt SL 23 of 2021 reg 4, opn 6 Aug 2021]

18 Prohibition on the use of tint on windscreen

- (1) An employee who is assigned a vehicle shall not permit or cause any windscreen of the vehicle to be tinted unless the tint is installed by the manufacturer of the vehicle.
- (2) An employee who contravenes subregulation (1), commits a disciplinary offence.
- (3) An employee who permits or causes any windscreen of a vehicle to be tinted shall pay for the cost of the removal of such tint and any cost is recoverable by deduction from the employee's salary.

[reg 18 insrt SL 23 of 2021 reg 5, opn 6 Aug 2021]

19 Restriction on modifying vehicle

- (1) An employee, who is assigned a vehicle shall not without the prior written approval of the Chief Secretary, permit or cause another person to make any modification to the vehicle.
- (2) An employee who contravenes subregulation (1), commits a disciplinary offence.
- (3) An employee who permits or causes any modification of a vehicle:

- (a) with the prior written approval of the Chief Secretary, shall bear the full cost of the modification without any claim or reimbursement from the Republic; or
- (b) without the prior written approval of the Chief Secretary, shall pay for the cost of the removal of such modification and any cost is recoverable by deduction from the employee's salary.

The Cabinet makes the following Regulations under Section 97 of the Public Service Act 2016:

PART 1 — PRELIMINARY

1 Citation

These Regulations may be cited as the Public Service (Disciplinary) Regulations 2020.

2 Commencement

These Regulations come into effect on the day they are notified in the Gazette and came into effect on 24 June 2020.

3 Objectives

The objectives of these Regulations are to:

- (a) foster professional employment relations in the public service;
- (b) promote mutual respect between employees and between employer and employees;
- (c) provide a framework for acceptable conduct in the workplace and the consequences of deviating from acceptable conduct;
- (d) ensure there is mutual knowledge and understanding between the employer and employees of the application of the disciplinary procedure and penalty for misconduct by an employee; and
- (e) provide a fair and impartial determination of any misconduct at the workplace.

4 Application of Regulations

- (1) These Regulations apply to all persons employed in the public service which include:
 - (a) public service employees;
 - (b) temporary employees;
 - (c) contract employees;
 - (d) Heads of Departments as specified in the Act and these Regulations;
 - (e) foreign service employees; and
 - (f) service providers whose terms and conditions of engagement is subject to the Act.
- (2) These Regulations may not apply to a persons employed under a written law which specifically provides for the terms and conditions of such employment.

5 Interpretation

In these Regulations:

‘Code of Conduct’ refers to the Code of Conduct in Section 8 of the Act;

‘disciplinary proceedings’ means the process of receiving complaint, investigation, hearing and determination of a misconduct;

'employee' includes persons referred to in Regulation 4;

'legal practitioner' has the same meaning it has in the Legal Practitioners Act 2019;

'Minister' means the Minister responsible for the Public Service unless stated otherwise;

'misconduct' has the meaning given to it in Regulation 8; and

'relevant Head of Department' refers to the Secretary or person in charge of a Department in which a particular employee is employed.

[The next page is 13,601]

PART 2 — CHIEF SECRETARY TO DEAL WITH MISCONDUCT

6 Powers of the Chief Secretary and Heads of Departments

- (1) Subject to subregulation (2), the Chief Secretary shall exercise disciplinary control over persons employed in the public service under the Act or any written law.
- (2) Subregulation (1) shall not apply to an employee whose employment is specifically governed by a written law, which provides for its own disciplinary procedure, process or penalty.
- (3) The Chief Secretary may in writing delegate powers to the Heads of Departments to exercise disciplinary control over employees.
- (4) The delegation of powers under subregulation (3), shall not prohibit the Chief Secretary from exercising such powers independent of the Head of Department, subject to an employee's right to protection under the principle of double jeopardy.
- (5) The Head of Department shall not exercise powers delegated to him or her under subregulation (3), where the Chief Secretary has already exercised or is in the process of exercising such powers.

7 Refusal by Head of Department to exercise power

Where the Chief Secretary reasonably believes that the Head of Department wilfully fails or neglects to exercise the power delegated to him or her under the Act or these Regulations, the Chief Secretary may:

- (a) direct the Head of Department to exercise such power and where the Head of Department fails to do so, the Chief Secretary may discipline the Head of Department and submit a report to the Minister; and
- (b) concurrently exercise such power himself or herself.

