- (4) The police officer shall inform the legal practitioner or support person not to unreasonably interfere with the questioning of a person.
- (5) Where the police officer considers that the support person or legal practitioner is not complying with subsection (4), the officer may exclude the support person or legal practitioner from being present during questioning.
- (6) Where a police officer excludes a person under subsection (5), the officer shall:

- (a) advise the person that he or she may nominate and communicate with another person to be present during questioning; and
- (b) where the person arranges for another person to be present, delay the questioning for a reasonable time to enable the other nominated person to be present during the questioning.

92 Questioning child or person with impaired mental capacity

- (1) For the purpose of investigation of a serious offence, a police officer shall not question a child or person with impaired mental capacity unless:
 - (a) the police officer has allowed the child or person with impaired mental capacity to communicate with a support person or legal practitioner in private; and
 - (b) the support person or legal practitioner is present while the child or person with impaired mental capacity is being questioned.
- (2) The police officer shall facilitate the arrangement of enabling a support person or legal practitioner for a child or person with impaired mental capacity to be present during the questioning of such child or person with impaired mental capacity.
- (3) A child or person with impaired mental capacity shall not choose a support person who is the alleged victim of an alleged offence.
- (4) The police officer shall inform the legal practitioner or support person not to unreasonably interfere with the questioning of a person.
- (5) Where the police officer considers that the support person or legal practitioner is not complying with subsection (4), the officer may exclude the support person or legal practitioner from being present during questioning.
- (6) Where a police officer excludes a person under subsection (5), subsections (1) and (2) continue to apply and the officer shall not question the child or person with impaired mental capacity until the requirements of subsections (1) and (2) are complied with.
- (7) Where, during the questioning of a suspect, it becomes apparent that the suspect is a child or person with impaired mental capacity, the police officer shall suspend questioning for the time necessary to comply with this Section.
- (8) In this Section 'person with impaired mental capacity' means an adult who, despite reasonable support, is incapable of:
 - (a) understanding his or her rights and deciding whether or not to answer questions; or
 - (b) communicating responses to the questions being asked.

93 Unreasonably interfering with questioning

- (1) For the purpose of Sections 91, 92 and 95, a person 'unreasonably interferes' with questioning where he or she:
 - (a) prevents or unreasonably obstructs the:
 - (i) asking of proper questions; or
 - (ii) person's responses to a question from being recorded;
 - (b) answers questions on behalf of the person being questioned; or
 - (c) provides written responses during the questioning for the person to quote.

- (2) A person does not unreasonably interfere where he or she:
 - (a) seeks clarification of a question;
 - (b) challenges an improper question put to the person;
 - (c) challenges the way a question is asked;
 - (d) for a legal practitioner:
 - (i) to advise the person not to answer any question; or
 - (ii) to say he or she wishes to give the person further legal advice.
- (3) A police officer before excluding a person from being present during questioning shall:
 - (a) warn the person not to interfere with the questioning;
 - (b) inform the person that he or she may be excluded from being present during the questioning if he or she continues to interfere unreasonably with the questioning; and
 - (c) give the person at least one further opportunity to stop unreasonably interfering with the questioning.

94 Police officer to delay questioning of person under the influence of alcohol or other substance

- (1) A police officer shall delay the questioning of a person the police officer considers to be under the influence of alcohol, drug or other substance.
- (2) Prior to commencing the questioning of a person whose questioning is delayed under subsection (1), the police officer shall be reasonably satisfied that the influence of the alcohol, drug or other substance no longer affects the suspect's ability to:
 - (a) understand his or her rights; and
 - (b) decide whether or not to answer questions.
- (3) Where, during questioning, it becomes apparent that a person being questioned is under the influence of alcohol, a drug or other substance, the police officer shall suspend questioning for the time necessary to comply with this Section.

95 Questioning foreign nationals

- (1) This Section applies where a police officer wants to question a person who is not a Nauruan citizen.
- (2) A police officer shall prior to the person being questioned, inform the person that he or she may communicate with his or her legal practitioner.
- (3) Where a person wants to communicate with his or her legal practitioner, the police officer shall allow the person to communicate with the legal practitioner in private.
- (4) The police officer shall delay questioning for a reasonable time to give the person the opportunity to communicate or attempt to communicate, with his or her legal practitioner.
- (5) A person questioned under this Section may nominate a support person or legal practitioner to be present during his or her questioning.
- (6) The police officer shall facilitate the arrangement of a support person or legal practitioner to be present during the questioning of a person.
- (7) The police officer shall inform the support person or legal practitioner not to unreasonably interfere with the questioning of a person.

- (8) Where the police officer considers that the support person or legal practitioner is not complying with subsection (7), the officer may exclude the support person or legal practitioner from being present during questioning.
- (9) Where a police officer excludes a person under subsection (8), subsections (5) and (6) continue to apply and the officer shall not question the person until the requirements of subsections (5) and (6) are complied with.

96 Questioning persons who are unable to communicate

- (1) This Section applies where:
 - (a) a police officer wants to question a person; and
 - (b) the person is unable, due to inadequate knowledge or a physical disability, to communicate with adequate fluency in a language spoken by the police officer.
- (2) In order to decide whether to arrange for an interpreter to be present during questioning of the person, the police officer may ask the person questions, other than questions related to his or her involvement in the offence, in order for the officer to decide whether or not the suspect:
 - (a) is capable of understanding:
 - (i) the questions asked of him or her;
 - (ii) what is happening to him or her; or
 - (iii) his or her rights; and
 - (b) is capable of effectively communicating answers to the questions; and
 - (c) is aware why the questions are being asked.
- (3) Where the police officer decides that an interpreter should be present, the police officer shall delay the questioning until the interpreter is present.
- (4) Where, during questioning of a person, it becomes apparent that he or she is unable to communicate with reasonable fluency in the language spoken by the police officer, the officer shall suspend questioning for the time necessary to comply with this Section.
- (5) For this Section, an interpreter may be present in person or by electronic or audio visual means.

97 When Sections 91, 92 and 94 to 96 do not apply

- (1) Sections 91, 92 and 94 to 96 do not apply where a police officer reasonably believes that compliance with these Sections is likely to result in:
 - (a) an accomplice or accessory of the person taking steps to avoid apprehension;
 - (b) an accomplice or accessory of the person taking steps to avoid being present during questioning;
 - (c) evidence being concealed, fabricated or destroyed; or
 - (d) a witness being intimidated.
- (2) A police officer shall not be required to delay questioning where, having regard to the safety of other people, the officer reasonably believes that questioning is so urgent that it should not be delayed.
- (3) This Section shall only apply where the police officer has the reasonable belief that circumstances under subsection (1) are likely to occur.

98 Police officer may use reasonable force against a person

- (1) A police officer who is exercising or attempting to exercise a power under this Act or any other written law against a person may use reasonable force to exercise the power.
- (2) A police officer may use reasonable force to prevent a person from escaping custody.
- (3) Subject to Section 99, reasonable force shall not include force that is likely to cause:
 - (a) serious harm to a person; or
 - (b) a person's death.

99 Police officer may use force against a person in critical situations

- (1) A police officer may use force that is likely to cause serious harm or death to a person where the force is reasonably necessary to prevent the serious harm or death of the police officer or another person.
- (2) Where the police officer reasonably believes that it is necessary to use force likely to cause serious harm or death to a person, the police officer shall, where practicable, first call on the person to stop doing an act, or to do an act to prevent serious harm or death of the police officer or another person.

100 Police officer may use reasonable force to exercise other powers

- (1) This Section shall not apply to Section 98 or 99.
- (2) A police officer or a person where exercising other powers under this Act or any other written law may use reasonable force.

101 Police officer may use force that is likely to cause damage when entering a place

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a police officer may use force likely to cause damage when entering a place to:
 - (a) arrest or detain a person;
 - (b) search the place; or
 - (c) establish a crime scene.
- (2) Prior to a police officer using force that may cause damage to a place to gain entry to the place, the police officer shall, where reasonably practicable:
 - (a) ask any occupier of the place to allow the officer to enter the place; and
 - (b) give the occupier a reasonable opportunity to allow entry.
- (3) It shall not be reasonably practicable for a police officer to comply with subsection (2) where:
 - (a) there is a reasonable expectation that, if warned, the person may immediately dispose of or destroy evidence; or
 - (b) an immediate search is necessary to ensure the safety of any person.

102 Police officer to give notice of damage

- (1) This Section shall apply where a police officer or person assisting a police officer, causes damage to property when exercising a power under this Act or any other written law.

- (2) The police officer shall as soon as reasonably practicable give written notice to the person who is in control of the damaged property stating:
 - (a) the nature of the damage; and
 - (b) the police officer's belief that the damage was caused by a latent defect in the property or circumstances beyond the control of the police officer or person assisting.
- (3) Where the owner is not present, the notice shall be left in a conspicuous place.
- (4) A police officer shall not be required to comply with subsection (2) where the police officer reasonably believes that:
 - (a) the damage is not substantial;
 - (b) no person is in control of the property; or
 - (c) the property has been abandoned.

103 Searching a person suspected of carrying weapons and other related items

- (1) This Section applies where a police officer reasonably suspects that a person has in the person's possession any of the following:
 - (a) weapons or explosives;
 - (b) stolen or unlawfully obtained property;
 - (c) evidence of the commission of a serious offence;
 - (d) an item that may have been used, is being used, intended to be used or primarily designed for use for:
 - (i) housebreaking; or
 - (ii) stealing a vehicle;
 - (e) evidence of the commission or about to commit an offence under Section 206 of the Crimes Act 2016; or
 - (f) an item intended to be used to cause harm to a person.
- (2) The police officer may, without warrant:
 - (a) stop and detain the person; and
 - (b) search the person and anything in the person's possession or immediate control for an item referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) The police officer may seize any item found in the search where the officer reasonably believes that it is an item of a kind specified under subsection (1).

104 Searching a person in custody without warrant

- (1) A police officer may, without a warrant, search a person in custody where the officer reasonably suspects that it is necessary to do so in order to determine whether the person has in the person's possession any item that:
 - (a) would present a danger to a person;
 - (b) could be used to assist a person to escape from lawful custody;
 - (c) is related to the commission of an offence;
 - (d) may be evidence of the commission of an offence; or
 - (e) is intended to be used in or in connection with, the commission of an offence.
- (2) The police officer may seize any item found in a search where the officer reasonably believes it is an item of a kind referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) For subsection (1), a person is in custody if the person is:

- (a) arrested;
 - (b) in custody for a charge for an offence that has not been decided;
 - (c) in custody under a sentence for a period of imprisonment;
 - (d) in custody on remand awaiting trial or sentence; or
 - (e) otherwise lawfully detained under any other written law.
- (4) A search carried out under this Section shall be carried out in accordance with this Part.

