Enacted by the Parliament of Nauru as follows:

PART 1 – PRELIMINARY

1 Short Title

This Act may be cited as the Maritime Security Act 2019.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on 1 February 2020.

3 Objectives

The objectives of this Act are to:

- (a) enhance security on Nauruan ships and in Nauru waters;
- (b) safeguard maritime operations against unlawful acts;
- (c) protect persons, property and the environment from dangers arising from unlawful acts; and
- (d) comply with Nauru's international maritime security obligations, particularly under SOLAS and SUA.

4 Application

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), this Act applies to:

- (a) Nauruan ships over 500gt which engage on international voyages and the companies who owns such ships;
- (b) foreign ships over 100gt in Nauru waters;
- (c) Nauru ports that serve ships of a type specified in paragraph (a); and
- (d) other ships and ports prescribed by regulations.

(2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), this Act does not apply to:

- (a) pleasure craft; or
- (b) warships, naval auxiliaries or other ships owned and operated by the Republic or another state and used on non-commercial government service.

(3) Section 13 applies to:

- (a) all Nauru ports;
- (b) all Nauruan ships; and

- (c) all foreign ships in Nauru waters and the contiguous zone other than warships or naval auxiliaries.

PART 2 – ADMINISTRATION AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

6 General duties and powers

- (1) The Director shall:
 - (a) ensure that the company of a Nauruan ship complies with Section 17;
 - (b) ensure that a port facility operator complies with Section 23;
 - (c) test the efficiency of port facility security plans for Nauru port and ship security plans for Nauruan ships and, if necessary:
 - (i) require an amendment to be made and submitted for approval; or
 - (ii) where the amendment is not reasonably practicable, vary or cancel such port facility security plan or ship security plan;
 - (d) advise the Minister in relation to the making of regulations;

- (e) ensure that the activities of all port facility operators are consistent with Nauru's obligations under SOLAS and SUA;
 - (f) supervise and periodically review any alternative security arrangements affecting a Nauruan ship or a Nauru port facility;
 - (g) provide and advertise points of contact through which ships can request advice or assistance and report security incidents;
 - (h) communicate with other State parties to SOLAS on any information that comes to its attention that may affect their security;
 - (i) provide points of contact for communication with IMO and communicate such information to IMO from time to time as may be required by SOLAS regulations XI-2/12 and 13; and
 - (j) provide points of contact for requests under SUA article 8*bis* and notify IMO of such points of contact pursuant to SUA article 8*bis* (15).
- (2) The Director has the power to do all things reasonably necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with or as incidental to, the attainment of the objects of this Act.
- (3) The Authority shall ensure that the Director performs the duties under subsection (1).

7 Security Levels

- (1) The Director shall, after consultation with the Secretary of Transport and the Minister and consideration of available threat information, set security levels for:
- (a) Nauru port; and
 - (b) Nauruan ships.
- (2) Security levels shall be set to take into account the:
- (a) degree to which available threat information is credible;
 - (b) degree to which available threat information is corroborated;
 - (c) degree to which available threat information is specific or imminent; and
 - (d) potential consequences of a security incident arising from available threat information.
- (3) The Director shall periodically review and, where indicated by available threat information, re-set a security level in accordance with subsection (1).
- (4) The Director shall disseminate information related to the security level to every ship and port as may be affected by the security level.

- (5) Where security level 3 is set, the Director shall as soon as practicable, issue appropriate instructions and provide threat information to the ships, ports and States that may be affected.

8 Declarations of Security

- (1) The Director may require a declaration of security, having regard to the risk associated with a:
 - (a) ship-port interface; or
 - (b) ship-ship activity.
- (2) A declaration of security in respect of a Nauru port shall be published in the Gazette.
- (3) A declaration of security shall be completed:
 - (a) on behalf of a ship, by the master or the ship security officer; and
 - (b) on behalf of a Nauru port facility, by the port facility security officer.
- (4) A declaration of security involving a Nauru port shall be retained by the port facility operator for no less than 7 years.
- (5) A request for a declaration of security or variation of a declaration of security may be made by a:
 - (a) port facility operator;
 - (b) port facility security officer;
 - (c) Inspector; or
 - (d) ship security officer.
- (6) A request for a declaration of security may be made where:
 - (a) a ship is operating at a higher security level than the port or other ship with which it is interfacing;
 - (b) there is an agreement on a declaration of security between the Republic and another State covering certain international voyages or specific ships on such voyages;
 - (c) there has been a threat or a security incident involving a ship or port;
 - (d) a ship is at a port which is not required to have and implement a port facility security plan;
 - (e) a ship is conducting a ship-ship activity with another ship which is not required to have and implement a ship security plan; or

- (f) it is otherwise considered necessary to mitigate any risk to property, persons or the environment.

