APPLICATIONS FOR NURSING TRAINING

A 3-years course of training for Nurses will commence at Nauru General Hospital at the beginning of February 1980.

Applications, addressed to the Director of Health and Medical Services, Nauru, should be submitted by 21 December 1979.

Applications will be received from students who will be completing school this year, from Nursing Orderlies and from other persons interested in nursing as a career.

Applicants must be at least 16 years of age. Education to Form 5 is preferred. However applicants with lesser qualifications but with relevant experience will be considered.

Training will consist partly of lectures, demonstrations and practical work in the classroom and partly of practical experience in the wards and other branches of the hospital where trainees will work with the regular nursing staff.

Applications to state:

Name

Date of Birth

Highest level reached at school with subject marks

Brief outline of any relevant work experience

District and telephone contact number, if any

In the case of school leavers, whether the parents are agreeable.

Interviews will be arranged shortly after the closing date. Applicants who would like to get some preliminary experience should say so in their applications.

Dated this 28th day of November, 1979.