[The next page is 13,801]

PART 3 — MISCONDUCT

8 Misconduct

A misconduct consists of:

- (a) a breach of the Code of Conduct;
- (b) a commission of a disciplinary offence in Schedule 1; or
- (c) a combination of both (a) and (b).

9 Multiplicity of disciplinary offences

- (1) Where misconduct may constitute a number of breaches of the Code of Conduct or disciplinary offences, the employee may be charged with the most serious of the disciplinary offences.
- (2) Where an employee is charged with multiple disciplinary offences arising from the same facts or conduct, the penalty shall reflect the most serious of the charges so that the penalty imposed is reasonably appropriate for the gravity or impact of such offence or offences.

PART 4 — PROCEDURE FOR COMPLAINTS AGAINST EMPLOYEES
EXCEPT HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS OR CHIEF SECRETARY

10 Complaint

- (1) A person may lodge a complaint in respect of an employee:
 - (a) to the relevant Head of Department in relation to an alleged misconduct of an employee; or
 - (b) to the Chief Secretary.
- (2) Where a complaint is lodged with the Chief Secretary, against an employee other than that of the Department of Chief Secretary, he or she shall refer the complaint to the relevant Head of Department for his or her consideration.
- (3) The complaint, insofar as practicable, shall be in writing and accompanied by available supporting evidence.
- (4) A complaint made under subregulation (1) or (2), shall be acknowledged in writing by the Head of Department or the Chief Secretary respectively.

11 Head of Department may initiate investigation

Notwithstanding Regulation 10, a Head of Department may initiate an investigation for any alleged misconduct in relation to any one or more of the employees in his or her Department, without a formal complaint.

12 Complaint against Head of Department and Chief Secretary

- (1) A complaint against a Head of Department may be made to the Chief Secretary in writing and accompanied by available supporting evidence.
- (2) A complaint against the Chief Secretary may be made to the Minister in writing and accompanied by available supporting evidence.

13 Complaint against an employee of the Department of Chief Secretary

For the purposes of investigating or considering a complaint against an employee of the Department of Chief Secretary, the reference to Head of Department in these Regulations, where applicable refers to the Chief Secretary.

[The next page is 14,201]

PART 5 — DECISION TO INVESTIGATE

14 Complaints with no merit

Where a complaint against an employee is received by a Head of Department, he or she:

- (a) may summarily dismiss the complaint, with or without investigation, where it lacks merit;
- (b) shall inform the complainant of the decision; and
- (c) provide a copy of the decision to the Chief Secretary.

15 Complaints warranting investigation

(1) Where a Head of Department is of the opinion that a complaint be investigated, he or she shall provide to the respective employee:

- (a) a summary of the complaint including the alleged misconduct;
- (b) where practicable, a copy of the complaint made against the employee including available supporting evidence; and
- (c) a directive that the employee shall within 7 days from the date of the service of the documents provide a written response admitting or denying each and every allegation.

(2) In providing the information under subsection (1), the Head of Department shall:

- (a) inform the employee that based on the complaint and the response, disciplinary charges may be laid against him or her; and
- (b) inform the employee that the employee may represent in person or be assisted by another person or a legal practitioner at any stage of the investigation, hearing or determination of a complaint.

16 Employee admits to complaint

(1) Where the allegation is admitted by the employee, he or she shall:

- (a) admit the respective facts provided with or without any variations; and
- (b) provide information or matters in Regulation 23, which the Chief Secretary may take into account as mitigation, when considering an appropriate penalty.

(2) The Head of Department shall provide a report to the Chief Secretary.

17 Employee denies complaint

(1) Where an allegation is denied, the employee shall:

- (a) provide detailed reasons of the denial of the allegations;
- (b) submit available supporting evidence including any statement of a person he or she may rely on for the purposes of paragraph (a); and
- (c) provide name, telephone, email or any other form of contact of a person he or she has obtained a statement from under paragraph (b).

(2) Where necessary, the Head of Department may refer a summary of the employee's response to the complainant for any clarification.

18 Investigation report to be provided to Chief Secretary

The Head of Department within 7 days of the receipt of the employee's response in Regulation 17 shall provide to the Chief Secretary:

- (a) the complaint;
- (b) the response from the employee; and
- (c) a report in Form 4 of Schedule 2 containing the following:
 - (i) a summary of the complaint and response;
 - (ii) the opinion of the Head of Department on the merits of the complaint;
 - (iii) the relevant employment records of the employee, if any, kept by the Department;
 - (iv) the alleged misconduct committed by the employee;
 - (v) the possible outcome of the complaint; and
 - (vi) the recommended penalty.