9 Equivalent Security Arrangements

- (1) The Director may allow a Nauruan ship, group of Nauruan ships or Nauruan port facility to implement security measures equivalent to those prescribed in this Act and regulations, provided that such measures are as effective as those prescribed in Part A of the Code.
- (2) Where equivalent security measures are allowed under subsection (1), the Director shall communicate the particulars of those measures to the IMO.

10 Verification and Certification

- (1) All Nauruan ships shall be subject to verification by the Director.
- (2) For the purpose of this Section, verification may be delegated to:
 - (a) a recognised security organisation provided, subject to section 19.1.3, Part A; or
 - (b) a State party to the Code.
- (3) The security systems and equipment of a Nauruan ship shall, after every verification, be maintained to conform to:
 - (a) regulation XI 2/4.2 and XI-2/6, SOLAS;
 - (b) the ship security plan; and
 - (c) this Act and regulations.
- (4) The issue of certificates shall be in accordance with Section 19, Part A of the Code and the regulations.
- (5) An application for a certificate shall be made to the Authority in the prescribed form.
- (6) A certificate may be issued by:
 - (a) the Authority;
 - (b) a recognised security organisation; or
 - (c) such other State as has verified the ship under subsection (2)(b).
- (7) A certificate:
 - (a) shall specify the period of its validity, which shall not exceed 5 years;
 - (b) shall be in the form prescribed in Appendix 1 or 2 as the case may be to Part A of the Code;

- (c) subject to section 19.3 Part A of the Code, may be extended; and
- (d) subject to regulations, may be cancelled.

11 Maritime security guards

- (1) The Authority may, by notice in the Gazette, appoint maritime security guards to maintain security in Nauru ports.
- (2) All maritime security guards may be appointed on different terms and conditions.
- (3) All maritime security guards are subject to the control and direction of port facility security officers.
- (4) A maritime security guard may :
 - (a) control the embarkation or disembarkation of people, baggage and cargo;
 - (b) supervise the movement within or entry of persons to, a Nauru port;
 - (c) supervise cargo and ship stores;

 - (f) require any person in a port to produce evidence of their identity;
 - (g) direct any unauthorised person to leave a port or aid to navigation;
 - (h) direct the driver of a vehicle in a port to stop the vehicle and remain stopped for as long as is reasonably necessary to screen the vehicle or a person or item in the vehicle;
 - (i) remove any thing from a port or aid to navigation; and
 - (j) do any other act as may be prescribed by regulations.
- (5) A maritime security guard may exercise the powers under subsection (4) in order to:
 - (a) ascertain the identity of any person;
 - (b) determine whether a person is complying with this Act or regulations;
 - (c) investigate a possible contravention of this Act or any other written law;
 - (d) identify or remove a person or thing reasonably believed to pose a risk to security; or
 - (e) identify, resolve or neutralise any threat.

- (6) A maritime security guard may be accompanied by a visitor and such visitor may provide any advice or assistance as may be requested.
- (7) Where there is reasonable ground to believe that a person has or is likely to commit an offence under this Act or the Counter Terrorism and Transnational Organised Crime Act 2004, such person may be detained by a maritime security guard in or in the vicinity of a port or an aid to navigation.
- (8) A maritime security guard may:
 - (a) screen any person detained under subsection (7) and any item in such detained person's possession; and
 - (b) seize an item in the possession of a person so detained if there are reasonable grounds to believe that the item:
 - (i) cannot lawfully be carried by the person under this Act or any other written law;
 - (ii) is evidence of the commission of any offence; or
 - (iii) poses an imminent risk to safety.
- (9) Where a police officer has taken command of a situation at a Nauru port or on a ship at a Nauru port, the powers of a maritime security guard in relation to that port or ship are subject to the direction of the most senior police officer present.
- (10) A person detained by a maritime security guard shall be handed over to a police officer as soon as practicable.
- (11) A police officer who accepts delivery of a person from a maritime security guard may arrest the person.
- (12) A maritime security guard shall not subject a person to greater indignity than is reasonable.
- (13) Where an item is seized by a maritime security guard, the maritime security guard shall:
 - (a) make and keep a record of the item;
 - (b) make available to the person from whom the item was seized a copy of that record;
 - (c) where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the item poses an imminent risk to safety:
 - (i) immediately destroy or otherwise dispose of the item; or
 - (ii) deliver the item to a police officer.