105 Searching private place for purpose of arrest

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), in order to arrest a person at a private place, a police officer may, without a warrant:
- (a) enter the place;
 - (b) search the place for the person to be arrested;
 - (c) stay there as long as is reasonably necessary for the police officer to arrest the person.
- (2) The police officer may enter and search a private place under subsection (1) only where the:
- (a) occupier of the private place consents to the officer entering the dwelling; and
 - (b) officer reasonably believes that the person to be arrested is inside the private place.
- (3) A police officer who arrests a person under subsection (1) or who is present at such an arrest, may without a warrant seize any item in plain view which the officer reasonably believes to be evidence of the commission of that or another offence.

106 Obtaining informed consent for searching private place

- (1) Where a police officer reasonably suspects that there is evidence of the commission of an offence at a private place, the officer may request the occupier of the place to give informed consent to the officer entering and searching the place without a warrant.
- (2) A child or person with impaired mental capacity is unable to give informed consent to the search of a private place.
- (3) Where informed consent is given, the police officer may ask the occupier to sign an acknowledgment of the consent stating:
- (a) the occupier has been informed:
 - (i) of the purpose of the search; and
 - (ii) that the occupier is not required to consent; and
 - (b) that the occupier consents to the officer present to enter the place and conduct a search; and
 - (c) the time and date that consent was given.
- (4) Where the occupier signs the acknowledgment, the police officer shall, as soon as practicable, give a copy of the acknowledgement to the occupier.
- (5) Where an issue arises in a proceeding about whether the occupier consented to the search, the onus of proving consent is on the person relying on the lawfulness of the search unless an acknowledgment complying with subsection (3) is produced.
- (6) In order to seek the informed consent of an occupier, a police officer may, without the occupier's consent or a search warrant, enter the place to an extent reasonably necessary to contact the occupier.

- (7) In this Section 'informed consent' means where an occupier gives informed consent to a search being conducted at a private place where the occupier gives consent after a police officer:
- (a) informs the occupier:
 - (i) of the purpose of the proposed search;
 - (ii) that the occupier is not required to consent; and
 - (iii) that the occupier's consent will be obtained before anything is seized, detained or rendered inaccessible in the course of the search; and
 - (b) requests the occupier's consent.

107 Searching private place with informed consent

- (1) A police officer who obtains informed consent under Section 106 may lawfully enter a private place and exercise the search powers that the officer reasonably believes are necessary to obtain evidence of the commission of the offence.
- (2) Where exercising any of the search powers requires the use of force against any property, a police officer may use force only where the occupier consents.
- (3) A police officer may take a sample or seize or similarly secure an item, only where:
 - (a) the occupier consents; and
 - (b) the occupier signs an acknowledgement stating the items the occupier gives the officers present consent to take.
- (4) A police officer may remain at the place for the period reasonably necessary to exercise the search powers.
- (5) Notwithstanding subsections (1) to (4), where the occupier of the private place withdraws his or her consent at any point during the search, the police officer shall leave the place as soon as practicable.

108 Searching public place

- (1) A police officer may, without a warrant, exercise any of the following powers at a public place:
 - (a) search a public place including by digging up land for anything that may be evidence of the commission of an offence;
 - (b) seize anything found at the place, which is not in a person's possession, that the officer reasonably believes may be evidence of the commission of an offence;
 - (c) record including by photographing, sketching or taking video footage of anything found at the place; or
 - (d) take samples of items found at the place for further investigation purposes.
- (2) A police officer may use the assistance of another person to exercise powers under this Section.

109 Searching conveyance

- (1) This Section applies where a police officer reasonably suspects any of the following is in a conveyance:
 - (a) weapons or explosives;
 - (b) stolen or unlawfully obtained property;
 - (c) evidence of the commission of a serious offence;
 - (d) an item that may have been used, is being used, intended to be used or primarily designed for use for:
 - (i) housebreaking; or
 - (ii) stealing a vehicle;
 - (e) evidence of the commission of an offence against Section 206 of the Crimes Act 2016.
- (2) A senior police officer, or another police officer in the presence of a senior police officer, may without warrant:
 - (a) stop and detain the conveyance; and
 - (b) search the conveyance or anything in the conveyance for an item referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) The police officer may seize an item found in the search if the officer reasonably believes it is an item of a kind referred to in subsection (1).
- (4) Where it is impracticable for the police officer to search the conveyance where it is stopped, the officer may:
 - (a) take the conveyance to a place that has appropriate facilities for searching the conveyance; and
 - (b) search the conveyance at that place.
- (5) Where a police officer takes a conveyance to another place under subsection (4), the officer shall, where the person in apparent possession of the conveyance is present or known:
 - (a) inform the person where the conveyance is to be taken; and
 - (b) ask the person if he or she wants to be present during the search.
- (6) Where a police officer searches an unattended conveyance or anything in the conveyance, the officer shall leave a notice in a conspicuous place on the conveyance that states:
 - (a) that the conveyance has been searched; and
 - (b) the officer's name and rank.
- (7) After searching an unattended conveyance or anything in the conveyance, the police officer shall ensure, as far as reasonably practicable, that the conveyance is restored at least to the same extent as it was before the search.

110 Entering private place to prevent offence, injury or violence

- (1) This Section applies where a police officer reasonably suspects that any of the following is occurring, has occurred before the officer's arrival or may imminently occur, at a private place:
 - (a) violence or injury to a person;
 - (b) an offence involving damage to property;
 - (c) an offence involving deprivation of liberty; or
 - (d) a breach of the peace.
- (2) Notwithstanding that the police officer does not have the consent of the occupier of the private place, the police officer may, without a warrant:

- (a) use the force that is reasonably necessary to enter the place; and
- (b) stay there for as long as is reasonably necessary for the officer to:
 - (i) establish whether the suspected act is occurring, has occurred or may imminently occur;
 - (ii) where there is an imminent risk of the suspected act occurring, ensure that, the risk no longer exists; and
 - (iii) give or arrange for reasonable help to any person at the place.
- (3) The police officer may detain anyone at the place for as long as is reasonably necessary for the officer to:
 - (a) establish whether the suspected act is occurring, has occurred or may imminently occur; and
 - (b) where there is an imminent risk of the suspected act occurring, ensure that, in the officer's opinion, the risk no longer exists.
- (4) Where the police officer is reasonably satisfied that the suspected act is occurring, has occurred or may imminently occur, the officer may do any of the following:
 - (a) detain a person to prevent the act;
 - (b) search anyone detained for anything that may be or has been used, to cause the act;
 - (c) search the place for:
 - (i) anyone who may be subject to the act; and
 - (ii) anything that may be, or has been, used to cause the act; or
 - (d) seize anything found at the place or on a person at the place that may be, or has been, used to cause the act.
- (5) The police officer shall, before searching the place, inform the occupier of the place, where present, that the occupier may accompany the officer while the place is being searched.
- (6) In this Section, 'breach of the peace' means an offence against Section 245, 246, 247 or 248 of the Crimes Act 2016.

111 Entering private place on suspicion of death or medical emergency

- (1) This Section applies if a police officer reasonably suspects that a person inside a private place is deceased or in need of urgent medical treatment.
- (2) Notwithstanding that the police officer does not have the consent of the occupier of the place, the officer may, without a warrant:
 - (a) use the force that is reasonably necessary to enter the place;
 - (b) enter the place to find out whether someone in the place is deceased or in need of urgent medical treatment;
 - (c) where a person is found deceased or in need of urgent medical treatment, stay at the place for as long as is reasonably necessary for the officer to ensure that anything that needs to be done for the person is done.

112 Entering private place on suspicion of fire

- (1) This Section applies where a police officer reasonably suspects that there is an uncontrolled fire at a private place.
- (2) Notwithstanding that the police officer does not have the consent of the occupier of the place, the officer may, without a warrant:

- (a) use the force that is reasonably necessary to enter the place;
- (b) enter the place to find out whether there is an uncontrolled fire at the place; and
- (c) stay there for as long as is reasonably necessary for the officer to:
 - (i) rescue any person or property at the place from the fire; or
 - (ii) put out the fire.

113 Entering licenced premises

- (1) This Section applies to a private place:
 - (a) that is connected to a licence issued under other written law; and
 - (b) where a register or other record is required to be kept under such written law.
- (2) Notwithstanding that a police officer does not have the consent of the occupier of the place, the police officer may, without a warrant at any reasonable time, enter at any place and stay there for as long as reasonably necessary to determine if the register or record is being kept at the place in accordance with the relevant written law.

114 Entering private place for other purpose

- (1) In order to investigate a matter, a police officer may, without a warrant but subject to subsection (3):
 - (a) make reasonable observations; and
 - (b) ask questions of anyone at the place.
- (2) In order to serve a Court document, a police officer may, without warrant but subject to subsection (3):
 - (a) enter a private place; and
 - (b) stay there for as long as is reasonably necessary for the officer to serve the document.
- (3) A police officer may enter a private place under this Section only where the occupier of the private place consents to the officer entering.

115 Application for search warrant

- (1) A police officer may apply to an issuing officer for a warrant to enter and search a private place in order to obtain evidence of the commission of an offence where the officer reasonably suspects that the evidence is at the place to be searched.
- (2) The application shall be sworn and state the following:
 - (a) the police officer's name and rank;
 - (b) a description of the place to be searched;
 - (c) where the place is occupied, the name and age of any occupiers of the place, if known;
 - (d) the offence to which the application relates;
 - (e) a description of the nature of the item sought that is suspected of being evidence of the commission of the offence;
 - (f) the information or evidence that is being relied on to support the reasonable suspicion that evidence of the commission of an offence is:
 - (i) at the place; or
 - (ii) likely to be at the place at the time the search warrant is executed.

- (3) The police officer shall provide either orally or in writing any further information that the issuing officer requires concerning the grounds on which the search warrant is being sought, including information relating to any search warrants issued in the previous year in relation to the place or person the application relates.
- (4) The police officer making the application shall not need to appear before the issuing officer when the issuing officer is considering the application, unless the issuing officer requires it.

116 Urgent application for search warrant

- (1) A police officer may make an application for a search warrant without the application being sworn if:
 - (a) the nature of the investigation means the search is urgent; or
 - (b) the delay that would occur from making a sworn application would frustrate the effective execution of the search warrant.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) may be made by telephone, fax, email or other electronic means.
- (3) Where an email or fax is available, the police officer shall, as soon as practicable, send a copy of the application to the issuing officer.
- (4) The issuing officer may:
 - (a) require communication by telephone or mobile phone to the extent practicable in the circumstances; and
 - (b) make a recording of the whole or any part of any communication by telephone or mobile phone.
- (5) An application made under this Section shall include:
 - (a) all information required to be provided in an application for a search warrant under Section 118; and
 - (b) the reasons for the urgency under subsection (1)(a) or the reasons why making a sworn application would frustrate the effective execution of the warrant under subsection (1)(b).

