

THE ISLAND OF NAURU.

No. 1 of 1948.

A N O R D I N A N C E

To provide for the issue of Commissions of Inquiry.

BE it ordained by the Administrator of the Island of Nauru in pursuance of the powers conferred by Article 1 of the Agreement dated the second day of July, 1919, between his Majesty's Government in London, His Majesty's Government in the Commonwealth of Australia and His Majesty's Government of the Dominion of New Zealand, as follows :-

Short title.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Commissions of Inquiry Ordinance 1948.

Definitions.

2. In this Ordinance, unless the contrary intention appears -

"Commission" means a commission of inquiry ; issued under this Ordinance;

"Commissioner" means a member of a Commission;

"Commissioners", where only one Commissioner is appointed, means the Commissioner;

"The Court" means the Central Court.

Commissions of Inquiry.

3.-(1.) The Administrator may, whenever he deems it advisable, issue a Commission appointing one or more Commissioners and authorizing them, or any of them, to inquire into any matter in which an inquiry would, in the opinion of the Administrator, be for the public welfare.

(2.) The Commission shall specify the subject of inquiry and may, if there are two or more Commissioners, direct which Commissioner shall be Chairman and may also direct where and when the inquiry shall be made and the report thereof rendered, and whether the inquiry shall, or shall not, be held in public.

(3.) Any Commission may be altered by the Administrator, whether as to the appointment of a Commissioner or Commissioners or otherwise, by the issue of a subsequent Commission.

(4.) Any Commission may be revoked by the Administrator, by notice in the Gazette.

Inability of Commissioner to act.

4. If any Commissioner is or becomes unable or unwilling to act, or dies, the Administrator may appoint another Commissioner in his place.

Secretary to Commission.

5. The Administrator may appoint a Secretary to perform such duties connected with an inquiry as the Commissioners direct.

Procedure.

6. The Commissioners may make such arrangements not inconsistent with the terms of their Commission for the conduct of proceedings before them, for the times and places of their meetings and the adjournment thereof, as they think proper.

Inquiries in public or private.

7. In the absence of a direction in the Commission to the contrary, the inquiry shall be conducted in such manner as the Commissioners deem appropriate and the Commissioners shall have power to conduct the inquiry or any part thereof in Public or in private as they deem fit;

Provided that the Commissioners shall be entitled to exclude from any inquiry any particular person or persons for the preservation of order, for the due conduct of the inquiry or for any other reason.

Commission not bound by rules of evidence.

8. The Commissioners shall make a thorough investigation without regard to legal forms and solemnities and shall direct themselves by the best evidence which they can procure or which is laid before them, whether the evidence is such as the law would require or admit in other cases or not.

Power to send for witnesses and documents.

9.(1.) Any Commissioner may, by writing under his hand, summon any person to attend the Commission at a time and place named in the summons, and then and there to give evidence and to produce any books documents, or writings in his custody or control which he is required by the summons to produce.

(2.) A summons to a witness shall be in accordance with the form in the Schedule to this Ordinance.

Power to examine on oath.

10. Any Commissioner may administer an oath to any person appearing as a witness before the Commission, whether the witness has been summoned or appears without being summoned, and may examine the witness upon oath.

Affirmation in lieu of oath.

11.-(1.) Where any witness to be examined before the Commission conscientiously objects to take an oath, he may make an affirmation that he conscientiously objects to take an oath, and that he will state the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, to all questions that may be asked him.

(2.) An affirmation shall be of the same force and effect, and shall entail the same liabilities, as an oath.

Attendance at Inquiry.

12. Any person who satisfies the Commissioners that he has a bona fide interest in the subject matter of an inquiry under this Ordinance, and any other person by leave of the Commissioners, may attend the inquiry in person or may be represented by counsel or solicitor.

Failure to attend or produce documents.

13.-(1.) If any person served with a summons to attend the Commission, whether the summons is served personally or by being left at his usual place of abode, fails without reasonable excuse to attend the Commission, or to produce any documents, books or writings in his custody or control which he was required by the summons to produce, he shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Not exceeding Fifty pounds.

(2.) It shall be a defence to a prosecution under this section for failing without reasonable excuse to produce any documents, books or writings, if the defendant proves that the documents, books or writings were not relevant to the inquiry.

Refusing to be sworn or to give evidence.

14. If any person appearing as a witness before the Commission refuses to be sworn or to make an affirmation or to answer any questions relevant to the inquiry put to him by any Commissioner, or having attended leaves the Commission without the permission of the Commissioners, he shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Not exceeding Fifty pounds.

Contempt of Commission.

15. Any person who wilfully insults the Commissioners, or wilfully interrupts the proceedings of the Commission, or is in any manner guilty of any wilful contempt of the Commission, shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Not exceeding Fifty pounds.

Giving false evidence.

16. Any person appearing as a witness before a Commission, who wilfully gives false evidence, shall be guilty of perjury and liable to prosecution and punishment accordingly.

statements by witness not admissible in evidence against him.

17. A statement or disclosure made by any witness in answer to any question put to him by a Commissioner or by any Commissioner shall not (except in proceedings for an offence against this Ordinance) be admissible in evidence against him in any civil or criminal proceedings.

Commissioner's report.

18.-(1) The Commissioners shall make a report of their proceedings and of the result of their inquiry to the Administrator and shall record the reasons leading to their conclusions.

(2.) A Commissioner dissenting from the conclusions, or any of them, shall give the reasons for his dissent.

Remuneration of Commissioners and Secretaries and payment of expenses of Commission and witnesses.

19.-(1.) The Administrator may determine what remuneration, if any, shall be paid to any Commissioner, to the Secretary of a Commission and to any other person employed in connexion with the proceedings of a Commission, and may direct payment of any other expenses attendant upon carrying out a Commission, or upon any proceedings for any offence under this Ordinance.

(2.) Witnesses who attend at the request of, or upon a summons by, the Commissioner shall, subject to any order made by the Commissioners, be entitled to the same expenses as they would be entitled to if they were summoned to attend the Court on a criminal trial, and payment thereof shall be made in such manner as the Administrator may direct.

Proceedings for offences.

20. No proceedings shall be commenced for any offence under this Ordinance except by the direction of the Commissioners, who may direct their Secretary, or such other person as they think proper, to commence and prosecute proceedings therefor.