- (d) where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the item may not be lawfully possessed by the person from who it was seized, deliver the item to the police officer; and
- (e) in any other case, deliver the item to the Authority.

12 Recognised Security Organisations

- (1) The Director may, delegate to a recognised security organisation any powers and duties under this Act except:
 - (a) setting the security level under Section 7(1);
 - (b) approving port facility security plans and amendments under Section 25;
 - (c) exercising control measures;
 - (d) this power of delegation; and
 - (e) establishing the requirements for a declaration of security.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) prevents the Director from taking advice on any subject from a recognised security organisation or any other person.

- (7) A maritime security guard may require that a person in a port security area:

- (a) provide his or her name and address;
 - (b) state the purpose of his or her presence in the port security area;
 - (c) produce evidence of his or her identity; and
 - (d) produce evidence of his or her authority to enter the port security area.
- (8) A maritime security guard may at any time while on duty:
- (a) enter a port security area; and
 - (b) enter and search any building, vehicle or place in a port, including a port security area.
- (9) Where a maritime security guard is satisfied that a person in a port security area is an unauthorised person, the maritime security guard may require the unauthorised person to leave the port security area.
- (10) Where an unauthorised person fails or refuses to leave a port security area after being required to do so, the maritime security guard and or any person called upon to assist such maritime security guard may:
- (a) remove such unauthorised person; or
 - (b) detain such unauthorised person.
- (11) For the purpose of subsection (10), a maritime security guard and any person called upon to assist such maritime guard may use any force as is reasonably necessary to remove or detain an unauthorised person.

27

Screening

- (1) A port facility security officer shall, in consultation with the Chief Executive Officer of the Authority and the Director, establish control points to screen any:
- (a) person boarding a ship;
 - (b) thing to be carried by a ship;
 - (c) thing in a port security area;
 - (d) person (including their personal effects) or vehicle entering or within a port security area; and
 - (e) other place or thing as may be prescribed by regulations.
- (2) The Cabinet may make regulations prescribing the screening methods and procedures.
- (3) Any screening under this Section shall be conducted by:
- (a) a maritime security guard; and

- (b) such other persons as may be prescribed by regulations.
- (4) A person authorised under subsection (3) may restrain or detain such person that the authorised person has reasonable cause to believe:
 - (a) is contravening or has contravened the Counter Terrorism and Transnational Organised Crime Act 2004; and
 - (b) is necessary to prevent such person from passing through the control point.
- (5) For the purpose of subsection (4), reasonable force may be used.
- (6) A person detained under subsection (4) shall be handed over to a police officer as soon as practicable.
- (7) A person authorised under subsection (3) may seize an item detected during screening if such authorised person has reasonable cause to believe that the item:
 - (a) cannot be lawfully carried or possessed by the person under this Act or any other written law;
 - (b) is evidence of the commission of an offence against this Act or any other written law; or
 - (c) poses an imminent risk to safety.
- (8) Where an item is seized under subsection (7), the person seizing the item shall:
 - (a) make and keep a record of the item;
 - (b) make available to the person from whom the item was seized a copy of that record;
 - (c) where it is believed that the item poses an imminent risk to safety:
 - (i) immediately destroy or otherwise dispose of the item; or
 - (ii) deliver the item to a police officer.
 - (d) where it is believed that the item cannot be lawfully carried or possessed by the person from whom it was seized, deliver the item to a police officer; and
 - (e) in all other cases, deliver the item to the Director.
- (9) A person who refuses to be screened under this Section shall not pass or be allowed to pass through the control point.

Notification of Entry into Ports

- (1) A ship intending to enter a Nauru port shall notify the port facility operator and provide:
 - (a) the ship's certificate and the name of the issuing authority;
 - (b) the security level at which the ship is operating;
 - (c) the security level at which the ship operated in any previous port where it conducted a ship-port interface during the period of its last 10 calls at port;
 - (d) any special or additional security measures taken by the ship in any previous port where it conducted a ship-port interface during the period of its last 10 calls at port;
 - (e) ship security procedures which were not maintained during any ship-ship activity during the period of its last 10 calls at port; and
 - (f) of any other matters as may be prescribed by regulations.
- (2) A notification under this Section shall be made:
 - (a) before the ship enters Nauru waters; or
 - (b) where that is not possible, as soon as practicable after the ship has entered Nauru waters; and
 - (c) in such form as the Director may require.
- (3) The Director, an Inspector, a port facility operator or a port facility security officer may require evidence to be provided to confirm any of the matters under subsection (1).
- (4) A port facility security officer may require that a ship intending to enter a Nauru port provide the following information:
 - (a) information contained in the CSR;
 - (b) the location of the ship when the notification under this subsection or subsection (1) is given;
 - (c) the expected time of arrival in port;
 - (d) a crew or passenger list;
 - (e) a general description of cargo aboard the ship;
 - (f) matters related to documents or information required to be carried under this Act or SOLAS regulation XI-2/5; and
 - (g) other information prescribed by regulations.