117 Consideration of search warrant application

- (1) Where an application for a search warrant has been made under Section 115 or 116, the issuing officer may, if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for doing so, issue the search warrant.
- (2) In determining whether there are reasonable grounds for issuing the search warrant, an issuing officer shall consider the following:
 - (a) the seriousness of the offence;
 - (b) the reliability of the information on which the application is based, including the nature of the source of the information;
 - (c) whether there is a sufficient connection between the evidence sought and the offence to which the application relates;
 - (d) whether any condition should be imposed in relation to the execution of the search warrant;
 - (e) any other matter that the issuing officer considers relevant.
- (3) Where an application is made to an issuing officer under Section 116, an issuing officer shall be satisfied that a sworn search warrant application is not required as the:
 - (a) search warrant should be issued urgently; or

- (b) the delay that would occur in making a sworn application would frustrate the effective execution of the search warrant.

118 What search warrant shall state

A search warrant shall state the following:

- (a) a description of the place that may be entered;
- (b) brief particulars of the offence to which the search warrant relates;
- (c) what evidence may be seized under the warrant;
- (d) the hours of the day or night when the place may be entered;
- (e) the date and time the search warrant ends;
- (f) that a police officer may exercise the search powers in Section 120; and
- (g) the signature and name of the issuing officer.

119 Search warrant issued following urgent application

- (1) Where an issuing officer issues an urgent search warrant, the issuing officer shall, if it is reasonably practicable to do so, immediately deliver, fax or email a copy of the search warrant to the police officer who made the application for the warrant.
- (2) Where it is not reasonably practicable to deliver, fax or email a copy of the warrant to the applicant:
 - (a) the issuing officer shall inform by any means necessary, the applicant:
 - (i) of the terms of the warrant under Section 118; and
 - (ii) the date and time when the warrant was signed; and
 - (b) the applicant shall make a written record of:
 - (i) the name of the issuing officer;
 - (ii) the day and time when the warrant was signed by the issuing officer; and
 - (iii) the terms of the warrant.
- (3) The police officer shall, as soon as practicable, give the issuing officer:
 - (a) the sworn application for a search warrant; and
 - (b) where a copy of the search warrant was not delivered, faxed or emailed to the police officer, a copy of the record completed under subsection (2)(b).
- (4) Where it is material to a proceeding for the court to be satisfied that the exercise of a power purportedly executed under an urgent search warrant was authorised, the court shall deem that the exercise of power was not authorised unless the person relying on the urgent search warrant can produce a copy of either the:
 - (a) search warrant signed by the issuing officer; or
 - (b) record completed under subsection (2)(b).
- (5) In this Section, 'urgent search warrant' means a search warrant applied for under Section 116.

120 Police powers where executing a warrant

- (1) A police officer executing a search warrant may lawfully enter the place specified in the warrant and exercise the search powers that the officer reasonably believes are necessary, to obtain evidence of the commission of the offence.

- (2) In addition to exercising search powers, a police officer may exercise any of the following powers where the officer reasonably believes that doing so will obtain evidence of the commission of the offence:
 - (a) where direct entry to the place to which the search warrant relates is impracticable, pass over, through, along or under another place to the extent reasonably necessary to enter the place;
 - (b) prevent a person from entering the place;
 - (c) detain any person not exceeding 3 hours, at the place, to find out whether the person has the evidence sought under the warrant;
 - (d) subject to subsection (4), search anyone at the place;
 - (e) open anything at the place that is locked;
 - (f) direct the occupier of the place to operate electronic or digital equipment including direct the occupier to provide any password needed in order to:
 - (i) determine whether it contains data that could be seized under the search warrant; and
 - (ii) search or access data including data stored on a separate storage device or data not held at the place.
- (3) A police officer executing a search warrant may also seize or similarly secure or record anything found in the course of executing the search warrant that the officer reasonably believes is evidence of the commission of any other offence.
- (4) Before undertaking a search of a person, the police officer shall first request the person to produce the item sought.
- (5) A search carried out under this Section shall be carried out in accordance with this Act.

121 Copy of search warrant to be given to occupier of place

- (1) Where a police officer executes the search warrant and the place is occupied, the officer shall, before entry or as soon as practicable after entry, give the occupier a:
 - (a) copy of the search warrant;
 - (b) copy of the record made by a police officer under Section 119(2)(b); or
 - (c) notice that states:
 - (i) a summary of the nature of the search warrant;
 - (ii) the type of powers that a police officer may exercise under the search warrant;
 - (iii) that the most senior officer who is present during the search shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, state the police officer's name and rank; and
 - (iv) that the occupier may ask any other police officer who is present during the search for his or her name and rank.
- (2) Where the occupier is not at the place when the police officer executes the search warrant, the officer shall, in a conspicuous position at the place, leave:
 - (a) a copy of the search warrant;
 - (b) a copy of the record made by a police officer under Section 119(2)(b); or
 - (c) the notice referred to under subsection (1)(c).

122 Return of search warrant

The police officer who obtained a search warrant shall ensure that, as soon as practicable after the warrant is executed, returned to the District Court the search warrant with details of its execution.

123 When search warrant ceases to have effect

Unless cancelled or extended, a search warrant including any powers the warrant authorises ceases to have effect, when the first of the following happens:

- (a) the execution of the warrant; or
- (b) the end date and time stated in the warrant.

124 Extension of search warrant

- (1) An issuing officer may extend the time and date when a search warrant ceases to have effect, where the issuing officer is satisfied that the purpose for which the search warrant was issued, cannot be satisfied before the date and time stated in the warrant.
- (2) An extension under subsection (1) shall:
 - (a) be made before the search warrant ceases to have effect;
 - (b) only be made once;
 - (c) not be extended for more than 6 days; and
 - (d) be made by issuing an amended search warrant that states the new time and date when the search warrant ceases to have effect.

125 Search without a search warrant to prevent loss of evidence

- (1) A police officer may exercise the powers under Section 120 at a private place to search for evidence of the commission of a serious offence before a search warrant is issued where:
 - (a) a crime scene has been established;
 - (b) it is not practicable to first obtain a search warrant including by telephone or other electronic means; and
 - (c) the police officer reasonably believes that it is necessary to immediately exercise the search powers to preserve evidence of the commission of a serious offence.
- (2) The powers under subsection (1) shall be exercised by or with the prior approval of, a senior police officer.
- (3) The period for which powers under subsection (1) may be exercised, shall not exceed 3 hours after the crime scene has been established.
- (4) As soon as practicable after exercising powers under subsection (1), the police officer shall:
 - (a) make a record of the reasons for exercising the powers and how they were exercised; and
 - (b) apply in writing to an issuing officer for a warrant authorising the search.
- (5) Where a police officer exercises powers under subsection (1), any evidence collected at the crime scene is inadmissible unless:
 - (a) the collection of the evidence is subsequently authorised by a warrant issued under this Part; or
 - (b) the court determines that it is in the interests of justice to admit the evidence collected.

126 Particulars for application for warrant to prevent loss of evidence

- (1) An application for a warrant to prevent the loss of evidence shall be sworn and state the following:
 - (a) the police officer's name and rank;
 - (b) the name and rank of the senior police officer who approved the exercise of powers under Section 125;
 - (c) the time, date and place of the search;
 - (d) where known, the name, age and address of each person detained or searched;
 - (e) the type of offence in relation to which the search was conducted;
 - (f) the nature of the item that was reasonably suspected of being evidence of the commission of the offence;
 - (g) the information or evidence that was relied on, before the search to support a reasonable suspicion that:
 - (i) evidence of the commission of an offence was at the crime scene; and
 - (ii) the exercise of search powers was immediately necessary to preserve the evidence;
 - (h) a description of anything seized in the search; and
 - (i) information about any proceeding started against a person, before or because of the search, for a serious offence in relation to which the search was conducted.
- (2) The police officer shall provide either orally or in writing any further information required by the issuing officer, of the grounds on which the warrant is being sought, including information relating to any search warrants issued in the previous year for the place or person the application relates.
- (3) The police officer making the application is not required to appear before the issuing officer when the issuing officer is considering the application, unless the issuing officer requires it.

127 Issuing officer's consideration, grant or refusal of an application made under Section 126

- (1) The issuing officer may issue a search warrant upon an application made under Section 126, where he or she is satisfied that:
 - (a) in the circumstances existing before the police officer exercised the search powers, the officer had a reasonable suspicion that:
 - (i) evidence of the commission of an offence was at the crime scene; and
 - (ii) the exercise of search powers was immediately necessary to preserve the evidence; and
 - (b) having regard to the nature of the evidence found during the search, it is in the public interest to issue the warrant.
- (2) Where the issuing officer refuses to issue the warrant, the issuing officer shall order the return or disposal of anything that was seized during the search.

128 General provision applicable to searching a person

- (1) Where carrying out a search on a person, a police officer shall:
 - (a) ensure, as far as reasonably practicable, that the way in which the person is searched causes minimal embarrassment to the person;
 - (b) take reasonable care to protect the dignity of the person;
 - (c) unless a strip search is necessary in accordance with Section 129, restrict a search of a person in a public place to an ordinary search; and
 - (d) where a strip search of a person is necessary but does not have to be conducted immediately, conduct the strip search out of public view.
- (2) Unless an immediate search is necessary, the person conducting the search shall be:
 - (a) a police officer of the same gender as the person to be searched;
 - (b) where there is no police officer of the same gender available to search the person, someone acting at the direction of the officer and of the same gender as the person to be searched; or
 - (c) a doctor acting at the direction of the police officer.

129 Strip searches

- (1) A police officer shall conduct a strip search in accordance with Section 128(2), where the officer reasonably believes that:
 - (a) it is necessary for the purposes of the search; and
 - (b) the seriousness of the circumstances require that a strip search be conducted.
- (2) Unless the circumstances require a strip search to be carried out immediately, the search shall be conducted by or with the prior approval of, a senior police officer.
- (3) A police officer shall:
 - (a) before conducting a strip search:
 - (i) inform the person that he or she will be required to remove clothing during the search;
 - (ii) inform the person why it is necessary to remove the clothing; and
 - (iii) request for the person's cooperation; and
 - (b) if reasonably practicable, give the person the opportunity to remain partly clothed during the search.
- (4) A strip search shall be conducted as quickly as reasonably practicable and the person searched shall be allowed to dress as soon as the search is finished.
- (5) The police officer conducting a strip search shall not make physical contact with the genital or anal area of the person searched, but may require the person to:
 - (a) hold his or her arms in the air; or
 - (b) stand with his or her legs apart and bend forward to enable a visual examination to be made.
- (6) Where a police officer seizes clothing during a strip search, the police officer shall ensure that the person is left with or given reasonably appropriate clothing.

130 Taking a person to another place to conduct search

Where it is impracticable to search for a thing that may be concealed on a person at the place where the person is, the police officer may take the person to another place that has adequate facilities for conducting the search.

