

REPUBLIC OF NAURU
CRIMES (AMENDMENT) No. 2 BILL 2020

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

The Crimes (Amendment) No. 2 Bill 2020 is a Bill for the Crimes (Amendment) No. 2 Act 2020.

This memorandum provides an explanation of the Bill and is only intended to indicate the general effect.

EXPLANATION OF CLAUSES

Clause 1 provides that, once enacted, the short title of the Bill will be the Crimes (Amendment) No. 2 Act 2020.

Clause 2 sets out when the Bill's provisions will commence which is upon certification by the Speaker.

Clause 3 is the enabling provision for the amendment of the Crimes Act 2016.

Clause 4 amends Section 8 of the Act by inserting the word 'intimidation' or 'intimidates' and its definition. This is necessary for the new offence of intimidation in the Bill. This is also necessary to clarify the ingredients of the offence of intimidation. This is related to the offence of intimidating or threatening a police officer in the execution of the police officer's duties.

Clause 5 amends Section 77 of the Act. Section 77 provides for the offence of causing harm to a police officer. The current penalty for this offence is if aggravating circumstances apply, 10 years imprisonment and in any other case, 8 years imprisonment. The proposed penalty for such offence committed against a police officer reflects the severity of the offences. Where there are aggravating circumstances, life imprisonment with a non-parole and non-probationary period of 12 years imprisonment. In any other case, 20 years imprisonment of which imprisonment term at least one third to be served, without any parole or probation.

Clause 6 inserts a new Clause 77A. This Clause is to provide for the offence of intimidating or threatening, a police officer. The penalty for this offence is 5 years imprisonment of which at least one third is to be served, without any parole or probation.

Clause 7 amends Section 105 of the Act which relates to the offence of rape. The current penalty is: if aggravating circumstances apply – 25 years imprisonment; or in any other case – 20 years imprisonment. The penalty proposed is life imprisonment of which at least 15 years imprisonment to be served, without any parole or probation.

Clauses 8 to 14 amend the sentence or penalty provisions of Sections 106, 107, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113 and 114 of the Act. These Sections relate to sexual offences.

Clause 25 inserts a new Clause 125A. This Clause is principally for the protection of children who may be vulnerable to sexual abuse and exploitation from persons who are in a position of trust or authority over such children. This Clause aims to punish a person in a relationship of trust with a child who crosses the line and breaches that child's trust.

Clause 30 deletes and substitutes Section 211 of the Act. This Clause makes it very clear that it is not lawful for any person to possess a firearm.

Clause 31 deletes and substitutes Section 212 of the Act. This Clause clarifies that it is an offence for a person to possess a firearm in a public place. This Clause however does not apply to a police officer or any other person authorised by the Cabinet to possess or carry a firearm.

Clause 32 inserts a new Clause 215A. This new Clause authorises the Minister to make a Declaration for an amnesty period to provide for the surrender of firearms by persons who have firearms in their possession. A person who surrenders a firearm during an amnesty period shall not be prosecuted for possessing such firearm. Any form of compensation may be prescribed by the Minister for persons who own and surrender their firearms under this Clause.

Clause 33 inserts a new Clause 215B. This new Clause is an offence provision which makes it an offence to manufacture, sell, import or supply a firearm. The penalty for an offence under this Clause is 10 years imprisonment.

Clause 34 amends Section 279 of the Act by inserting a new subclause (3). This subclause requires the court to impose a sentence or make an order against a convicted offender that is appropriately severe having regard to all the circumstances of the offence.

Clause 35 inserts a new Clause 282A. This Clause provides for the court when sentencing an offender to not take into account the time served in custody by an offender before the trial. This Clause applies to sexual offences in Part 7.