- (5) This Section shall cease to apply where the master withdraws an intention to enter a Nauru port.
- (6) A master or company may decline to comply with the requirements of subsection (1), (2), (3) or (4), in which case:
 - (a) the port facility operator shall notify the Director; and
 - (b) the Director may deny the ship entry to the port or a port facility.

29 Control of Ships

- (1) A ship intending to enter a Nauru port is subject to inspection by an Inspector.
- (2) A ship intending to enter a Nauru port shall:
 - (a) have a valid certificate on board and produce it to an Inspector when required to do so;
 - (b) have provided the information set out in Section 28(1);
 - (c) allow an Inspector to board the ship and exercise the powers described in subsection (3);
 - (d) provide an Inspector with any security records kept on board the ship when required to do so, provided that a ship security plan may only be inspected:
 - (i) with the consent of the master or the flag administration; or
 - (ii) if there are clear grounds to believe that the ship is not operating in compliance with Part A and the only means to verify or rectify such non-compliance is to inspect the ship security plan; and
 - (iii) to the extent of the part of the ship security plan as it relates to the suspected non-compliance;
 - (e) comply with the security level set for the port or such higher security level as the flag state has set for that ship; and
 - (f) comply with control measures.
- (3) An Inspector may:
 - (a) board and inspect a ship in Nauru waters including a restricted access area on a ship, provided that:
 - (i) unless accompanied by a police officer, the power conferred by this paragraph shall be limited to peaceful and non-forcible entry;
 - (ii) entry to crew quarters or passenger cabins is not permitted without the consent of the occupier or a search warrant;

- (b) enter any place in a Nauru port;
 - (c) inspect equipment on a ship in Nauru waters or at a Nauru port;
 - (d) make any still or moving image or recording of a ship in Nauru waters or Nauru port or equipment on a ship or at a Nauru port;
 - (e) observe and record operating procedures on a ship in Nauru waters or at a Nauru port and discuss such procedures with any person;
 - (f) inspect any document or record relating to the security of a ship in Nauru waters or at a Nauru port;
 - (g) inspect any documents relating to a passenger or an item of cargo on a ship in Nauru waters or at a Nauru port;
 - (h) operate any equipment on a ship or at a port for the purpose of gaining access to a document or record relating to a ship in Nauru waters or at a Nauru port.
- (4) Where a ship has been required to provide evidence under Section 28(3) and:
- (a) a certificate has not been produced in accordance with subsection (1)(a) without reasonable excuse; or
 - (b) an Inspector has clear grounds to believe that the ship is not operating in compliance with Part A, -
- the Inspector shall first attempt to establish communication with the ship in order to rectify such non-compliance.
- (5) Where communication under subsection (4) does not result in rectification of the non-compliance, the Inspector may take one or more of the following steps:
- (a) require the rectification of the non-compliance;
 - (b) impose control measures, provided that:
 - (i) the master is first informed of the specific control measures intended to be imposed and provided the opportunity to withdraw the intention to enter the port;
 - (ii) the control measures shall be proportionate and reasonable and of the minimum severity and duration necessary to rectify the non-compliance;
 - (iii) the control measures shall only be imposed until the non-compliance has been rectified to the satisfaction of the Inspector;
 - (iv) all possible efforts shall be made to avoid a ship being unduly detained or delayed;