131 Conducting search of child or person with impaired mental capacity

- (1) A search shall not be conducted on a child or person with impaired mental capacity unless it is done in the presence of:
 - (a) a parent or guardian of the child or person; or
 - (b) where paragraph (a) is not acceptable to the child or person or it is not reasonably practicable for a parent or guardian to be present during the search, another person, other than a police officer, who represents the interests of the child or person approved by the Commissioner.
- (2) In this Section, 'person with impaired mental capacity' means an adult who, despite reasonable support, is incapable of understanding the general nature of the search to be conducted.

132 Limited period of detention for search

A police officer who detains a person or conveyance for a search shall not detain the person or conveyance for a period longer than is reasonably necessary for the search.

133 Requirements applicable to property seized by police

- (1) A police officer who seizes property shall ensure that such property is kept, maintained and managed in accordance with standing orders or prescribed requirements.
- (2) The Commissioner shall:
 - (a) ensure that reasonable inquiries and reasonable efforts are made to locate anyone lawfully entitled to possession of seized property; and
 - (b) facilitate the lawful disposal or return of the property to its owner or to the person who had lawful possession of it before it came into the possession of the police force.

134 Receipt or record of seized property

- (1) Where a police officer seizes property, the police shall as soon as reasonably practicable:
 - (a) give a receipt or record of the property to the person from whom it was taken; or
 - (b) where the property is taken from an unoccupied place, leave a receipt or record, for the property in a conspicuous position at the place.
- (2) The receipt or record shall include the following information:
 - (a) a description of the seized property and the property's condition;
 - (b) the date and time the property was seized;
 - (c) where taken from a person, the name, address and telephone number of the person, if known;
 - (d) where taken from an occupied place, the name, address and telephone number of the occupier of the place, if known;
 - (e) the name and rank of the police officer who seized the property;
 - (f) where the seized property will be taken; and
 - (g) the date the receipt or record is issued.

- (3) The receipt or record may be for a single item or for all property seized from the person or place.
- (4) This Section shall not apply where the police officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that:
 - (a) no person is in possession of the seized property;
 - (b) the seized property has been abandoned;
 - (c) the seized property has no value other than as evidence of the commission of an offence.

135 Inspection of seized documents

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a police officer who seizes a document shall permit a person who is the owner or who is entitled to possession of the document to:
 - (a) inspect the document at any reasonable time; and
 - (b) make a copy the document.
- (2) The police officer shall not permit a person or owner under subsection (1) where the:
 - (a) Court orders it; or
 - (b) officer reasonably suspects that it would enable the person to repeat or continue an offence or to commit another offence.

136 Returning of seized property

- (1) Unless an issuing officer otherwise orders, a police officer shall return seized property to its owner or the person who had lawful possession of the seized property before it came into the possession of the police force, where the police officer is satisfied:
 - (a) the seized property is not required to be retained; and
 - (b) it is lawful for the person to have possession of the seized property.
- (2) Where the seized property is evidence of the commission of an offence and the police officer considers it appropriate, the police officer shall take the steps reasonably necessary to minimise the need to retain the seized property as evidence by:
 - (a) arranging for the seized property to be photographed;
 - (b) arranging for any necessary test or examination of the seized property; or
 - (c) gathering any other available secondary evidence in relation to the seized property.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the police officer may retain the seized property for a reasonable time after it was seized where the police officer considers, on reasonable grounds, that retaining the property is necessary to:
 - (a) prevent a person using the seized property to cause harm to himself, herself or another person; or
 - (b) prevent the committing of an offence.
- (4) This Section is additional to other provisions of this Act or any other written law relating to the return of seized property.

137 Forfeiture of seized property

- (1) The Commissioner may order the forfeiture of seized property to the Republic where:

- (a) the Commissioner is satisfied that:
 - (i) it is necessary to retain the seized property to prevent it being used in the commission of an offence;
 - (ii) possession of the seized property is not authorised, justified or excused by law;
 - (iii) the owner of the seized property cannot be found after reasonable enquiries;
 - (iv) having regard to the nature, condition and value of the seized property, it is not reasonable to make inquiries about its owner; or
 - (b) the Commissioner is unable, after making reasonable efforts, to return the seized property to its owner.
- (2) Where the owner of the seized property is known and can be found, the Commissioner shall, at least 30 days before making an order for forfeiture under subsection (1), give the owner a written notice that describes the seized property and states:
- (a) the reason under subsection (1) for which the Commissioner is satisfied the property should be forfeited to the Republic;
 - (b) that an application may be made to an issuing officer for an order for the return of the seized property under Section 138(a); and
 - (c) that, if an application is not made to an issuing officer within 28 days after the notice is given, the Commissioner may order that the seized property be forfeited to the Republic.
- (3) Subsection (2) shall not apply where the cost of giving notice is more than the value of the seized property.

138 Issuing officer's order for return or forfeiture of seized property

An issuing officer may order the:

- (a) return of seized property; or
- (b) forfeiture of seized property to the Republic.

139 Handling forfeited property

- (1) Where an issuing officer or the Commissioner orders the forfeiture of seized property, the seized property shall become the property of the Republic.
- (2) The Commissioner shall handle forfeited property in a manner which does not cause an actual or apparent conflict of interest for the Commissioner.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), the Commissioner may:
 - (a) sell such forfeited property; or
 - (b) destroy forfeited property.
- (4) Where forfeited property is sold, it shall be sold by public auction or tender and the proceeds of sale are to be paid in the following order:
 - (a) in payment of the expenses of the sale;
 - (b) in payment of the expenses of the storage of the property or any action necessary to prepare it for sale; and
 - (c) to the Treasury Fund.

140 Undercover investigations

- (1) The Commissioner may authorise the conduct of undercover investigations under his or her supervision or a police officer designated by the Commissioner.

- (2) Undercover investigations may be instigated for matters related to national security, corruption, money laundering and combatting of proliferation financing or terrorist financing offences or unlawful movement of illicit drugs.

141 Surveillance

- (1) For the purpose of allowing a police officer to gather information and evidence in the performance of his or her functions and subject to subsection (2), the Commissioner may authorise a designated police officer to conduct surveillance of a person suspected of committing or about to commit an offence.
- (2) The Commissioner or a designated police officer shall prior to undertaking surveillance, apply for and obtain a surveillance warrant from the court.
- (3) The application under subsection (2) shall be in writing, on oath and set out the following particulars:
 - (a) the facts relied upon to show that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that a person is planning, participating in, or committing, or has planned, participated in, or committed a serious offence;
 - (b) a description of the manner in which it is proposed to intercept private communications, record or observe activities or track activities;
 - (c) the name and address, if known, of the person whose private communications or a record or observations of whose activities there are reasonable grounds for suspecting will assist the police investigation of the case or if the name and address of the suspect are not known, a general description of the premises, place, thing, or type of facility in respect of which it is proposed to intercept private communications or record or observe activities;
 - (d) the retrieval of the surveillance device;
 - (e) entry with such force as necessary to any premises for the purpose of placing, servicing or retrieving a surveillance device;
 - (f) the connection of the surveillance device to any source of electricity and the use of electricity from that source to operate the surveillance device;
 - (g) the provision of assistance or technical expertise to the police officer primarily responsible for the execution of the warrant in the installation, use, maintenance or retrieval of the surveillance device; and
 - (h) the period for which a warrant is requested.
- (4) The court may issue a warrant for a police officer to:
 - (a) intercept a private communication by means of an interception device;
 - (b) record visually or observe an activity of a person by means of an optical surveillance device; or
 - (c) use a tracking device.
- (5) The court may renew the period of the warrant upon application by the police which shall:
 - (a) give the reason and period for which the renewal is required;
 - (b) be accompanied by full particulars, together with times and dates, of any interceptions made or attempted under the warrant and an indication of the nature of the information that has been obtained by every such interception; and

(c) be supported by such other information as the court may require.

142 Accessing computer systems

- (1) A police officer exercising a search power in respect of any data held in a computer system or other digital storage system may require a specified person to provide access information and other information or assistance that is reasonable and necessary to allow the person exercising the search power to access such data.
- (2) A specified person may not be required under subsection (1) to give any information tending to incriminate the person.
- (3) A police officer may when exercising a search power, require a specified person to provide information or assistance that is reasonable and necessary to enable the police officer to access data.
- (4) In this Section:

‘computer system’ means a device or a group of inter-connected or related devices, including the internet, one or more of which, pursuant to a program, performs automatic processing of data or any other function;

‘data’ means a representation of information, knowledge, facts, concepts or instructions which are being prepared or have been prepared in a formalised manner, and is intended to be processed, is being processed or has been processed in a computer system or computer network, and may be in any form, including computer printouts, magnetic or optical storage media, punched cards, punched tapes or stored internally in the memory of the computer;

‘specified person’ means, a:

- (a) user of a computer system or other data storage device or an Internet site who has relevant knowledge of that system, device, or site; or
- (b) person who provides an Internet service or maintains an Internet site and who holds access information; and ‘user’ means a person who:

- (a) owns, leases, possesses, or controls the system, device or site;
- (b) is entitled, by reason of an account or other arrangement, to access data on a site; or
- (c) is an employee of a person described in paragraph (a) or (b).

143 Controlled delivery

- (1) The Commissioner or a designated police officer on reasonable grounds suspects that a person has committed, is committing or is about to commit an offence may give written approval for:
 - (a) a controlled delivery to be carried out; and
 - (b) specify the persons to participate in the controlled delivery.
- (2) Notwithstanding any other law, the activities which may be undertaken in the course of and for the purposes of a controlled delivery include the following:
 - (a) allowing any craft, vehicle or other means of transport or conveyance to enter, leave, or transit through the Republic;
 - (b) allowing delivery of any property suspected to be derived directly or indirectly from any offence against any written law;

- (c) leaving or replacing any property suspected to be derived directly or indirectly from any offence against any written law;
 - (d) using such force as may be reasonable in the circumstances to enter and search the craft, vehicle or other means of transport, or other conveyance;
 - (e) placing a tracking device on board the craft, vehicle or other means of transport, or other conveyance; or
 - (f) allowing a person who has possession, custody or control of the property suspected to be derived directly or indirectly from any offence against any written law, to enter, leave or transit through the Republic.
- (3) For the purpose of this Section, 'controlled delivery' means the investigative technique of allowing an unlawful or suspect consignment of any matter including funds or currency to enter, leave, transit, be transferred through the Republic with the approval of a senior ranking police or customs officer with a view to gathering evidence to identify a person involved in any offence or to facilitate prosecution of that offence.

144 Identifying suspects by identification parade or photographs

- (1) A police officer may use the following to gather evidence about the identity of a person suspected of committing an offence:
 - (a) an identification parade; or
 - (b) a photograph.
- (2) Where more than one person is suspected of committing the same offence, a police officer shall use separate identification procedures to gather evidence about:
 - (a) which of the suspects committed the offence; or
 - (b) where the suspects may have jointly committed the offence, the identities of the suspects.
- (3) This Section shall not limit the procedures a police officer may use to gather evidence about the identity of a person suspected of committing an offence.