19 Formal charges

- (1) Upon receipt of the report in Regulation 18, and where the Chief Secretary is of the opinion that a misconduct has allegedly been committed, he or she shall formally charge the employee for such misconduct in Form 5 in Schedule 2.
- (2) The Chief Secretary shall cause the charge to be served to the employee within 10 days from the receipt of the report in Regulation 18.
- (3) The Chief Secretary shall provide to the relevant Head of Department a copy of the charge in subregulation (1).

20 Employee admits charge

Where the employee admits the allegations in the formal charge, the Chief Secretary shall:

- (a) subject to Regulation 16(1)(b), require the employee to provide any submissions on any matters in Regulation 23 he or she may consider for the purposes of penalty, if the same was not earlier provided; and
- (b) on receipt of any submissions, proceed to imposing an appropriate penalty under Regulation 24.

21 Employee denies charge

- (1) Where the employee denies the allegations in the formal charge:
 - (a) the Chief Secretary may consider the allegations on the report and accompanying documents provided by the Head of Department in Regulation 18 and find the employee guilty or not guilty on one or more of the charges; or
 - (b) the Chief Secretary, may establish a committee comprising of no more than 3 members to hear and recommend to the Chief Secretary on the formal charges.
- (2) The committee in subregulation (1)(b) shall, insofar as practicable, consist of a member who has at least 5 years of legal practice.

22 Committee to recommend

- (1) The committee shall hear and provide a report with a recommendation of its decision to the Chief Secretary no later than 10 days from the receipt of the directive in Regulation 21(1)(b) by the Chief Secretary.

- (2) On receiving the report from the committee, the Chief Secretary may consider all information and report of the committee, to make a determination as to whether the employee is guilty or not guilty of misconduct.

23 Chief Secretary to consider the penalty

- (1) Where an employee admits any allegation of misconduct or is found to have committed misconduct, the Chief Secretary in considering the penalty may direct the respective employee to provide mitigation submissions within 5 days, where the employee has not earlier provided the same under these Regulations.
- (2) In determining the penalty, the Chief Secretary may take into account one or more of the following matters:
 - (a) nature of misconduct in particular, fraudulent conduct, politicising public service, bringing disrepute to the Executive, Judiciary or Legislature;
 - (b) malice with which the employee acted;
 - (c) time and place of misconduct;
 - (d) the employee taking advantage of his or her official position;
 - (e) taking advantage of the unique position of the victim;
 - (f) use of Government property to commit the offence;
 - (g) habituality or frequency of the commission of misconduct, despite counselling and irrespective of whether charged or not;
 - (h) a first time offender;
 - (i) education or qualification;
 - (j) competence in the performance of work;
 - (k) length of public service;
 - (l) physical or mental impairment or illness; and
 - (m) any other matters.

24 Penalties

- (1) Where an employee is found guilty of misconduct, the Chief Secretary may impose one or more of the following penalties:
 - (a) caution or reprimand the employee;
 - (b) reduce the salary payable to the employee within the applicable salary band;
 - (c) surcharge with mandatory deduction from salary by way of restitution any sum of money for the loss or damage caused by the employee to any Government property or consequential loss or damage to other property or person to which the Government may become liable to pay;
 - (d) forfeit any remuneration for the period of suspension without any remuneration before reinstating the employee;
 - (e) freeze any increments in the remuneration for a specified period of time;
 - (f) freeze any promotion in the public service for a specified period of time;
 - (g) impose a monetary fine;

- (h) demote the employee;
 - (i) suspend the employee for a specified period of time not exceeding 6 months without remuneration and such period shall include any period of suspension prior to the determination of the misconduct;
 - (j) transfer the employee to any other Department or position in the public service;
 - (k) offer an opportunity to the employee to resign in lieu of being terminated;
 - (l) terminate the employment;
 - (m) retire the employee in the public interest;
 - (n) a combination of one or more of the penalties; and
 - (o) any other penalty that the Chief Secretary may deem necessary.
- (2) Where an employee:
- (a) was suspended with half pay or without any remuneration;
 - (b) was demoted following the determination of the disciplinary offence for which he or she was suspended; and
 - (c) is entitled to receive any remuneration which was not paid during the period of suspension,
- he or she shall be paid remuneration based on the demoted position from the date of such suspension.