- (v) denial of entry into port and removal of the ship from port shall only be imposed where there are clear grounds to believe that the ship poses an immediate threat to the security or safety of persons, ships or property and there are no other appropriate means for removing that threat; and
 - (vi) a person shall be allowed to leave the ship or access to the ship shall be allowed for emergency, humanitarian or security purposes; or
- (c) impose additional or lesser administrative or corrective measures.
- (6) A ship may be denied entry pursuant to subsection (5)(b) despite any other written law.
- (7) Where a ship is removed from a port facility under subsection (5)(b), the port facility operator shall cease providing services to that ship if so directed by the Authority.
- (8) Where a ship is detained under subsection (5)(b):
 - (a) the company of the ship is liable to pay to the Authority the costs of and incidental to:
 - (i) such detention;
 - (ii) any inspection under subsection (5)(b); and
 - (iii) any costs incurred by the port facility operator as a result of the detention;
 - (b) such costs are without prejudice to any other remedy and are recoverable as a debt due to the Authority;
 - (c) the Authority may permit the ship to sail to another port provided that any conditions agreed between the Authority, the master and the port state are met; and
 - (d) the Authority is liable to pay the company of that ship compensation for any loss resulting from unduly detaining or delaying the ship.
- (9) Subsections (1), (2) and (3) shall cease to apply if the master withdraws the ship's intention to enter a Nauru port.
- (10) In the event that control measures are imposed, the Authority shall inform:
 - (a) the flag administration; and
 - (b) the recognised security organisation which issued the certificate.

Offences under Part 4

- (1) No person shall possess or control a prohibited item in a port security area unless he or she is authorised under regulations or has the written approval of a port facility security officer.
- (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and upon conviction is liable to a fine not exceeding $100,000.00 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 7 years or to both.
- (3) No person shall, when passing through or attempting to pass through a screening point, possess or control a prohibited item unless he or she is authorised under regulations or with the written approval of a port facility security officer.
- (4) A person who contravenes subsection (3) commits an offence and upon conviction is liable to a fine not exceeding $100,000.00 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 7 years or to both.
- (5) A person who is authorised or permitted to have possession or control of any prohibited item in a port security area or when passing through a screening point shall comply with the conditions of such authorisation or permission of the port facility security officer.
- (6) Where a person so authorised or permitted fails to comply with the conditions of an authorisation or permission, he or she commits an offence and upon conviction is liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000.00 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 24 months or to both.
- (7) A person who, having obtained the written permission of the port facility security officer to have possession or control in a port security area of a prohibited item, shall produce such permission upon the request of a maritime security guard.
- (8) A person who contravenes subsection (7) commits an offence and upon conviction is liable to a fine not exceeding $10,000.00 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 12 months or to both.
- (9) A person who:
 - (a) contravenes Section 26(5); or
 - (b) fails to comply with a requirement imposed under Section 26(7), (9) or (10), -commits an offence and upon conviction is liable to a fine not exceeding $10,000.00 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 12 months and to both.
- (10) No unauthorised person shall access or remain in a port security area.
- (11) An unauthorised person who contravenes subsection (10) commits an offence and upon conviction is liable to a fine not exceeding $10,000.00 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 12 months or to both.

- (12) No person shall disclose or allow access to a port facility security plan for a Nauru port unless he or she is duly authorised to do so.
- (13) A person who contravenes subsection (13) commits an offence and upon conviction is liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000.00 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 24 months or to both.
- (14) For the purpose of Section 28, no master shall make a statement or provide a document, whether orally or in writing, that is false or misleading in a material particular.
- (15) A master who contravenes subsection (14) commits an offence and upon conviction is liable to a fine not exceeding $25,000.00 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 24 months or to both.
- (16) The offences in this Section are offences of strict liability.

PART 6- MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

31 Appeal

- (1) A person aggrieved by an appealable decision may appeal to the Court.
- (2) An appeal under subsection (1) shall be instituted within 21 days from when the decision was made.
- (3) The Court may make any order as to the costs of an appeal as it deems necessary.
- (4) An appealable decision continues in force and is effective for all purposes until determination of the appeal.

32 Records

- (1) Every record shall be kept in English and, where applicable, in the working language of the relevant ship.
- (2) Unless otherwise stated, every record may be kept in electronic format, provided that such records are reasonably protected from:
- (a) inadvertent or unauthorised deletion, destruction or amendment; and
 - (b) unauthorised access or disclosure.