145 What shall be done before identification parade is conducted

- (1) A police officer may ask a person to be in an identification parade.
- (2) The person may refuse to be in the parade.
- (3) An identification parade may only be held where:
 - (a) a police officer explains to the person how the parade is to be conducted; and
 - (b) the police officer tells the person the following, the:
 - (i) person may refuse to be in the parade;
 - (ii) parade cannot be conducted unless the person agrees to be in the parade;
 - (iii) person may have a support person or legal practitioner present at the parade;
 - (iv) person's identity shall not be given to a witness unless the witness identifies the person and a proceeding is started against the person; and
 - (v) person may choose a place in the parade; and

- (c) the person agrees to be in the identification parade.
- (4) Where the police officer reasonably believes the person does not understand the matters under subsection (3)(b), the police officer shall ask the person to explain the matters in the person's own words.
- (5) A police officer shall ensure that the person has been informed of and understands the matters under subsection (3)(b) by recording it as follows, by:
 - (a) video or audio recording; or
 - (b) the person signing a written acknowledgment of such understanding.

146 How identification parade is to be conducted

- (1) An identification parade shall be conducted in accordance with the following requirements:
 - (a) the conditions that applied when the witness allegedly saw the suspect committing the offence shall, as far as practicable, be replicated in the parade;
 - (b) the parade shall include the suspect and 4 other people of similar physical appearance who are:
 - (i) wearing similar clothing to the suspect; and
 - (ii) to the best of the knowledge of the police officer arranging the parade, not known to any witness viewing the parade;
 - (c) where practicable, a number identifying each person in the parade shall be placed near the person;
 - (d) the suspect may choose a place in the parade and choose to be in a different place for each witness;
 - (e) only one witness may view the parade at a time;
 - (f) witnesses shall not be allowed to communicate with each other while the parade is being conducted;
 - (g) a police officer shall inform each witness the following:
 - (i) that the person who committed the offence may not be in the parade;
 - (ii) that the witness shall carefully view the parade;
 - (iii) where the witness recognises a person in the parade as the person who committed the offence, the witness shall identify the person by stating the person's identification number or the person's position in the parade;
 - (iv) that if the witness cannot identify a person with reasonable certainty as the person who committed the offence, the witness shall say so;
 - (h) a police officer shall not do anything in or in relation to the parade that:
 - (i) suggests or is likely to suggest, which person in the parade is the suspect; or
 - (ii) would otherwise unfairly prejudice the suspect;
 - (i) a witness may have a support person or legal practitioner present at the parade unless the:
 - (i) person is a witness; or
 - (ii) police officer conducting the parade reasonably believes the person may influence the witness's decision or disrupt the parade; and
 - (j) where reasonably practicable, the behaviour and position of each person in the parade shall be photographed or video recorded.

- (2) Where a person is prohibited from being present as a support or legal practitioner under subsection (1)(i)(ii), the police officer shall:
 - (a) give the witness reasons prohibiting the person being present;
 - (b) advise the witness that the witness may ask for another person to be present at the parade; and
 - (c) where requested by the witness, allow the other person to be present.

147 Identification parades for vulnerable suspects

- (1) An identification parade shall not be held for a suspect who is less than 10 years old.
- (2) An identification parade shall not be held for a suspect with impaired mental capacity.
- (3) An identification parade may be held for a suspect who is 10 years old or more but under 18 years old where:
 - (a) the suspect agrees or requests, in writing, to be in the parade; and
 - (b) written agreement of the suspect being in the parade is given by:
 - (i) the suspect's parent or guardian; or
 - (ii) where the suspect does not want to be represented by the suspect's parent or guardian, any other person acceptable to the suspect, other than a police officer who is capable of representing the interests of the suspect.
- (4) Where other persons to be included in the parade with the suspect are under 18 years old, the requirements under subsection (3) shall be complied with in relation to such persons.
- (5) In this Section 'suspect with impaired mental capacity' means a suspect who, despite reasonable support, is incapable of understanding the general nature of the identification parade to be conducted.

148 When identification by photographs may be used

An identification procedure by photographs may be used for a suspect only where:

- (a) the suspect refuses to be in an identification parade; or
- (b) conducting an identification parade for the suspect would be:
 - (i) unfair to the suspect; or
 - (ii) unreasonable in the circumstances.

149 How procedure under Section 148 is to be conducted

An identification procedure by photographs shall be conducted in accordance with the following:

- (a) each witness shall be shown a photograph of the suspect and 6 other people who:
 - (i) resemble the suspect in age and general appearance;
 - (ii) do not have features visible in the photograph that are markedly different from those of the suspect as described by the witness before viewing the photographs; and
 - (iii) to the best of the knowledge of the police officer arranging the identification procedure, are not known to the witness;
- (b) where practicable, the photograph of the suspect shall have been taken after the suspect was arrested or was considered as a suspect;

- (c) a photograph shall not indicate that a person in the photograph is in custody;
- (d) each witness shall be told the following:
 - (i) that the person who committed the offence may not be in the group of photographs;
 - (ii) that the witness shall carefully view the photographs;
 - (iii) where the witness recognises a person in the group of photographs as the person who committed the offence, the witness shall make a statement to that effect on the back of the photograph and sign and date the back of the photograph;
 - (iv) that where the witness cannot identify in the group of photographs a person with reasonable certainty as the person who committed the offence, the witness shall say so;
- (e) a record identifying each photograph shown to the witness shall be kept;
- (f) the suspect or the suspect's legal practitioner shall be told that a copy of the record is available to the suspect; and
- (g) where requested, the photographs shall be made available for inspection by the suspect or the suspect's legal practitioner.

150 Descriptions of suspects

- (1) Where a description of a person suspected of committing an offence is given to a police officer, the police officer shall ensure that:
 - (a) a record of the description is made; and
 - (b) the record is retained until a proceeding in relation to the offence is finalised.
- (2) Where the suspect is charged with an offence to which the description relates, a police officer shall:
 - (a) inform the suspect, or the suspect's legal practitioner, that a copy of the record and any other record of a description of a person suspected of committing the offence of which the police officer is aware, is available to the suspect; and
 - (b) subject to subsection (3), where asked by the suspect, provide the suspect the name of each person the police officer is aware of who has claimed to have seen, at or about the time the offence was committed, a person suspected of committing the offence.
- (3) A police officer shall not give the name of a person to the suspect where the police officer reasonably believes that doing so:
 - (a) places the person in danger; or
 - (b) exposes the person to harassment or unreasonable interference.

151 Entering and establishing crime scene

- (1) This Section and Sections 152 to 156 shall apply where a police officer:
 - (a) reasonably suspects that:
 - (i) a serious offence has been committed at a place; or
 - (ii) there may be evidence of the commission of a serious offence at a place, that is suspected of having been committed in another place; and

- (b) reasonably believes the place is to be protected to enable the officer to preserve, search for and gather evidence of the commission of the serious offence.
- (2) A police officer may:
 - (a) enter and remain at the place for the time reasonably necessary to decide whether to establish a crime scene; and
 - (b) establish a crime scene.
- (3) In determining whether to establish a crime scene, a police officer shall consider:
 - (a) the nature of any information obtained or observation made; and
 - (b) any visible evidence.
- (4) For a private place:
 - (a) the time reasonably necessary to decide whether to establish a crime scene shall not exceed 3 hours; and
 - (b) where a crime scene is not established, the police officer shall leave the place.

152 Record and notification of entry of private place

- (1) This Section applies where a police officer enters a private place under Section 151(2).
- (2) Where the place is occupied, the police officer shall, as soon as practicable following entry, notify the occupier:
 - (a) of the reasons for entering the place;
 - (b) the identifying details of the most senior officer present;
 - (c) that the occupier may ask any other police officer present for the officer's name and rank.
- (3) Where the place is not occupied, the police officer shall, following entry, leave a notice in a conspicuous position at the place that states, the:
 - (a) reasons for entering the place; and
 - (b) name and rank of the responsible officer.
- (4) The responsible officer shall ensure that a written record of the reasons for:
 - (a) entering the place; and
 - (b) establishing or not establishing a crime scene at the place.

153 Establishing crime scene

A police officer who establishes a crime scene under Section 151(2) shall:

- (a) identify what part of the place is the crime scene;
- (b) decide the boundaries necessary to protect the crime scene; and
- (c) where necessary, mark the boundaries of the crime scene sufficiently to identify the place as a crime scene.

154 Preservation of evidence at crime scene

- (1) Where a crime scene is established, the responsible officer shall take all steps the he or she considers reasonably necessary to protect anything at the crime scene from being damaged, interfered with or destroyed.
- (2) The responsible officer shall, to the extent reasonably practicable:
 - (a) ensure that a person, including another police officer, does not enter the crime scene unless, the:

- (i) person has a reason for entry associated with the investigation;
 - (ii) presence of the person is necessary to preserve life or property at the crime scene; or
 - (iii) person is authorised by the responsible officer to enter; and
- (b) prevent unnecessary movement inside the crime scene;
- (c) establish and maintain a safe walking area to minimise the risk of damaging evidence; and
- (d) ensure that nothing at the crime scene is unnecessarily touched or moved unless there is a possibility that evidence could be damaged, interfered with or destroyed if it is not touched or moved.
- (3) The responsible officer shall ensure that a written record is made of:
 - (a) all persons who entered the crime scene before and after it was established; and
 - (b) when each person entered and exited the crime scene before and after its establishment, and the purpose of the entry.
- (4) Where reasonably necessary, the responsible officer may remove, or direct the removal of, a person, animal, vehicle, vessel or object from the crime scene.
- (5) The responsible officer may:
 - (a) use the assistance of another person to perform the officer's functions under this Section; and
 - (b) delegate the officer's functions under this Section to another police officer.

155 Limitation in relation to preservation of a crime scene

- (1) Where a crime scene is established at a private place, the functions and powers under Section 154 to preserve evidence at the crime scene may only be performed and exercised respectively, during the time that is reasonably necessary to obtain any required warrant and complete the investigation of the crime scene.
- (2) Where a search warrant is required in order to search for and seize evidence at a crime scene, the responsible officer shall ensure that a search warrant is applied for as soon as practicable after the establishment of the crime scene.

156 Offences at crime scene

- (1) A person shall not:
 - (a) tamper with a crime scene or any evidence or potential evidence at a crime scene; or
 - (b) hinder or obstruct a police officer at a crime scene.
- (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months.