25 Failure of employee to respond or attend to any hearing

Where an employee, who has received a formal charge under Regulation 19 fails to respond to any request or direction by the Chief Secretary, the Chief Secretary may after the lapse of the specified time determine the charge and the appropriate penalty respectively.

26 Notification of decision

- (1) The Chief Secretary shall notify the employee in writing of his or her decision on the misconduct or penalty or both.
- (2) The decision of the Chief Secretary shall be kept as a record in the personal records of the employee kept by the Department of Chief Secretary, whether or not the employment is terminated.

27 Suspension

- (1) Where a Head of Department causes an investigation as to the conduct of an employee for breach of the Code of Conduct or commission of a disciplinary offence, he or she may suspend such employee with half pay pending investigation or final determination of the disciplinary proceeding.
- (2) Where the employee is suspended under subregulation (1) and the disciplinary proceeding has commenced, the Chief Secretary may, on the recommendation of the relevant Head of Department vary the suspension to be without remuneration pending the final determination of the disciplinary proceeding.
- (3) The Chief Secretary may suspend an employee, with or without remuneration, where the employee in the first instance was not suspended by the relevant Head of Department pending an investigation and the final determination of the disciplinary proceeding.

- (4) An employee may request the Chief Secretary to review the decision of suspension without remuneration, where no formal charges have been served to the employee or disciplinary proceeding has not commenced within 60 days of the date of suspension.

28 Chief Secretary to determine charge

- (1) The Chief Secretary shall within 90 days from the date of suspension or the service of the charge on an employee, whichever occurs first, make a final determination on such charge and penalty.
- (2) Where the Chief Secretary fails to comply with subregulation (1), the employee may be permitted to resume duties, pending final determination of the disciplinary proceeding.

Public Service (Appeals) Regulations 2020

TABLE OF AMENDMENTS

The Public Service (Appeals) Regulations 2020 SL 22 were notified and commenced on 24 July 2020 (GN 473/2020; Gaz 145/2020).

Amending Legislation	Notified	Date of Commencement
Revised Written Laws Act 2021 No 7	1 June 2021	1 June 2021

[The next page is 16,401]

The Cabinet makes the following Regulations under Section 130 of the Public Service Act 2016:

1 Citation

These Regulations may be cited as the Public Service (Appeals) Regulations 2020.

2 Commencement

These Regulations come into effect on the day they are notified in the Gazette and came into effect on 24 July 2020.

3 Interpretation

In these Regulations:

‘Board’ means the Public Service Appeals Board constituted in Section 105 of the Act; and ‘secretary’ means the secretary to the Public Service Appeals Board.

4 Commencing an appeal

A person aggrieved by a decision of the Chief Secretary made under the Public Service (Disciplinary) Regulations 2020, may appeal such decision of the Chief Secretary to the Board in Form 1 in the Schedule.

5 Notice to Attend

For the purpose of Section 113(1)(b) of the Act, a notice in Form 2 in the Schedule shall be issued to the parties to attend before the Board.

6 Appeal out of time

- (1) No appeal shall be permitted to be lodged after the time for lodging the appeal has lapsed.
- (2) Subject to subregulation (3), an aggrieved employee may seek leave to lodge an appeal out of time with the approval of the Chairperson of the Board.
- (3) Where the Chairperson of the Board grants leave to file an appeal out of time, the Chief Secretary may apply to have the appeal struck out summarily on the grounds that:
 - (a) the appeal was not filed within the stipulated time;
 - (b) there is an inordinate delay; and
 - (c) there is prejudice or it is detrimental to good administration of public service.

7 Withdrawal of appeal

- (1) An appellant may withdraw or discontinue the appeal in writing at any time prior to the delivery of the decision of the Board.

- (2) Where an appeal against a decision of the Chief Secretary is withdrawn or discontinued under subregulation (1), no further appeals shall be filed by the appellant without the prior leave of the Board.

8 Severance of appellants

Where in an appeal there is more than one appellant and any one or more of the appellants exercise their right to withdraw or discontinue an appeal under Regulation 7, any remaining appellant may continue with the appeal.

9 Interlocutory decision not appealable

There shall be no appeal of any interlocutory decision or a decision to suspend an employee by the Chief Secretary or Head of Department pending the investigation or the final determination of a disciplinary proceeding.