33 Prosecution and proof

- (1) Where a body corporate contravenes this Act and such body corporate has been found guilty of such offence, the Court may impose a fine of an amount equal to 5 times the fine for an individual.
- (2) Where a body corporate commits an offence against this Act, each executive officer of the body corporate:

- (a) commits an offence; and
 - (b) is liable to the penalty applicable to an individual who commits the principal offence.
- (3) It is a defence to a charge for an offence that the executive officer:
- (a) did not know and could not reasonably have been expected to know, the offence would be or was being committed; or
 - (b) exercised due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.
- (4) An executive officer of a body corporate may be convicted of an offence despite the body corporate not being charged with or convicted of an offence.
- (5) In any proceedings for an offence against this Act, unless the contrary is proved, the following provisions apply:
- (a) a copy of any document certified by the Director to be a true copy of the document is evidence of the document and its contents; and
 - (b) a certificate signed by the Director is evidence of the matter certified stating that, on a specified date a:
 - (i) Nauruan ship was or was not the holder of a valid certificate;
 - (ii) ship security plan or amendment for a Nauruan ship was or was not approved;
 - (iii) port facility security plan or amendment for a Nauru port was or was not approved;
 - (iv) person was or was not the holder of an MSIC;
 - (v) person was or was not the holder of a SID; or
 - (vi) person was or was not the holder of a visitor pass.
- (6) In any prosecution of an offence under this Act, the averment of the prosecutor is prima facie evidence of the matters averred although:
- (a) evidence in support or rebuttal of the matter averred is given by a witness or otherwise; or
 - (b) the matter averred is a mixed question of law and fact, but in that case the averment shall be prima facie evidence of the fact only.
- (7) Any evidence given by a witness in support or rebuttal of a matter averred shall be considered on its merits and its weight is not affected by the averment.
- (8) A person other than an officer or employee of the Authority or a maritime security guard who contravenes a provision of this Act or regulations for which no other offence is provided commits an offence and upon conviction is liable to imprisonment to a fine not exceeding $15,000.00.

- (9) A maritime security guard may issue an infringement notice on a person that is reasonably believed to have committed an offence under this Act in the preceding 7 days.
- (10) An infringement notice shall:
 - (a) be in the prescribed form;
 - (b) contain a description of the alleged offence;
 - (c) specify a prescribed penalty to be paid by the offender; and
 - (d) be served on the alleged offender or, where the alleged offender is a crew member or owner, on the master of the ship to which the alleged offence relates.
- (11) An infringement notice may be withdrawn or amended at any time before or after the penalty is paid, provided that a penalty paid before withdrawal is to be refunded.
- (12) The bringing of proceedings for the same offence against the alleged offender is prohibited to the same extent as if the alleged offender had been convicted by a court of the alleged offence where:
 - (a) the modified penalty is paid by the due date; and
 - (b) the infringement notice has not been withdrawn.
- (13) The payment of a penalty shall not be regarded as an admission for the purposes of any civil or criminal proceedings.

34 Injunctions

- (1) Where a person has engaged, is engaging or is proposing to engage in any conduct that will contravene this Act or regulations, the Court may, on the application of the Authority, grant an injunction.
- (2) For the purpose of this Section, the Authority shall not be required, as a condition, to give:
 - (a) an undertaking as to damages; or
 - (b) security for any costs.
- (3) The Court may, where it deems necessary, grant an injunction under this Section by consent whether or not the Court is satisfied that the person has engaged, is engaging or is proposing to engage in any conduct in contravention of this Act.

35 Protection from liability

Other than as specifically provided by this Act, the Chief Executive Officer, Director, port facility security officers, maritime security officers or any other officer of the Authority is not civilly or criminally liable for an act done or omitted to be done by the person in good faith in the exercise of a power or function under this Act.

36 Regulations

- (1) The Cabinet may make regulations prescribing all matters necessary or convenient to give effect to this Act.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), any regulations made under subsection (1) may:
 - (a) give effect to an incidental convention to which the Republic is a party;
 - (b) prescribe forms and fees; and
 - (c) prescribe offences.

37 Consequential amendments

The Schedule to this Act amends the Acts mentioned in it.

38 Savings

- (1) This Act does not affect an immunity or privilege that is conferred under the:
 - (a) Consular Privileges and Immunities Act 1976;
 - (b) Diplomatic Privileges and Immunities Act 1976;
 - (c) Special Missions Privileges and Immunities Act 1976;
 - (d) Facilitation of Australian Assistance Act 2004, -or any other written law.
- (2) Nothing in this Act limits the right of the Republic to take additional measures for national defence or security.
- (3) Nothing in this Act limits the application of the laws of the Republic to a ship in a Nauru port.
- (4) Nothing in this Act limits the rights which may be exercised at international law by the Republic on the high seas.
- (5) Nothing in Parts 2, 3 or 4 affects the operation of alternative security arrangements, provided that no Nauruan ship may conduct any ship-ship activity with another ship not covered by the alternative security arrangement.

(6) Nothing under Section 15(1)(b) affects any obligations of the Republic under international arrangements in relation to refugees or stateless persons.