157 Directing person at or near a public place

- (1) A police officer may direct a person who is at or near a public place to move away from that place where the officer reasonably believes that:
 - (a) the presence or behaviour of the person is or has been:
 - (i) causing disruption to a person entering, at or leaving the public place;

- (ii) interfering with trade or business at a public place by unnecessarily obstructing, hindering or impeding someone entering, at or leaving the public place; or
 - (iii) disrupting the peaceable and orderly conduct of any event, entertainment or gathering at the public place; or
- (b) the behaviour of the person is or has been, disorderly, indecent, offensive or threatening to someone entering, at or leaving the public place.
- (2) A direction may require the person to do any of the following:
 - (a) leave and not return to the public place for a stated reasonable time of not more than 24 hours;
 - (b) leave and not return to a stated part of the public place for a stated reasonable time of not more than 24 hours; and
 - (c) move from a particular location at or near the public place for a stated reasonable distance, in a stated direction, and not return to or be within the stated distance for a reasonable time of not more than 24 hours.
- (3) A police officer shall not give a direction under this Section that interferes with a person's right to assemble and associate peaceably unless it is reasonably necessary:
 - (a) to protect the rights and freedoms of another person; or
 - (b) in the interests of:
 - (i) defence;
 - (ii) public order;
 - (iii) public safety;
 - (iv) public morality; or
 - (v) public health.
- (4) In deciding whether to give a person a direction under this Section, a police officer shall take into account the likely effect of the order on the person, including the person's need or ability to access:
 - (a) the place where the person lives, shops or works;
 - (b) transport or utilities; or
 - (c) health, educational or other services.
- (5) The police officer shall inform the person of the reasons for giving a direction under this Section.

158 Police officer may take action to prevent unlawful assembly

- (1) This Section applies where a police officer reasonably suspects that:
 - (a) an unlawful assembly is occurring; or
 - (b) there is an imminent likelihood of an unlawful assembly occurring.
- (2) The police officer and any person lawfully assisting a police officer, may take the steps the officer believes are reasonably necessary to prevent the unlawful assembly from occurring or continuing.
- (3) In this Section, 'unlawful assembly' means an assembly that constitutes as an offence against Section 244 of the Crimes Act 2016.

159 Police officer may take action to suppress a riot

- (1) A police officer and any person lawfully assisting a police officer, may take steps that the officer reasonably believes are necessary to suppress a riot.

- (2) In this Section, 'riot' means an assembly constituting an offence under Section 245 of the Crimes Act 2016.

160 Requirement for permit for assembly or procession

- (1) Where a public assembly or public procession is to be held in, or proceed through, any public place, the person responsible for organising and conducting the assembly or procession shall apply for, and receive, a permit from the Commissioner in accordance with prescribed requirements.
- (2) The Commissioner shall not issue a permit except where the Commissioner is reasonably satisfied that the permit shall be refused:
 - (a) to protect the rights and freedoms of another person; or
 - (b) in the interests of:
 - (i) defence;
 - (ii) public order;
 - (iii) public safety;
 - (iv) public morality; or
 - (v) public health.
- (3) The Commissioner may impose any conditions he or she considers reasonably necessary.
- (4) The person that is issued the permit shall carry the permit with him or her for the duration of the public assembly or public procession.
- (5) A police officer may stop and detain for a reasonable time any person present, at a public assembly or procession for which a permit is required under this Division to determine whether a permit has been issued.

161 Offences relating to assembly or procession

- (1) A person shall not be present at a public assembly or public procession where the:
 - (a) person knows that a permit for the assembly or procession has not been issued or has been cancelled;
 - (b) person knows that the assembly or procession does not comply with the permit or a condition of the permit; or
 - (c) person:
 - (i) is the person named in the permit as responsible for organising and conducting the assembly or procession; and
 - (ii) fails to produce the permit when requested by a police officer.
- (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be liable upon conviction to an imprisonment term not exceeding 3 months.

162 Power to inspect licences or permits

- (1) A police officer may stop and detain any person the police officer sees doing any act for which a licence or permit is required under any written law and to require such person to produce his or her licence or permit.
- (2) A person who fails to produce such licence or permit when required by a police officer, may be arrested without a warrant, unless he or she gives his or her name and address and otherwise satisfies the police officer that he or she will answer any summons or other proceedings which may be taken against him or her.

 - (e) prejudice the maintenance or enforcement of a lawful method or procedure for protecting public safety; or
 - (f) facilitate a person's escape from lawful custody.
- (2) In a proceeding, a police officer shall not be required to disclose information under subsection (1) unless the court is satisfied that disclosure of the information is:
- (a) necessary for the fair trial of the defendant;
 - (b) necessary to find out whether the scope of a law enforcement agency investigation has exceeded the limits imposed by law; or
 - (c) in the public interest.
- (3) Subsection (2) shall not affect a provision of any other written law under which a police officer cannot be compelled to disclose information or make statements in relation to such information.

183 Protection of a police informant

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), in a proceeding, a police informant:
- (a) shall not be compelled to give information that would disclose, or is likely to disclose, the informant's identity;
 - (b) may require that evidence not be presented in the proceeding by another person where that evidence:
 - (i) is information given to the person by the police informant or in the possession of the person with the police informant's consent; and
 - (ii) would disclose, or is likely to disclose, the informant's identity.
- (2) A Court may compel the police informer or other person to give information that would disclose or is likely to disclose, the informant's identity where it is satisfied that disclosure of such information is:
- (a) necessary for the fair trial of a defendant;

- (b) necessary to find out whether the scope of a law enforcement agency investigation has exceeded the limits imposed by law; or
 - (c) in the public interest.
- (3) In this Section:
- ‘information’* includes a communication, opinion or document;
 - ‘police informant’* means a person including a member of the police force or another law enforcement agency, working undercover who:
 - (a) has given, gratuitously or for reward, information to a law enforcement agency, about the possible or actual commission of an offence;
 - (b) has given the information in circumstances in which the person has a reasonable expectation that the person’s identity would not be disclosed; and
 - (c) is not called as a witness by the prosecution to give evidence relating to the information.

184 Protection from liability for making reports

- (1) The Republic or a police officer shall not be criminally or civilly liable for a report made by a police officer where the report is made:
 - (a) in good faith in the performance of the officer’s duties; and
 - (b) to a person who the officer reasonably believed had a duty or authority to receive the report.
- (2) The Republic or a person shall not be criminally or civilly liable for a report made by a person where the report is:
 - (a) made in good faith in the performance of the person’s duties; and
 - (b) about the efficiency, conduct or character of a police officer.
- (3) For the purposes of this Section, a report that contains a matter that is false or grossly misleading in a material particular shall not be deemed to be made in good faith except where it is proved that the person who made the report:
 - (a) believed, on reasonable grounds, that the matter was true; and
 - (b) could not, by exercising reasonable diligence, have discovered the false or misleading nature of the matter.
- (4) The burden of proving the absence of good faith shall be on the person who alleges the absence of good faith.
- (5) In this Section, ‘report’ includes an opinion or recommendation.

[The next page is 92,801]

PART 12 — MISCELLANEOUS

185 Application of the Public Service Act 2016

The Public Service Act 2016 shall not apply to the appointment of any person under this Act unless otherwise provided.

186 Lost property

- (1) This Section applies to property that is lawfully in the possession of the police force, whether before or after the commencement of this Section, where such property:
 - (a) is found by a person, other than a police officer, who gave it to a police officer as apparent lost property; or
 - (b) came into the possession of a police officer in the course of performing the police officer's functions, otherwise than by being seized by a police officer and appears to be lost property.
- (2) The police officer who receives the property shall ensure that it is given to the officer in charge of the police station where the officer is stationed, as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (3) The police officer who receives the property is responsible for the property's safekeeping until such property is delivered to the officer in charge.
- (4) The Commissioner shall:
 - (a) ensure that reasonable inquiries and reasonable efforts are made to locate anyone lawfully claiming to be entitled to possession of the property; or
 - (b) facilitate the lawful disposal or return of the property to its owner or to the person who had lawful possession of it before it came into the possession of the police force.
- (5) Reasonable inquiries and efforts shall be decided having regard to the nature, condition and value of the property.
- (6) Where the property is not able to be returned under subsection (4)(b) within 3 months after being given to the officer in charge of the police station, it shall be disposed of or sold in the manner the Commissioner directs.
- (7) The proceeds from any sale shall be used in the following order:
 - (a) payment of the expenses of the sale;
 - (b) payment of the expenses of the storage of the property, and doing anything necessary to prepare it for sale; and
 - (c) payment to the Treasury Fund.

187 Commissioner may authorise disclosure of confidential information

- (1) The Commissioner may, in writing, authorise the disclosure of confidential information.
- (2) The Commissioner may impose conditions on the disclosure of the information.
- (3) Where an agreement between the Republic and a foreign law enforcement agency provides for the disclosure or non-disclosure of confidential information, the Commissioner shall comply with the agreement.

- (4) This Section shall be subject to any:
- (a) written law that prevents or restricts the Commissioner from disclosing the confidential information; or
 - (b) requirement prescribed by regulations in relation to the disclosure of the information.
- (5) In this Section, 'confidential information' has the same meaning given to it in Section 176(3).

188 Oaths and affirmations

A person appointed as a police officer shall, before commencing the person's duties, take an oath or affirmation before the Commissioner in the form set out in the Schedule.

TABLE OF AMENDMENTS

The Police Service Board (Election of Member) Regulations 1972 commenced on 7 July 1972.

Amending Legislation	Notified	Date of Commencement
Nauru Police Force (Amendment) Act 2015 No 7	24 March 2015	24 March 2015
Revised Written Laws Act 2021 No 7	1 June 2021	1 June 2021

[The next page is 94,401]

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon me by Section 50 of the Nauru Police Force Act 1972 I hereby make the following Regulations:

1 Citation

These Regulations may be cited as the Police Service Board (Election of Member) Regulations 1972.

2 Interpretation

In these Regulations:

‘the Registrar’ means the Registrar of Courts.

3 Control of election

The Registrar shall have control of the election by officers of the Force of the member of the Police Service Board to be elected by such officers under Section 5 of the Act and shall exercise such powers and functions as are conferred upon him or her by these Regulations.

4 Nominations

Nominations of persons for election as the member of the Police Service Board referred to in Regulation 3 shall be called for by the Registrar no later than 14 days:

- (a) after the date when these Regulations are published in the Gazette; and
- (b) before the date upon which any elected member of the Police Service Board is due to retire upon the expiration of his or her term of appointment; or
- (c) after the death or resignation of such member.

5 Form of nomination

Nomination shall be in the form in Schedule 1 hereto and shall be signed by the candidate and 2 nominators who shall be officers of the Force and shall be delivered to the Registrar or the Registry of the Supreme Court during the office hours of that Registry.

6 Certified list of officers

The Commissioner of Police shall not later than 7 days before the close of nominations deliver to the Registrar a list of the names in alphabetical order of all officers of the Force, certified by the Commissioner to be true and correct, and such list shall be taken by the Registrar as prima facie evidence that a person whose name appears thereon is entitled to nominate candidates for or to vote for candidates at the election of the member of the Police Service Board for which the list was delivered.

[reg 6 am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

7 Close of nominations

Nominations shall close at noon on a week day, not less than 7 nor more than 21 days after the date upon which the Registrar called for nominations, appointed by the Registrar at the time of calling for nominations.

8 Withdrawal of nominations

A candidate may withdraw his or her nomination at any time before nominations close by notice in writing delivered to the Registrar and to the 2 officers who signed his or her nomination.

9 Publication of nominations

- (1) The Registrar shall as soon as practicable after the nominations close publish a list of candidates by posting the same on a notice board in the Police Station and outside the Court House.
- (2) In the event that there is only 1 candidate nominated, the Registrar shall in the notice posted under subregulation (1) declare that candidate as duly elected.
- (3) In the event that there is more than one candidate, the Registrar shall in the notice posted under subregulation (1) appoint a place and a time between the hours of 10.00 a.m. and 3.00 p.m. on a week-day, other than a public holiday, not less than 7 nor more than 14 days thereafter when the election shall take place.

10 Poll clerks

The Registrar shall appoint a person or persons, not being officers of the Force or persons nominated under these Regulations, to assist him or her at the election.

11 Ballot papers

Each ballot paper for the election shall be in the form in Schedule 2 and shall be completed accordingly.

12 Election

The procedure at the polling place shall be the same as in the Electoral Act 2016 as far as such procedure appears to the Registrar to be reasonably applicable.

13 Scrutiny

The procedure for scrutinising ballot papers and for determining the results of the election shall be the same as those provided in the Electoral Act 2016 as far as such procedure appears to the Registrar to be applicable.

14 Disputed election

A Judge of the Supreme Court shall hear and determine any dispute arising out of the conduct of the election and Part 8 of the Electoral Act 2016 shall mutatis mutandis apply.

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred on me by Section 50 of the Nauru Police Force Act 1972, I hereby make the following Regulations:

PART 1 — PRELIMINARY

1 Citation

These Regulations may be cited as the Police Regulations 1972.

[The next page is 96,101]

PART 2 — APPOINTMENT

2 Declaration on joining Force or Reserve

- (1) Every police officer shall, on joining the Force or the Reserve, make a declaration on oath or affirmation in the form set out in Schedule 1 to these Regulations.
- (2) The Commissioner, if not a serving police officer immediately prior to his or her appointment, shall make the declaration before the Chief Secretary.
[subreg (2) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]
- (3) Every other police officer shall make the declaration before the Commissioner.

[Subregulation number inserted by the Law Revision Commission under powers authorised by Act 10 of 2019]

3 Medical examinations

- (1) Prior to enlistment or re-enlistment for any period, every police officer shall be passed medically fit by a health practitioner on such medical examination as the Commissioner may direct:
Provided that, where any person normally resident outside the Republic is appointed to be the Commissioner, he or she shall be passed as medically fit by such person, and on such examination, as the Chief Secretary shall direct.

[subreg (1) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (2) A police officer shall submit himself or herself to medical examination by a health practitioner whenever required by the Commissioner.

[subreg (2) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

4 Physical standards

The Commissioner may from time to time lay down the physical standards required to be met by applicants for appointment to the Force and may waive compliance with those standards in any particular case.

[reg 4 am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

[The next page is 96,301]

PART 3 — LEAVE

5 Recreation leave and furlough

The provisions of subdivision 9 of Part 6 of the Public Service Act 2016 shall be deemed to apply to members of the Force.

6 Public holidays

[reg 6 rep GN No 245/1979 reg 8, opn 30 July 1979]

7 Sick leave

The provisions of Division 3 of Part 6 of the Public Service Act 2016 shall be deemed to apply to members of the Force.

8 Other leave of absence

The provisions of subdivisions 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 of Part 6 of the Public Service Act 2016 shall be deemed to apply to members of the Force.

9 Powers vested in Commissioner

For the purpose of the application of the provisions of Part 6 of the Public Service Act 2016 to members of the Force, the powers vested in the Chief Secretary by the Act shall be vested in, and exercisable by, the Commissioner.

[reg 9 am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

[The next page is 96,501]

PART 4 — OVERTIME

10 Application of Part III of the Public Service Act 1961–1971

[reg 10 rep GN No 245/1979 reg 8, opn 30 July 1979]

[The next page is 96,701]

PART 5 — DISCIPLINE

11 Procedure at trials for offences against discipline

The procedure provided for in this Part shall apply to all proceedings heard by the Commissioner under the provisions of Section 36 of the Act.

[reg 11 am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

12 Accused to be supplied with copy of charge

The officer charged with an offence against discipline, in this Part referred to as “the accused”, shall be supplied with a copy of the charge prior to the hearing.

13 Representation of accused

- (1) The Commissioner may, in his or her discretion, allow the accused to be assisted by another police officer chosen by the accused and, when such permission is given, his or her defence may be conducted by such officer: Provided that the Commissioner shall not impose a punishment of dismissal or reduction in rank if he or she has refused such permission.

[subreg (1) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (2) The accused may not be represented by a legal practitioner.

- (3) The Commissioner shall appoint a police officer to prosecute.

[subreg (3) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (4) A police officer who is for the time being a member of the Police Service Board shall not assist the accused or be appointed to prosecute.

14 Plea

- (1) At the commencement of the hearing, the Commissioner shall read the charge to the accused and call upon the accused to plead “guilty” or “not guilty”.

[subreg (1) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (2) If the accused pleads “guilty”, the Commissioner shall satisfy himself or herself as to the facts admitted by the accused and if they constitute the offence charged or any other disciplinary offence, shall, subject to subregulation (5), find him or her guilty and forthwith impose such punishment as he or she thinks just.

[subreg (2) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (3) The Commissioner shall record fully in writing the accused’s plea, the facts admitted by him or her and the punishment imposed.

[subreg (3) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (4) If the accused pleads “not guilty” or, having pleaded “guilty”, does not admit the facts alleged to constitute the offence charged and is not found guilty of any other disciplinary offence on his or her own admissions the Commissioner shall proceed to hear the evidence and determine the issues in the charge.

[subreg (4) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (5) Where the accused admits facts which constitute an offence less serious than the offence charged, the Commissioner is not obliged to find him or her guilty of the lesser offence and may, if he or she thinks fit, refuse to do so and proceed to try him or her for the offence charged.

[subreg (5) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

15 Evidence

- (1) No documentary evidence shall be used in any proceedings unless the accused has been given access thereto prior to the hearing.
- (2) The evidence of any witness taken during the course of the proceedings shall be recorded in the presence of the accused.
- (3) The evidence given at the proceedings need not be taken down in full, but the substance and material points must be recorded in writing.
- (4) The accused shall have the right to cross-examine each witness giving evidence against him or her and after each such witness has given evidence he or she shall be asked if he or she desires to cross-examine such witness.
- (5) The accused shall be asked if he or she desires to give evidence in his or her own defence and to call witnesses and, if he or she does so desire, shall be given a reasonable opportunity to do so.

16 Reasoned findings to be recorded

- (1) Where in any case the Commissioner has heard evidence in order to determine the issues in the charge, he or she shall record in writing reasoned findings in respect of those issues.

[subreg (1) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (2) Where the Commissioner finds the accused guilty of the offence charged, or of any less serious offence of a similar nature, he or she shall forthwith impose such punishment as he or she thinks just and shall record such punishment in writing.

[The next page is 96,901]

PART 6 — NAURU POLICE FORCE RESERVE

17 Notice of appointment

Every reserve officer shall, on appointment as such, receive a notice of appointment in the form set out in Schedule 2.

18 Training

Every reserve officer shall undertake such training as the Commissioner may order:

Provided that no reserve officer shall be required to attend for training before 5 o'clock in the afternoon on any day other than a Saturday or to attend for training on a Sunday.

[reg 18 am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

19 Pay and allowances

- (1) Reserve officers shall be paid for each hour, or part of an hour, during which they attend for duty or training.
- (1A) The rates of pay shall be such as the Minister may from time to time direct by notice in the Gazette.
- (2) Except as expressly provided in subregulation (1A), a reserve officer shall not be entitled to any remuneration in respect of his or her services as such.

20 Notice of termination of appointment

Notice of termination of the appointment of a reserve officer shall be in the form set out in Schedule 3.

[The next page is 97,101]

PART 7 — GENERAL

21 Absence without leave

- (1) A police officer shall not be absent from duty without authorised leave, unless reasonable cause is shown.
- (2) Where a police officer is prevented by illness or other emergency from attending duty, he or she shall, as soon as possible, advise his or her superior officer of the circumstances, and furnish any further particulars which his or her superior officer considers necessary.
- (3) Without prejudice to any other action that may be taken for a breach of this regulation, where an officer's absence from duty has not been sanctioned, he or she shall not receive pay for the period of his or her absence.
- (4) Notwithstanding that his or her absence from duty is authorised, a police officer shall not depart from the Republic without the express written permission of the Commissioner.

[subreg (4) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

22 Attendance as a witness

- (1) A member of the Force summoned or called as a witness before a court or the Nauru Lands Committee shall immediately advise his or her superior officer of the fact.
- (2) A member of the Force required as a witness on behalf of the Republic is not entitled to receive any witness fee but shall be granted leave with pay for the period during which he or she was necessarily absent from duty.
- (3) A member summoned or called as a witness before a court or the Nauru Lands Committee otherwise than as a witness on behalf of the Republic shall be granted leave but, unless otherwise determined by the Commissioner, the leave shall be without pay and any fees received by the member as a witness may be retained by him or her.

[subreg (3) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

23 Police officers not to comment on certain matters

A police officer shall not:

- (a) use for any purpose, other than the discharge of his or her official duties, information gained by or conveyed to him or her through his or her connection with the Force or the Reserve; or
- (b) except with the consent of the Commissioner publicly comment upon administrative action or upon the administration of the Force or the Reserve.

[reg 23 am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

24 Information not to be divulged

Except in the course of official duty, a police officer shall not divulge, directly or indirectly, any information concerning public business or any matters of which he or she has knowledge officially.

25 Outside influence

A police officer shall not seek the influence or interest of any person in order to obtain promotion, transfer or other advantage.

26 Gifts not to be solicited or accepted

A police officer shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit or accept gifts or presents from a member of the public interested, directly or indirectly, in a matter connected with the duties of his or her office or in which the Force or the Reserve is interested.

27 Borrowing or lending money

- (1) A police officer shall not, either as principal or agent, enter into a monetary transaction with another police officer, whereby any interest or other return in money or kind is charged or paid.
- (2) A police officer shall not borrow any money from any of his or her subordinates.

28 Contracts

No police officer, unless duly authorised, shall incur any liability or enter into any contract on behalf of the Force, the Reserve or the Republic, or alter the terms or conditions of any approved contract, or purport or attempt so to do.

29 Complaints, grievances and petitions

- (1) Subject to the provisions of subregulation (2), every police officer shall be entitled to make any complaint or application, either orally or in writing, to his or her superior officer who shall, on the request of the officer making such complaint or application, forward the same to the Commissioner without delay.

[subreg (1) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (2) No police officer shall:

- (a) together with any other police officer prepare or sign any complaint, petition or statement of grievances in relation to any matter concerning the Force or the Reserve;
- (b) petition the Minister in relation to any complaint or grievance unless such complaint or grievance has been previously communicated in writing through his or her superior officer to the Commissioner and the reply of the Commissioner relating to such a complaint or grievance has been communicated to the officer making the same; or
- (c) put forward any anonymous communication whatsoever to any officer in the Force or the Reserve.

[subreg (2) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

30 Issue of arms, equipment, etc

- (1) Police officers shall be issued with such arms, ammunition, equipment and clothing as may from time to time be determined by the Commissioner.

[subreg (1) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (2) Subject to the provisions of Section 42 of the Act, all arms, ammunition, equipment and clothing whatsoever issued to any police officer under the provisions of this Regulation shall remain the property of the Republic.

- (3) Arms, ammunition, equipment, clothing and stores issued to any police officer shall be used for police purposes only.

31 Issue of firearms and ammunition

- (1) No firearm or ammunition for a firearm shall be issued by any police officer to himself or herself or to any other police officer except upon, and in accordance with, the directions of the Commissioner.

[subreg (1) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (2) The Commissioner shall not, except with the prior approval of the Minister, direct:

- (a) that any firearm be issued otherwise than for the purpose of arms drill or for training or practice in the firing of firearms; or
- (b) that any ammunition for a firearm be issued except for training or practice in the firing of firearms.

[subreg (2) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

32 Safeguarding of firearms and ammunition

A police officer to whom a firearm or ammunition for a firearm has been issued shall safeguard it at all times while it remains in his or her possession and shall not part with possession of it except in accordance with a direction given to him or her by the Commissioner or another superior officer.

[reg 32 am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

33 Discharge of firearms

A police officer shall not carry or discharge a firearm issued to him or her except upon, and in accordance with, the orders of a superior officer.

[The next page is 99,101]

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred on me by Section 37 of the Nauru Police Force Act 1972, I hereby make the following Rules:

1 Citation

These Rules may be cited as the Police (Appeals) Rules 1972.

2 Interpretation

In these Rules:

‘the Chairperson’ means the Chairperson of the Police Service Board appointed under Article 69(2)(a) of the Constitution as Chairperson of the Board; and

[def am Act 16 of 2022 s 10, opn 10 June 2022]

‘the Registrar’ means the Registrar of Courts.

3 Notice of appeal

(1) An appeal to the Police Service Board under Section 37 of the Act shall be commenced by delivering to the Registrar a notice in the form set out in Schedule 1.

(2) The Registrar shall forthwith prepare carbon, or photographic, copies of the notice of appeal and deliver a copy to the Commissioner.

[subr (2) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

4 Record of proceedings before Commissioner

(1) Upon receipt of the notice referred to in Rule 3, the Commissioner shall forthwith prepare a typed copy of the charge and of the proceedings before him or her in respect of which the appeal is brought, and 6 carbon, or photographic, copies of such copy, certify them as correct and deliver them to the Registrar.

[subr (1) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

(1A) The Commissioner shall also prepare a list of all previous breaches of discipline, if any, by the appellant and the orders made on them and send it to the Registrar with 6 carbon, or photographic, copies thereof and with 7 copies, which may be typed, carbon or photographic, of all relevant letters, memoranda and other documents, if any, sent to or received from the appellant.

(2) The Registrar, upon receiving the copies of the charge and the proceedings and the list and copies referred to in subrules (1) and (1A), shall forthwith send 1 copy of each to each member of the Board, and to the appellant and shall send to each member of the Board a copy of the notice of appeal.

[r 4 am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

5 Setting appeal down for hearing

The Chairperson shall appoint a time and place for the appeal to be heard by the Board and the Registrar shall send to the appellant, the Commissioner and the other members of the Board written notice.

[r 5 am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

6 Representation

- (1) At the hearing, the appellant's case may be conducted at his or her option, either by himself or herself or by another police officer chosen by him or her or, at his or her own expense, by a legal practitioner.
- (2) The case for upholding the Commissioner's findings and order shall not be presented by the Commissioner but may be presented by an officer of the Department of Justice or a police officer appointed to do so by the Commissioner.

[subr (2) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

7 Hearing

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred on me by Section 50 of the Nauru Police Force Act 1972, I hereby make the following Regulations:

1 Citation

These Regulations may be cited as the Police (Overtime and Public Holidays) Regulations 1979.

2 Interpretation

In these Regulations:

‘fortnightly pay period’ means the periods of a fortnight each in respect of which permanent officers in the Public Service under and by virtue of the Public Service Act 2016 are paid;

‘overtime’ means any period during which a police officer performs a duty in any working week in excess of the normal hours of duty;

‘police officer’ means any person appointed under Section 6 of the Act;

‘section of the Nauru Police Force’ means any division existing for administrative convenience and the discharge of the functions of the Nauru Police Force; and ‘working week’ means a period of Monday to Sunday, both days inclusive.

3 Hours of duty

- (1) Subject to Regulation 6(8), the number of normal hours of duty of police officers in any working week shall be 40 hours.
- (2) Notwithstanding subregulation (1), a police officer may be required to work, in accordance with these Regulations, hours in excess of 40 hours in any working week and, except insofar as is provided to the contrary by these Regulations, he or she shall be entitled to receive overtime payments in respect of excess hours worked.
- (3) A police officer shall attend to perform duty during such hours as he or she may be directed to do so by the Commissioner of Police or any other officer to whom the Commissioner of Police may delegate his or her powers under this subregulation.

[subreg (2) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (4) A police officer who is shown upon a roster exhibited in a conspicuous position in the Central Police Station or in respect of any section of the Nauru Police Force any other place specified by the Commissioner of Police as being due to perform duties between the hours and on the days shown on any such roster shall be deemed to have been directed by the Commissioner of Police to perform duty between those hours on those days.

[subreg (3) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

4 Records of attendance

- (1) The Commissioner of Police shall determine the means of recording the attendance of police officers.

[subreg (1) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (2) The officer in charge of each section of the Nauru Police Force is responsible, using the means of record determined by the Commissioner of Police, for the recording of attendance of police officers in that section in accordance with these Regulations and such directions as are given to him or her by the Commissioner of Police.

[subreg (2) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (3) Every police officer, other than the Commissioner of Police, shall, record daily, by the means of record determined by the Commissioner of Police, the actual times of his or her arrival at and his or her departure from, his or her place of duty.

[subreg (3) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (4) The means of record of attendances for each section of the Nauru Police Force shall be available at all times at the Police Station or at such other place as the Commissioner of Police may determine.

[subreg (4) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

5 Public holidays

- (1) The days which are holidays in the Public Service under or by virtue of the provisions of Section 81 of the Public Service Act 2016 shall be holidays in the Nauru Police Force.
- (2) The Commissioner of Police may require police officers to perform duties on public holidays but any police officer performing duties on such a holiday shall be entitled to receive:
- (a) overtime payment for the hours during which such duties are performed subject to Regulations 6(8) and 7(1)(a); or
 - (b) an equivalent time as additional recreational leave, as the Commissioner of Police shall direct in each case:
- Provided that the Commissioner of Police may issue general directions applying to the circumstances specified in any such direction.

[subreg (2) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

6 Overtime payments

- (1) Except insofar as is provided by Regulation 5 or in special circumstances approved by the Commissioner of Police, a police officer holding a rank or acting in a rank above that of Sergeant First Class shall not be entitled to receive any payment for overtime.

[subreg (1) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (2) At the end of each fortnightly pay period, the officer in charge of each section of the Nauru Police Force shall furnish to the Commissioner of Police a return containing the following:
- (a) a statement of all overtime worked in that section during that period;
 - (b) particulars of all claims of police officers within that section for payment at overtime rates for hours of duty worked during that period; and
 - (c) a certificate signed by the officer furnishing the return that the overtime appears to him or her:
 - (i) to have been worked; and

- (ii) to have been authorised in advance; or if not authorised in advance, to have been justified.

[subreg (2) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (3) The Commissioner of Police may disallow payment for overtime claimed to have been worked if:
 - (a) he or she believes that the overtime, was not worked; or
 - (b) the overtime, if not authorised in advance, was in his or her opinion not justified.

[subreg (3) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (4) For the purpose of payment, overtime shall be calculated to the nearest quarter of an hour of the total period of overtime worked in each fortnightly pay period.
- (5) Subject to subregulation (6) the hourly rate of overtime payment shall be:
 - (a) in respect of overtime worked on a holiday, twice the normal hourly rate of pay;
 - (b) in respect of overtime worked on a Sunday, subject to Regulation 7, twice the normal hourly rate of pay; and
 - (c) in respect of any other overtime worked, one and a half times the normal hourly rate of pay.
- (6) The normal hourly rate of pay shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Annual Salary}}{313} \times \frac{6}{40}$$

and the overtime hourly rate of pay shall be calculated by multiplying the result of the formula by one and a half or two, whichever the provisions of subregulation (5) in the circumstances require and calculating the figure thus produced to two decimal points of a cent.

- (7) An allowance payable paid to a police officer for performance of higher duties and allowances granted in such other cases as the Commissioner of Police determines shall be regarded as salary for the purpose of computing overtime payment.

[subreg (7) am Act 7 of 2015 s 3 and Sch [1], opn 24 Mar 2015]

- (8) Any period of absence from duty granted to a police officer by way of leave of absence shall, in the calculation of the number of hours to be worked before overtime can be claimed, be added to the number of hours actually worked by the police officer in the relative fortnightly pay period, but a police officer shall not, unless absent from duty on leave of absence, or unless absent in respect of any public holiday falling within that pay period, be credited with any hours of duty not actually worked.
- (9) Where a police officer is required to perform duties at times or on days which are not disclosed on the roster mentioned in Regulation 3, the period of duty shall be deemed to include the time reasonably spent in travelling to his or her place of duty from his or her home and returning to his or her home thereafter, unless such period of duty falls immediately before or immediately after a period of duty mentioned on such roster.

7 Sunday duty

- (1) Subject to Regulation 6(1), a police officer who is required to perform duty on a Sunday shall be paid in respect of that duty:

100,903

Service 0

- (a) at his or her normal rate of salary for such period during which that duty is performed as together with his or her other periods of duty in the working week which includes that Sunday does not exceed 40 hours; and
 - (b) at double his or her normal rate of salary for any period during which that duty is performed after the completion of 40 hours of duty in the working week which includes that Sunday.
- (2) In computing, payments for duty performed on a Sunday:
- (a) scheduled duty ending at 2 o'clock in the morning or earlier on the Sunday shall not be paid for at the rate of double time unless the officer is again required to be on duty on the same day; and
 - (b) scheduled duty commencing at 10 o'clock in the evening or later on a Sunday shall not be paid for at the rate of double time unless the officer has already been on duty on the same day.

8 Repeal

Regulations 6 and 10 of the Police Regulations 1972 are hereby repealed with effect from the date on which these Regulations come into force.
